SCHEDULE

The Agreement on the Participation of the Czech Republic, the Republic of Estonia, the Republic of Cyprus, the Republic of Latvia, the Republic of Lithuania, the Republic of Hungary, the Republic of Malta, the Republic of Poland, the Republic of Slovenia and the Slovak Republic in the European Economic Area signed at Luxembourg on 14th October 2003⁽²⁾.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order declares the Agreement on the Participation of the Czech Republic, the Republic of Estonia, the Republic of Cyprus, the Republic of Latvia, the Republic of Lithuania, the Republic of Hungary, the Republic of Malta, the Republic of Poland, the Republic of Slovenia and the Slovak Republic in the European Economic Area, signed at Luxembourg on 14th October 2003, to be a Community Treaty as defined in section 1(2) of the European Communities Act 1972.

By Article 6(5) of the Act of Accession annexed to the Treaty of Accession to the European Union signed at Athens on 16 April 2003, the new Member States undertook to accede to the Agreement on the European Economic Area signed at Oporto on 2nd May 1992. That Agreement extended the internal market to Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway and provided in Article 128 that any European States becoming members of the European Union must also apply to become Parties to the EEA Agreement. The present Agreement achieves this. The principal effect of declaring this Agreement to be a Community Treaty as so defined is to bring into play, in relation to it, the provisions of section 2 of the European Communities Act 1972 which provide for the implementation of treaties so specified.
