<sup>(3)</sup> “Qualifying overseas transfer” is defined in section 431(2) as modified by paragraph 6 of Schedule 19AC.

<sup>(4)</sup> Subsection (2B) is amended by section 170 of, and paragraphs 6(6) and (12), and 12(1) and (5) of Schedule 33 to, the Finance Act 2003.

- (i) in sub-paragraph (1), for the definition of “investment reserve” treated as substituted in section 431(2), substitute —
  - ““investment reserve”, in relation to an overseas life insurance company, means the excess of the value of the relevant assets over the relevant liabilities, and for the purposes of this definition —
  - (a) relevant assets are such assets of the company’s long-term insurance fund as fall to be attributed, for the purposes of section 11AA(2), to the permanent establishment in the United Kingdom through which the company carries on life assurance business; and
  - (b) relevant liabilities are —
    - (i) such liabilities of the long-term business as fall to be attributed, for the purposes of section 11AA(2), to the permanent establishment; and
    - (ii) any money debts (within the meaning of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of the Finance Act 1996) of the company which are not within sub-paragraph (i) above but which are owed in respect of that business and fall to be attributed, for the purposes of section 11AA(2), to the permanent establishment;”<sup>(5)</sup>;
- (ii) in sub-paragraph (2), for the definition of “liabilities” treated as substituted in section 431(2), substitute —
  - ““liabilities’, where the company concerned is an overseas life insurance company, does not include liabilities that have been reinsured, and (subject to that) means —
  - (a) the long-term liabilities of the company determined for the purposes of the company’s periodical return on actuarial principles in accordance with section 5.6 of the Prudential Sourcebook (Insurers), or
  - (b) in the case of liabilities not determined for the purposes of such a periodical return, liabilities as determined in accordance with actuarial principles for the purposes of any return equivalent to a periodical return and required to be made by the company under the law of the territory in which the company is resident;”<sup>(6)</sup>;
- (iii) omit sub-paragraph (4A);
- (iv) in sub-paragraph (5), in the definition of “value” treated as substituted in section 431(2), omit from “, or” at the end of paragraph (b) to the end of the definition;
- (v) after sub-paragraph (6) insert —
  - “(7) In that subsection, the following definition shall be treated as substituted for the definition of “insurance business transfer scheme” —
  - ““insurance business transfer scheme” means a scheme falling within section 105 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and includes a reference to—
  - (a) an excluded scheme falling within Case 2, 3 or 4 of subsection (3) of that section; and
  - (b) a qualifying overseas transfer;”<sup>(7)</sup>;

<sup>(5)</sup> Section 11AA is inserted into the Taxes Act by section 149(2) of the Finance Act 2003.

<sup>(6)</sup> Section 431(2) of the Taxes Act defines “the Prudential Sourcebook (Insurers)” as the Interim Prudential Sourcebook for Insurers made by the Financial Services Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c. 8).

(vi) after sub-paragraph (7) insert —

“(8) In that subsection, in the definition of “insurance company”, the words “permanent establishment” shall be treated as substituted for the words “branch or agency”.”;

(vii) after sub-paragraph (8) insert —

“(9) In that subsection, the following definition shall be treated as inserted at the appropriate place —

““qualifying overseas transfer” means so much of any transfer of the whole or any part of the business of an overseas life insurance company carried on through a permanent establishment in the United Kingdom as takes place in accordance with any authorisation granted outside the United Kingdom for the purposes of Article 14 of the Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council of 5th November 2002 concerning life assurance (No.2002/83/EC),”.”;

(viii) after sub-paragraph (9) insert —

“(10) In that subsection, in the case of an EEA firm of the kind mentioned in paragraph 5(d) of Schedule 3 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, the following definition shall be treated as substituted for the definition of “long-term insurance fund” —

““long-term insurance fund”, in the case of an overseas life insurance company, means the technical account for life assurance business of the company within the meaning of the Council Directive of 19th December 1991 on the annual accounts and consolidated accounts of insurance undertakings (No.91/674/EEC), and references to assets of the long-term insurance fund shall be read as references to assets from which any income or gain is or would be included in the technical account;”.”;

(i) in paragraph 6A, in the words treated as inserted in section 431D(1), for “branch or agency” substitute “permanent establishment”;

(j) for paragraph 7 substitute —

“7. Section 432A has effect as if —

- (a) the reference in subsection (1)(a) to assets of the company’s long-term insurance fund were to such of those assets as fall to be attributed, for the purposes of section 11AA(2), to the permanent establishment in the United Kingdom through which the company carries on life assurance business;
- (b) the references in subsections (3) and (6) to assets were to such of the assets concerned as fall to be attributed, for the purposes of section 11AA(2), to that permanent establishment; and
- (c) the references in subsections (6) and (8) to liabilities were to such of the liabilities concerned as fall to be attributed, for the purposes of section 11AA(2), to that permanent establishment.”;

(k) in paragraph 8 —

(i) omit sub-paragraphs (1) and (2);

(ii) for sub-paragraph (3) substitute —

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations modify legislation relating to the taxation of overseas life insurance companies. They are consequent to changes made in the Finance Act 2003 (c. 14), by the introduction of section 11AA of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 (c. 1), to the method of determining for the purposes of corporation tax the amount of profits attributable to a permanent establishment in the United Kingdom of a company that is not resident in the United Kingdom. The meaning of “permanent establishment” is given by section 148 of the Finance Act 2003. These Regulations have substituted this term in most of the places where previously there was a reference to a company’s “branch or agency”.

These Regulations omit categories of assets from section 440 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 as modified where the company is an overseas life insurance company. In consequence these Regulations may have the effect of transferring assets from one category to another. Regulation 4 of these Regulations prevents any such transactions from being deemed to be a disposal and re-acquisition of assets for the purposes of corporation tax.

The Finance Act 2003 also made amendments to the provisions in the Finance Act 1989 (c. 26) relating to life assurance. These provisions are modified in their application to overseas life insurance companies by Schedule 8A to the Finance Act 1989. Regulation 6 amends Schedule 8A in consequence of the amendments made by the Finance Act 2003. Its effect is to limit references in the relevant provisions of the Finance Act 1989 to various amounts to only so much of those amounts as could be attributable to a company’s permanent establishment.

Paragraphs 31 and 32 of Schedule 33 to the Finance Act 2003 introduced interpretation provisions into, respectively, the Finance Act 1989 and the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 (c. 12). These provisions give expressions also used in the relevant parts of those Acts the meaning they have in Chapter 1 of Part 12 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988. This has made some modifications to definitions given in the Finance Act 1989 and the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 unnecessary, and these Regulations omit those superfluous modifications.
