EXCISE

The Duty Stamps Regulations 2006

Made - - - - 1st February 2006
Laid before Parliament 1st February 2006
Coming into force - - 22nd February 2006

The Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs make the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 93(2)(fa), 118A(1) and (2), and 127A of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 ^{F1}, and paragraphs 1, 3, 4, and 5 of Schedule 2A to the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979 ^{F2}:

Textual Amendments

- F1 1979 c. 2; section 93(2)(fa) was inserted by Finance (No. 2) Act 1992(c. 48), Schedule 2, paragraph 2; section 118A(1) and (2) was inserted by the Finance Act 1991(c. 31), Schedule 5; section 127A was inserted by the Finance Act 1983(c. 28), section 6 and amended by the Finance (No. 2) Act 1992, Schedule 1, paragraph 7; section 1(1) (amended by the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005(c. 11), Schedule 4, paragraph 22) defines “the Commissioners”, “excise duty point”, “excise warehouse”, and “officer”. The functions of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise were transferred to the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs by section 5(2) of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005. Section 50(1) of that Act provides that a reference to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise shall be taken as a reference to the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.
- F2 1979 c. 4; Schedule 2A was inserted by the Finance Act 2004(c. 12), section 4(2). Section 4(2) of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979 provides for that Act to be construed as one Act with the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979(c. 2), and section 4(3) applies the definitions in that latter Act. Section 1(1) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (amended by the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005(c. 11)) defines “the Commissioners”. The Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979, section 1(1) defines “dutyable alcoholic liquor”, section 4(1) defines “compounder”, Schedule 2A, paragraph 12, defines “duty stamp”, “prescribed”, “retail container”, “stamped”, “unstamped”, “type A stamp”, and “type B stamp”. The functions of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise were transferred to the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs by section 5(2) of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005. Section 50(1) of that Act provides that a reference to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise shall be taken as a reference to the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.

PART 1 U.K.

PRELIMINARY

Citation and commencement U.K.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Duty Stamps Regulations 2006 and come into force on 22nd February 2006.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C2 Regulations, as they had effect immediately before IP completion day, continued (with modifications) (N.I.) (31.12.2020) with respect to excise goods by The Excise Duties \(Northern Ireland Miscellaneous Modifications and Amendments\) \(EU Exit\) Regulations 2020 \(S.I. 2020/1559\), regs. 1(1), 97

Interpretation U.K.

2.—(1) In these Regulations—

^{F3}

[^{F4}“alcoholic product” means alcoholic product to which Schedule 12 to the Finance (No. 2) Act 2023 (alcohol duty: duty stamps) applies;]

“appointed contractor” means the person appointed by the Commissioners to distribute on their behalf type A stamps and the design specification for type B stamps;

[^{F5}“authorized warehousekeeper”, subject to paragraph (4), means an authorised warehousekeeper under regulation 3(1) of the Excise Goods (Holding, Movement and Duty Point) Regulations 2010;]

“brand” includes any trademark and any visible image or words that identify the person who produced the [^{F6}alcoholic product], or the person who is responsible for marketing it;

“business day” has the meaning given in section 92 of the Bills of Exchange Act 1882 ^{F7};

“duty stamps representative” means a person appointed to be such a representative in accordance with regulation 13;

“export shop” has the meaning given in regulation 3 of the Excise Goods (Export Shops) Regulations 2000 ^{F8};

[^{F9}“external territory” means a territory for whose external relations the United Kingdom is responsible;]

“irregular stamper” means a person ^{F10}... who imports unstamped retail containers of [^{F6}alcoholic product] into the United Kingdom and who is not authorized to hold ^{F11}... [^{F6}alcoholic product] on which excise duty has not been paid;

F12

“product type” means one of the following descriptions of [^{F6}alcoholic product], “brandy”, “gin”, “rum”, “vodka”, “whisky/whiskey”, or “other product”;

F13

F13

F14

F12

“registered owner” has the meaning given in regulation 2 of the Warehousekeepers and Owners of Warehoused Goods Regulations 1999 ^{F15};

PART 2 U.K.

WHEN RETAIL CONTAINERS MUST BE STAMPED OR MUST NOT BE STAMPED AND THE DESIGN AND APPEARANCE OF DUTY STAMPS

When a retail container must be stamped or must not be stamped U.K.

3.—(1) Subject to this regulation, regulation 20, and to the exceptions prescribed in Part 6, retail containers of [^{F6}alcoholic product] must be stamped if the excise duty point for that [^{F6}alcoholic product] falls on or after 1st October 2006.

(2) A retail container of [^{F6}alcoholic product] that is—

- (a) entered for removal from an excise warehouse or winery for exportation or shipment as stores,
- (b) removed from an excise warehouse or winery for exportation or shipment as stores, or
- (c) exported otherwise than by a private individual for his own use, must not be stamped.

[^{F24}(2A) A retail container of [^{F6}alcoholic product] that is to be transported from Great Britain to Northern Ireland or vice versa via the Republic of Ireland shall not be treated as being exported for the purposes of paragraph (2).]

(3) A retail container of [^{F6}alcoholic product] must not be stamped if the [^{F6}alcoholic product] it contains is intended for consumption outside the United Kingdom and Isle of Man; but this does not apply to a retail container of [^{F6}alcoholic product] exported by a private individual for his own use.

(4) A retail container of [^{F6}alcoholic product] that is exposed for retail sale outside the United Kingdom and Isle of Man must not be stamped.

- (5) A retail container filled with anything that is not [^{F6}alcoholic product] must not be stamped.
- (6) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) do not apply ^{F25}... to a retail container of [^{F6}alcoholic product] that is for use in an export shop.
- (7) In this regulation, “winery” has the meaning given in regulation 4 of the Wine and Made-wine Regulations 1989 ^{F26}.

Disqualification from being registered U.K.

10.—(1) A person is disqualified from being registered if he has been convicted of a relevant offence or if—

- (a) in the case of a partnership, any individual partner, or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, a director, senior manager, or other person having the direction or control of that body, has been convicted of such an offence.

(2) A person is disqualified from being registered if his conduct has made him liable to a relevant penalty or if—

- (a) in the case of a partnership, any individual partner's conduct made him liable to such a penalty, or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, the conduct of a director, senior manager, or other person having the direction or control of that body, made that person liable to such a penalty.

For the purposes of this paragraph, a registered person is not disqualified from being registered until ninety days have elapsed, starting with the day on which the assessment to a relevant penalty was notified.

(3) A person is disqualified from being registered if he is an undischarged bankrupt (or has an equivalent status outside the United Kingdom) ^{F34} or if he is a person in relation to whom a moratorium period under a debt relief order applies (under Part 7A of the Insolvency Act 1986)].

^{F35}(4) A person is disqualified from being registered if they have a fixed establishment in the United Kingdom or an external territory, unless they are an authorized warehousekeeper (or a person of equivalent status in an external territory), irregular stamper, registered owner, ^{F36}... a person who bottles ^{F6}alcoholic product] in the United Kingdom, or the holder of an excise licence under section 54(2) or 55(2) of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979.]

(5) A person is disqualified from being registered if he does not have a fixed establishment in ^{F37}the ^{F38}United Kingdom]] or an external territory, unless he carries on a trade or business that consists of or includes distilling, manufacturing, or bottling, ^{F6}alcoholic product].

(6) A person is disqualified from being registered if, in accordance with section 13(1) of the Finance Act 1994, he has been notified of an assessment to a penalty within the five years preceding the date of his application for registration, or at any time after being registered, and that penalty has not been withdrawn, quashed, or paid.

For the purposes of this paragraph, a registered person is not disqualified from being registered until ninety days have elapsed, starting with the day on which he was notified of the assessment.

(7) A relevant offence is—

- (a) the common law offence of cheating the public revenue,
- (b) an offence under any of the following provisions—

sections 1(1) and 5(1) of the Firearms Act 1968 ^{F39};

section 1(1) of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 ^{F40} (but only if the goods to which the false trade description was applied were, or included, ^{F41}... ^{F6}alcoholic product]); sections 1(1), 8(1), 9(1), 10(1), 11(1), 15(1), 15A(1), 16(1), 17(1), 19(1), 20(1) and (2), 21(1), 22(1), and 24A(1) of the Theft Act 1968 ^{F42};

Duty stamps representative U.K.

13.—(1) A person who—

- (a) is not authorized by—
 - (i) regulation 5 to obtain a type A stamp,
 - (ii) regulation 7 to incorporate a type B stamp into a label, or
 - (iii) (as the case may be) regulation 8 to affix a label incorporating a type B stamp to a retail container,
- (b) does not have a fixed establishment in the United Kingdom, and
- (c) wants to obtain type A stamps, incorporate type B stamps into labels, or (as the case may be) affix labels incorporating type B stamps to retail containers, must appoint a duty stamps representative.

(2) Only a registered person who has a fixed establishment in the United Kingdom may be appointed as a duty stamps representative.

(3) A duty stamps representative has the rights obligations and liabilities that his principal would have had, had that principal been a registered person.

(4) A duty stamps representative must not act for a principal who is disqualified from being a registered person.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

Ordering and obtaining type A stamps U.K.

14.—(1) To obtain type A stamps a registered person must place an order for those stamps with the appointed contractor by means of an electronic communication.

(2) The registered person must supply the following information to the appointed contractor when an order is placed—

- (a) his unique registration number,
- (b) the number of stamps required,

- (c) the product type for which they are required,
- (d) the place to which the stamps should be delivered,
- (e) the premises at which the stamps will be affixed to retail containers,
- (f) if the registered person is—
 - (i) an irregular stamper, or
 - (ii) an authorized warehousekeeper and the retail containers of [^{F6}alcoholic product] were imported from [^{F57}a place outside the United Kingdom], the premises at which the retail containers of [^{F6}alcoholic product] will be held before the duty stamps are affixed to them, if those premises are not a tax warehouse, and

- (g) if the stamps will be affixed by someone other than the registered person, that person's name (and, if different, his business name) and the address of that person's residence or registered office and (if different) the address of that person's principal place of business, and confirm his identity by any reasonable means that the appointed contractor may require.

(3) The appointed contractor must refuse to supply type A stamps if he is not satisfied that the person who placed the order is the registered person to whom the unique registration number given in the order relates.

(4) A registered person may, by an electronic communication made within 24 hours of placing his order for type A stamps, amend that order by—

- (a) reducing or increasing the number of stamps required,
- (b) changing the product type for which they are required, or
- (c) changing the place to which the stamps should be delivered.

(5) If—

- (a) the duty stamps will be affixed at premises other than those specified in the registered person's order, or
- (b) the duty stamps will be affixed by a person other than the person specified in that order, the registered person must, at least two clear business days before the stamps are affixed to retail containers, by electronic communication give the appointed contractor full particulars of the change.

(6) Without prejudice to paragraph (5), if—

- (a) the registered person is an irregular stamper or an authorized warehousekeeper,
- (b) before the duty stamps are affixed to the retail containers of [^{F6}alcoholic product], those containers are removed from the premises specified in his order (“the relevant premises”), and
- (c) the relevant premises are not a tax warehouse, the registered person must, by the end of the first business day following the removal of the containers from the relevant premises, by electronic communication give the appointed contractor full particulars of the change of premises.

^{F58}(7)

^{F59}(8)

(9) Type A duty stamps ordered from the appointed contractor or the Commissioners may only be delivered to the place of delivery specified in the order or amended order.

Ordering and obtaining the design specification for type B stamps U.K.

17.—(1) To obtain the design specification for type B stamps a registered person must place an order for that specification with the appointed contractor by means of an electronic communication.

(2) The registered person must supply the following information to the appointed contractor when an order is placed—

- (a) his unique registration number,
- (b) the number of copies of the design specification required, and
- (c) the place to which the design specification should be delivered, and confirm his identity by any reasonable means that the contractor may require.

(3) The appointed contractor must refuse to supply the design specification for type B stamps if he is not satisfied that the person who placed the order is the registered person to whom the unique registration number given in the order relates.

(4) The design specification for type B stamps ordered from the appointed contractor may only be delivered to the place of delivery specified when the order was placed.

(5) The total number of copies of the design specification for type B stamps delivered to a registered person must not exceed the number necessary to provide one copy to that registered person and to each of the persons notified to the Commissioners under regulation 9(2)(i) or regulation 11.

Correct duty stamps: supplementary provisions U.K.

22.—(1) Where a person discovers that he has affixed a duty stamp, or label incorporating a duty stamp, that is not the correct stamp for that retail container, he must take the following steps.

(2) The first step is to ensure that, if there has been no excise duty point for any [^{F6}alcoholic product] in the retail container, there is no excise duty point until the other steps have been taken.

(3) The second step is to immediately record in his ordinary business records the following information—

- (a) the date that the duty stamp, or label incorporating the duty stamp, was affixed to the retail container,

- (b) if more than one, the number of stamps that were affixed,
- (c) in the case of a type A stamp, the unique reference number of that stamp, and
- (d) any brand or brands displayed on any label affixed to the retail container.

(4) The third step is, by means of electronic communication sent by the end of the first business day following the second step, to provide the Commissioners with the information that he recorded in his ordinary business records.

(5) The fourth step is to—

- (a) completely remove or obliterate that stamp, and affix a duty stamp that is the correct stamp for that retail container, or
- (b) destroy that container.

(6) In the case of a retail container of [^{F6}alcoholic product] for which there has been an excise duty point, the fourth step must be taken within 7 days of the discovery referred to in paragraph (1).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations come into force on 22nd February 2006.

Purpose of the Regulations U.K.

These Regulations provide the machinery for administering duty stamps on alcoholic liquors that are intended for consumption in the UK. They regulate the circumstances in which alcoholic liquors are required to carry duty stamps, the form that a duty stamp must take, and related matters. A full regulatory impact assessment of duty stamps was published on 8 April 2004. An update to this document which assesses the effect of these Regulations on the costs to business was published in January 2006 and is available from:

HM Revenue & Customs

The Regulations have been notified to the European Commission and the other member States in accordance with Directive 98/34/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council (OJ No. L204, 21.7.1998, p.37) (as amended).

Content of the Regulations U.K.

Regulation 1 contains the citation and commencement.

Regulation 2 defines and makes provision for the interpretation of terms used in the Regulations.

Regulation 3 prescribes when retail containers of alcoholic liquor must bear a duty stamp and when they must not bear a duty stamp.

Regulation 4 specifies the design and appearance of the two types of duty stamp; type A, a freestanding stamp, and type B, a stamp incorporated into a label.

Regulation 5 requires certain conditions to be met in order to obtain a type A duty stamp.

Regulation 6 requires certain conditions to be met in order to obtain authority to affix type A duty stamps to retail containers of alcoholic liquor.

Regulation 7 requires certain conditions to be met in order to obtain authority to incorporate a type B duty stamp into a label that is intended to be affixed to a retail container of alcoholic liquor.

Regulation 8 requires certain conditions to be met in order to obtain authority to affix a label incorporating a type B duty stamp onto a retail container of alcoholic liquor.

Regulation 9 deals with the registration of a person who wishes to become registered in order to obtain type A duty stamps, incorporate a type B duty stamp into a label, or affix a label incorporating a stamp onto a bottle of alcoholic liquor. It specifies the information that is required in an application for registration and requires the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs (“the Commissioners”) to register any person who is not disqualified from registration and who provides the specified information.

Regulation 10 prescribes the circumstances in which a person is disqualified from being registered for duty stamps purposes.

Regulation 11 requires that a registered person notify the Commissioners, within 7 days, of any changes to the information provided in his application for registration.

Regulation 12 prescribes the circumstances in which a registered person will cease to be registered and requires the Commissioners to remove anyone who ceases to be registered from the register.

Regulation 13 makes provision for persons outside the UK to appoint a representative in the UK to register for duty stamps purposes on their behalf.

Regulation 14 prescribes the process for ordering and obtaining a type A duty stamp and the information to be provided at the time of ordering.

Regulation 15 specifies the action that a registered person or an occasional importer must take on receipt of type A stamps including when the number received is not in agreement with the order.

Regulation 16 prescribes the circumstances in which type A stamps must be returned to the registered person, the contractor appointed by the Commissioners, or the Commissioners.

Regulation 17 prescribes the process for ordering and obtaining the design specification of a type B duty stamp and the information to be provided at the time of ordering.

Regulation 18 specifies the action that a registered person must take on receipt of the design specification for type B stamps including where the number received is not in agreement with the order.

Regulation 19 specifies the premises where duty stamps and labels incorporating duty stamps may be affixed.

Regulation 20 prescribes the times when retail containers of alcoholic liquor must bear a duty stamp.

Regulation 21 prescribes when a duty stamp is a correct stamp for a retail container.

Regulation 22 specifies the action to be taken where stamps are incorrectly affixed to retail containers.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Duty Stamps Regulations 2006. (See end of Document for details)

Regulation 23 regulates the affixing and positioning of duty stamps on retail containers.

Regulation 24 places a requirement on persons to allow an officer to be present when duty stamps, or labels incorporating duty stamps, are being affixed to retail containers. It also requires persons to notify the Commissioners if they intend to obliterate or remove duty stamps, or export retail containers of alcoholic liquor from which stamps have been removed or obliterated.

Regulation 25 prescribes the records that must be kept relating to type A stamps.

Regulation 26 prescribes the records that must be kept relating to type B stamps.

Regulation 27 requires anyone who holds or moves stamped retail containers of alcoholic liquor, who is not required to maintain records under regulation 25 or 26, to identify stamped retail containers in his records.

Regulation 28 prescribes how long the records required under regulations 25, 26 and 27 must be kept.

Regulation 29 allows merchandise for the use of registered mobile operators to be unstamped.

Regulation 30 allows retail containers of alcoholic liquor that are for use in an export shop to be unstamped.

Regulation 31 allows retail containers of alcoholic liquor produced by compounders to be unstamped if intended for exportation, provided that certain conditions are met.

Regulation 32 regulates the circumstances in which goods that are relieved from excise duty are not required to bear a duty stamp. It also provides for goods imported by travellers arriving from outside the EU to be unstamped.

Regulation 33 requires persons holding duty stamps, labels incorporating duty stamps, or the design of the type B stamp to notify the Commissioners in the event that duty stamps, labels or the design are lost or stolen. It also sets out the information that is to be provided in these circumstances.

Regulation 34 provides for goods bearing duty stamps not to be eligible goods for the purposes of the Excise Goods (Drawback) Regulations 1995, unless the claimant is a registered mobile operator.

Regulation 35 provides that a person is not guilty of any offence against paragraph 5 of Schedule 2A to the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979 (c. 4) (offences of possession, sale etc of unstamped containers) in relation to conduct that occurred before 1 January 2007, nor are persons guilty of such offences if, at any time, they are in possession of, transport or display unstamped retail containers that are exempted from the requirement to bear duty stamps by regulation 29, 30, or 32 of these Regulations.

Regulation 36 prohibits the passing on of type A stamps to anyone who is not authorized, by the regulations, to receive them.

Regulation 37 prohibits the passing on of the design specification for type B stamps to a person who is not authorized by the Regulations to incorporate those stamps into labels.

Regulation 38 prohibits the refilling of duty stamped retail containers with alcoholic liquor, except in certain specified circumstances.

Regulation 39 amends the Excise Warehousing (Etc.) Regulations 1988 (S.I. 1988/809) to require box 18a of the United Kingdom Internal Accompanying Document for products subject to excise duty (W8) to include a suitable statement if the goods it is to accompany bear a duty stamp.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Duty Stamps Regulations 2006.
