
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2004 No. 3426

The Information and Consultation of Employees Regulations 2004

PART V

DUTY OF CO-OPERATION

Co-operation

21. The parties are under a duty, when negotiating or implementing a negotiated agreement or when implementing the standard information and consultation provisions, to work in a spirit of co-operation and with due regard for their reciprocal rights and obligations, taking into account the interests of both the undertaking and the employees.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Information and Consultation of Employees Regulations 2004, PART V.