- (b) if the applicant does not provide such evidence or information within that period, the decision to be superseded may be superseded on the basis of the application.

Interaction of revisions and superseding decisions

15.—(1) This regulation applies to any decision in relation to which circumstances arise in which the decision may be revised under section 9 or Article 10.

(2) A decision to which this regulation applies may not be superseded by a superseding decision unless—

 - (ii) are prescribed by regulation 13(2) or are ones where a superseding decision may be made in accordance with regulation 14(3).

Date as from which superseding decisions take effect

16.—(1) This regulation prescribes cases or circumstances in which a superseding decision shall take effect as from a prescribed date other than the date on which it was made or, where applicable, the date on which the application for it was made.

(2) If a superseding decision is made on the basis that—

- (a) there has been a relevant change of circumstances since the decision to be superseded had effect; or
- (b) it is anticipated there will be such a change, it shall take effect as from the earliest date prescribed by paragraphs (3) to (8).

(3) In any case where the superseding decision is advantageous to the claimant and notification of the change was given in accordance with any enactment or subordinate legislation under which that notification was required, the date prescribed by this paragraph is—

- (a) if the notification was given within one month of the change occurring or such longer period as may be allowed under regulation 17, the date the change occurred or, if later, the first date on which the change has effect; or

(5) In any case where the superseding decision is not advantageous to the claimant, the date prescribed by this paragraph is the date of the change.

(6) Decisions which are advantageous to claimants include those mentioned in regulation 27(5).

(7) If—

- (a) the Board supersede a decision made by an appeal tribunal or a Commissioner in accordance with paragraph (i) of regulation 13(2)(c); and
- (b) as a result of the ignorance or mistake referred to in that paragraph, the decision to be superseded was more advantageous to the claimant than it would otherwise have been, the superseding decision shall take effect as from the date on which the decision of the appeal tribunal or the Commissioner took, or was to take, effect.

(8) If the Board supersede a decision made by an appeal tribunal or a Commissioner in accordance with paragraph (ii) or (iii) of regulation 13(2)(c), the superseding decision shall take effect as from the date on which it would have taken effect had it been decided in accordance with the determination of the Commissioner or the court in the appeal referred to in section 26(1)(b) or Article 26(1)(b).

(9) If a superseding decision is made in consequence of a decision which is a relevant determination for the purposes of section 27(25) or Article 27, it shall take effect as from the date of the relevant determination.

(10) If the Board supersede a decision in accordance with sub-paragraph (e) of regulation 13(2), the superseding decision shall take effect as from the date on which entitlement arises—

Effective date for late notifications of change of circumstances

17.—(1) For the purposes of paragraph (3) of regulation 16, the Board may allow a longer period of time than the period of one month mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) of that paragraph for the notification of a change of circumstances if the first and second conditions are satisfied.

(3) The second condition is that the application for the purposes of regulation 16(3) must—

- (a) contain particulars of the relevant change of circumstances and the reasons for the failure to notify the change on an earlier date; and
- (b) be made within 13 months of the date on which the change occurred.

(4) An application under this regulation must not be granted unless the Board are satisfied that—

- (a) it is reasonable to grant it;
 - (b) the change of circumstances notified by the applicant is relevant to the decision which is to be superseded; and
 - (c) special circumstances are relevant to the application as a result of which it was not practicable for the applicant to notify the change of circumstances within one month of the change occurring.
- (5) In determining whether it is reasonable to grant an application for the purposes of regulation 16(3), the Board must have regard to the principle that the greater the amount of time that has elapsed between the date one month after the change of circumstances occurred and the date the application is made, the more compelling the special circumstances mentioned in paragraph (4) (c) should be.
- (6) In determining whether it is reasonable to grant an application for the purposes of regulation 16(3), the Board must take no account of the following—
- (a) that the applicant or any person acting for him was unaware of, or misunderstood, the law applicable to his case (including being unaware of, or misunderstanding, the time limits imposed by these Regulations); or
 - (b) that a Commissioner or a court has taken a different view of the law from that previously understood and applied.

 - (b) an appeal is pending against a decision given in a different case by a Commissioner or a court (whether or not relating to child benefit or guardian’s allowance) and it appears to the Board that, if the appeal were to be determined in a particular way, an issue would arise as to whether the award of child benefit or guardian’s allowance should be revised or superseded.
- (4) For the purposes of section 21(3)(c) and Article 21(3)(c), the prescribed circumstances are circumstances where an appeal tribunal, a Commissioner or a court has made a decision and the Board—

(3) This regulation does not apply where benefit or allowance has been suspended in part under regulation 18 or 19.

PART 5

OTHER MATTERS

Decisions involving issues that arise on appeal in other cases

22.—(1) A case which satisfies the condition specified in paragraph (2) is a prescribed case for the purposes of section 25(3)(b) and Article 25(3)(b) (prescribed cases and circumstances in which a decision may be made on a prescribed basis).

(2) The condition specified in this paragraph is that the claimant would be entitled to the benefit or allowance to which the decision which falls to be made relates, even if the appeal in the other case referred to in section 25(1)(b) or Article 25(1)(b) were decided in a way which is the most unfavourable to him.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (3)(b) of section 25 and paragraph (3)(b) of Article 25, the prescribed basis on which the Board may make the decision is as if—

- (a) the appeal in the other case which is referred to in subsection (1)(b) of that section, or paragraph (1)(b) of that Article, had already been determined; and
- (b) that appeal had been decided in a way which is the most unfavourable to the claimant.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (5)(c) of section 25 and paragraph (5)(c) of Article 25 (prescribed circumstances in which, for the purposes of the section or the Article, an appeal is pending against a decision), the prescribed circumstances are circumstances where the Board—

- (a) certify in writing that they are considering appealing against that decision; and
- (b) consider that, if such an appeal were to be determined in a particular way—
 - (i) there would be no entitlement to the benefit or allowance in a case to which subsection (1)(a) of that section, or paragraph (1)(a) of that Article, refers; or
 - (ii) the appeal would affect the decision in that case in some other way.

Appeals involving issues that arise on appeal in other cases

23. For the purposes of subsection (6)(c) of section 26 and paragraph (6)(c) of Article 26 (prescribed circumstances in which an appeal against a decision which has not been brought, or an application for leave to appeal has not been made, but the time for so doing has not yet expired, is pending for the purposes of the section or the Article), the prescribed circumstances are circumstances where the Board—

- (a) certify in writing that they are considering appealing against that decision; and
- (b) consider that, if such an appeal were already determined, it would affect the determination of the appeal described in subsection (1)(a) of that section or paragraph (1)(a) of that Article.

PART 6

RIGHTS OF APPEAL AND PROCEDURE FOR BRINGING APPEALS

Other persons with a right of appeal

- 24. For the purposes of section 12(2) and Article 13(2), the following persons are prescribed—
- (a) any person appointed by the Board under regulation 28(1) of the Administration Regulations to act on behalf of another who is unable to act;
 - (b) any person appointed by the Board under regulation 29(1) of those regulations to proceed with the claim of a person who has made a claim for benefit or allowance and subsequently died;
 - (c) any person who, having been appointed by the Board under paragraph (2) of regulation 31 of those regulations to claim on behalf of a deceased person, makes a claim in accordance with that regulation.

Decisions against which no appeal lies

25.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), for the purposes of section 12(2) and Article 13(2), the decisions set out in Schedule 2 are prescribed as decisions against which no appeal lies to an appeal tribunal.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not have the effect of prescribing any decision that relates to the conditions of entitlement to child benefit or guardian’s allowance for which a claim has been validly made or for which no claim is required.

(3) In this regulation and Schedule 2, “decision” includes any determination embodied in or necessary to a decision.

Notice of decision against which appeal lies

26.—(1) A person with a right of appeal under the 1998 Act, the 1998 Order or these Regulations against a decision of the Board must—

- (a) be given written notice of the decision against which the appeal lies;
- (b) be informed that, in a case where that written notice does not include a statement of the reasons for that decision, he may, within one month of the date of notification of that decision, request that the Board provide him with a written statement of the reasons for that decision; and
- (c) be given written notice of his right of appeal against that decision.

(2) If the Board are requested under paragraph (1)(b) to provide a written statement of the reasons for the decision, they must provide the statement within 14 days of receipt of the request.

Appeals against decisions which have been revised

27.—(1) This regulation applies where—

- (a) a decision—
 - (i) under section 8 or 10 is revised under section 9; or
 - (ii) under Article 9 or 11 is revised under Article 10, before an appeal against that decision is determined; and
- (b) the decision as revised is not more advantageous to the appellant than the decision before it was revised.

(2) The appeal shall not lapse and is to be treated as though it had been brought against the decision as revised.

(3) The appellant shall have a period of one month from the date of notification of the decision as revised to make further representations as to the appeal.

(4) After the expiration of the period specified in paragraph (3), or within that period if the appellant consents in writing, the appeal shall proceed unless, in the light of the further representations from the appellant, the Board further revise their decision and that decision is more advantageous to the appellant than the decision before it was revised.

(5) Decisions which are more advantageous to the appellant include those in consequence of which—

- (a) child benefit or guardian's allowance paid to him is greater or is awarded for a longer period;
- (b) the amount of benefit or allowance in payment would have been greater but for the operation of—
 - (i) any provision of the Administration Act or the Administration (NI) Act; or
 - (ii) any provision of the Contributions and Benefits Act, or any provision of the Contributions and Benefits (NI) Act, restricting or suspending the payment of, or disqualifying a claimant from receiving, some or all of the benefit or allowance;
- (c) a denial or disqualification for the receiving of benefit or allowance is lifted wholly or in part;
- (d) a decision to pay benefit or allowance to a third party is reversed;
- (e) benefit or allowance paid is not recoverable under—

- (i) section 71 of the Administration Act(28) or section 69 of the Administration (NI) Act(29); or
- (ii) regulations made under either of those sections;
- (f) the amount of benefit or allowance paid which is recoverable as mentioned in sub-paragraph (e) is reduced; or
- (g) a financial gain accrues or will accrue to the appellant in consequence of the decision.

Time within which an appeal is to be brought.

28.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this Part, where an appeal lies from a decision of the Board to an appeal tribunal, the time within which that appeal must be brought is—

- (a) within one month of the date of notification of the decision against which the appeal is brought;
 - (b) if a written statement of the reasons for that decision is requested and provided within the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), within 14 days of the expiry of that period; or
 - (c) if a written statement of the reasons for that decision is requested but is not provided within the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), within 14 days of the date on which the statement is provided.
- (2) If the Board—
- (a) revise a decision under section 9 or Article 10;
 - (b) make a superseding decision; or
 - (c) following an application for a revision, do not revise a decision under section 9 or Article 10, the period of one month specified in paragraph (1) shall begin to run from the date of notification of the revision or supersession or the date the Board issue a notice that they are not revising the decision.

(3) If a dispute arises as to whether an appeal was brought within the time limit specified in this regulation, the dispute must be referred to, and be determined by, a legally qualified panel member.

(4) The time limit specified in this regulation for bringing an appeal may be extended in accordance with regulation 29.

Late appeals

29.—(1) The time within which an appeal must be brought may be extended in accordance with this regulation, but no appeal shall in any event be brought more than one year after the expiration of the last day for appealing under regulation 28.

- (2) An application for an extension of time under this regulation must—
- (a) be made in accordance with regulation 31; and
 - (b) be determined by a legally qualified panel member except where the Board consider that the application satisfies paragraph (5)(b).

(28) Section 71 was amended by section 32(1) of, and paragraph 48 of Schedule 2 and Schedule 3 to, the Jobseekers Act 1995 (c. 18), section 1 of the Social Security (Overpayments) Act 1996 (c. 51), paragraph 81 of Schedule 7 to the Social Security Act 1998, paragraphs 1 and 3(c) of Schedule 1 to the Tax Credits Act 1999, paragraph 10 of Schedule 2 to the State Pension Credit Act 2002 and paragraph 2 of Schedule 4, and Schedule 6, to the Tax Credits Act 2002.

(29) Section 71 was amended by Article 33(1) of, and paragraph 31 of Schedule 2 and Schedule 3 to, the Jobseekers (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 (S.I. 1995/2705 (N.I. 15)), section 2 of the Social Security (Overpayments) Act 1996, paragraph 62 of Schedule 6 to S.I. 1998/1506 (N.I. 10), paragraphs 1 and 5(c) of Schedule 1 to the Tax Credits Act 1999 and paragraph 8 of Schedule 4, and Schedule 6, to the Tax Credits Act 2002.

(3) If the Board consider that an application under this regulation satisfies paragraph (5)(b), they may grant it.

(4) An application under this regulation must contain particulars of the grounds on which the extension of time is sought, including details of any relevant special circumstances specified in regulation 30(2).

(5) An application under this regulation must not be granted unless—

- (a) the panel member is satisfied that if the application is granted, there are reasonable prospects that the appeal will be successful; or
- (b) the panel member is satisfied, or the Board are satisfied, that it is in the interests of justice for the application to be granted (see generally regulation 30).

(6) An application under this regulation which has been refused may not be renewed.

(7) The panel member who determines an application under this regulation must record a summary of his decision in such written form as has been approved by the President.

(8) “The President” means—

- (a) in relation to child benefit or guardian’s allowance under the Contributions and Benefits Act, the President of appeals tribunals appointed under section 5;
- (b) in relation to child benefit or guardian’s allowance under the Contributions and Benefits (NI) Act, the President of appeals tribunals appointed under Article 6.

(9) As soon as practicable after the decision is made a copy of the decision must be sent or given to every party to the proceedings.

Interests of justice

30.—(1) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(b) of regulation 29, it is not in the interests of justice to grant an application under that regulation unless the panel member is satisfied, or the Board are satisfied, that—

- (a) the special circumstances specified in paragraph (2) are relevant to the application; or
- (b) some other special circumstances exist which are wholly exceptional and relevant to the application, and, as a result of those special circumstances, it was not practicable for the appeal to be brought within the time limit specified in regulation 28.

(2) The special circumstances specified in this paragraph are that—

- (a) the applicant or a partner or dependant of the applicant has died or suffered serious illness;
- (b) the applicant is not resident in the United Kingdom; or
- (c) normal postal services were disrupted.

(3) “Partner” means—

- (a) where a person is a member of a married couple or an unmarried couple, the other member of that couple; or
- (b) where a person is polygamously married to two or more members of his household, any such member.

(4) In determining whether it is in the interests of justice to grant an application under regulation 29, the panel member or the Board must have regard to the principle that the greater the amount of time that has elapsed between the expiration of the time within which the appeal is to be brought under regulation 28 and the making of the application, the more compelling the special circumstances mentioned in paragraph (1) should be.

(5) In determining whether it is in the interests of justice to grant an application under regulation 29, the panel member or the Board must take no account of the following—

- (a) that the applicant or any person acting for him was unaware of or misunderstood the law applicable to his case (including ignorance or misunderstanding of the time limits imposed by these Regulations); or
- (b) that a Commissioner or a court has taken a different view of the law from that previously understood and applied.

Making of appeals and applications

31.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this regulation, an appeal, or an application for an extension of time for making an appeal, to an appeal tribunal must—

- (a) be in writing—
 - (i) on a form approved for the purpose by the Board (“the approved form”); or
 - (ii) in such other format as the Board may accept as sufficient for the purpose;
 - (b) be signed by—
 - (i) the person who has a right of appeal under section 12(2) or Article 13(2); or
 - (ii) if that person has provided written authority to a representative to act on his behalf, that representative;
 - (c) be sent or delivered to an appropriate office;
 - (d) contain particulars of the grounds on which it is made; and
 - (e) contain sufficient particulars of the decision or the subject of the application, to enable that decision or subject to be identified.
- (2) An approved form which is not completed in accordance with the instructions on it—
- (a) subject to paragraph (3), does not satisfy the requirements of paragraph (1), and
 - (b) may be returned by the Board to the sender for completion in accordance with those instructions.

(3) If the Board are satisfied that an approved form, although not completed in accordance with the instructions on it, includes sufficient information to enable the appeal or application to proceed, they may treat it as satisfying the requirements of paragraph (1).

(4) If an appeal or application made in writing otherwise than on the approved form includes sufficient information to enable the appeal or application to proceed, the Board may treat it as satisfying the requirements of paragraph (1).

(5) If an appeal or application made in writing otherwise than on the approved form does not include sufficient information to enable the appeal or application to proceed, the Board may request further information in writing from the appellant or applicant.

(6) If an appellant or applicant to whom an approved form is returned, or from whom further information is requested, duly completes and returns the form or sends the further information and that form or further information is received by the Board—

- (a) within 14 days of the date on which the form was returned to him by them, the time for making the appeal shall be extended by 14 days from the date on which the form was returned;
- (b) within 14 days of the date on which the further information was requested by them, the time for making the appeal shall be extended by 14 days from the date of the request;
- (c) within such longer period as they may direct, the time for making the appeal shall be extended by a period equal to that longer period.

(7) If an appellant or applicant to whom an approved form is returned, or from whom further information is requested, does not complete and return the form or send further information within the period of time specified in paragraph (6), the Board must forward a copy of the appeal or application, together with any other relevant documents or evidence, to a legally qualified panel member who must—

- (a) determine whether the appeal or application satisfies the requirement of paragraph (1), and
- (b) inform the appellant or applicant and the Board of his determination.

(8) If—

- (a) an approved form is duly completed and returned or further information is sent after the expiry of the period of time specified in paragraph (6); and
- (b) no determination has been made under paragraph (7) at the time the form or the further information is received by the Board, the Board must forward the duly completed form or further information to the legally qualified panel member who must take into account any further information or evidence set out in that form or the further information.

Discontinuing action on appeals

32. The Board may discontinue action on an appeal to an appeal tribunal if—

- (a) the appeal has not been forwarded to the clerk to an appeal tribunal or to a legally qualified panel member; and
- (b) the appellant or an authorised representative of the appellant has given written notice that he does not wish the appeal to continue.

Death of a party to an appeal

33.—(1) In any proceedings, on the death of a party to those proceedings (other than a member of the Board), the Board may appoint such person as they think fit to proceed with the appeal in the place of such deceased party.

(2) A grant of probate, confirmation or letters of administration to the estate of the deceased party, whenever taken out, shall have no effect on an appointment made under paragraph (1).

(3) If a person appointed under paragraph (1) has, prior to the date of such appointment, taken any action in relation to the appeal on behalf of the deceased party, the effective date of appointment by the Board shall be the day immediately prior to the first day on which such action was taken.

OTHER DECISIONS

10. An authorization given by the Board in accordance with Article 22(1) or 55(1) of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 1408/71⁽⁴⁴⁾ on the application of social security schemes to employed persons, to self-employed persons and to members of their families moving within the Community.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision in relation to the administration of child benefit and guardian's allowance which is to be transferred from the Department for Work and Pensions (in Northern Ireland, the Department for Social Development) to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue ("the Board") by Part 2 of the Tax Credits Act 2002 (c. 21) with effect from 1st April 2003.

The Regulations are modelled closely on the provisions, so far as relating to child benefit and guardian's allowance, that are contained in—

- (a) for Great Britain, Parts 2 to 4 of the Social Security (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations 1999 (S.I. 1987/1968); and
- (b) for Northern Ireland, Parts 2 to 4 the Social Security and Child Support (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1999 (S.R. 1999 No. 162).

The opportunity is being taken to combine the regulations in a single set relating to child benefit and guardian's allowance that extends to both Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

The Regulations are made by virtue of, or in consequence of, provisions in the Social Security Act 1998 (c. 14) ("the Act") and the decision-making process introduced by that Act. The Regulations also make provision in relation to the unified appeals system introduced by the Act and are made after consultation with the Council on Tribunals in accordance with section 8 of the Tribunals and Inquiries Act 1992 (c. 53).

Part 1 (regulations 1 to 4) provides for citation, commencement and effect and interpretation. It contains also provisions relating to the service of notices or documents and the use of electronic communications.

Parts 2 and 3 (regulations 5 to 17) provide for the circumstances in which the Board may revise or supersede decisions, when such decisions take effect and related procedural rules.

Part 4 (regulations 18 to 21) makes provision in relation to the suspension and termination of benefit and for dealing with decisions where there are related appeals or decisions.

Part 5 (regulations 22 to 23) makes provision in relation to decisions involving issues that arise on appeal in other cases and appeals involving issues that arise on appeal in other cases.

Part 6 (regulations 24 to 33) makes provision in relation to rights of appeal and the procedure for bringing appeals. In particular, it provides for additional persons to have a right of appeal and, together with Schedule 2, prescribes decisions against which there is no right of appeal. It provides also for procedural rules for bringing appeals.
