The length of the rehabilitation period depends on the sentence given. For a custodial (prison) sentence the rehabilitation period is decided by the original sentence, not the time served. Prison sentences of more than two and a half years can never become spent and should always be disclosed. Further information on rehabilitation periods can be found at Nacro's Resettlement Plus Helpline on 0207 840 6464 or by obtaining a free copy of their leaflet on 0207 840 6427. DEFINITIONS For the purposes of answering questions 30 and 31, the following information provides guidance on actions which may constitute genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes. This guidance is not exhaustive. Before you answer these questions on behalf of yourself and any dependants included in this application you should consider the full definitions of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide which can be found in Schedule 8 of the International Criminal Court Act 2001 at the following website: www.opsi.gov.uk/acts/acts2001/20010017.htm. Alternatively, copies can be purchased from The Stationery Office, telephone 0870 600 5522. It is your responsibility to satisfy yourself that you are familiar with the definitions and can answer the questions accurately on behalf of yourself and any dependants included in this application. Genocide Acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group. Crimes against humanity Acts committed at any time (not just during armed conflict) as part of a widespread or systematic attack, directed against any civilian population with knowledge of the attack. This would include offences such as murder, torture, rape, severe deprivation of liberty in violation of fundamental rules of international law and enforced disappearance of persons. War crimes Grave breaches of the Geneva Conventions committed during an armed conflict. This includes an internal armed conflict and an international armed conflict. The types of acts that may constitute a war crime include wilful killing, torture, extensive destruction of property not justified by military necessity, unlawful deportation, the intentional targeting of civilians and the taking of hostages. You must answer all the questions in this section on behalf of yourself and any dependants included in this application. It is an offence under Section 26(1)(c) of the Immigration Act 1971 to make a statement or representation which you know to be false or do not believe to be true.

REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974
The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 enables criminal convictions to become 'spent' or ignored after a 'rehabilitation period'. The length of the rehabilitation period depends on the sentence given. For a custodial (prison) sentence the rehabilitation period is decided by the original sentence, not the time served. Prisor sentences of more than two and a half years can never become spent and should always be disclosed. Further information on rehabilitation periods can be found at Nacro's Resettlement Plus Helpline on 0207 840 6464 or by obtaining a free copy of their leaflet on 0207 840 6427.
DEFINITIONS
For the purposes of answering questions 29 and 30, the following information provides guidance on actions which may constitute genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes.
This guidance is not exhaustive. Before you answer these questions on behalf of yourself and any dependants included in this application you should consider the full definitions of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide which can be found in Schedule 8 of the International Criminal Court Act 2001 at the following website: www.opsi.gov.uk/acts/acts2001/20010017.htm . Alternatively, copies can be purchased from The Stationery Office, telephone 0870 600 5522.
It is your responsibility to satisfy yourself that you are familiar with the definitions and can answer the questions accurately on behalf of yourself and any dependants included in this application.
Genocide
Acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group.
Crimes against humanity
Acts committed at any time (not just during armed conflict) as part of a widespread or systematic attack, directed against any civilian population with knowledge of the attack. This would include offences such as murder, torture, rape, severe deprivation of liberty in violation of fundamental rules of international law and enforced disappearance of persons.
War crimes
Grave breaches of the Geneva Conventions committed during an armed conflict. This includes an internal armed conflict and an international armed conflict. The types of acts that may constitute a war crime include wilful killing, torture, extensive destruction of property not justified by military necessity, unlawful deportation, the intentional targeting of civilians and the taking of hostages.
You must answer all the questions in this section on behalf of yourself and any dependants included in this application. It is an offence under Section 26(1)(c) of the Immigration Act 1971 to make a statement or representation which you know to be false or do not believe to be true.

If you are currently in the UK within an immigration category other than HSMP, please go to Section 11. If you are already an HSMP participant and are seeking to extend your leave in this category, please continue to the next section.

Section 7: Points Scoring Assessment	(Only complete this section if you are already in the UK as an HSMP participant and are seeking to ex	tend your leave within this category)

Before an extension of your limited leave to enterfremain in the UK under the Highly Skilled Migrant Programme can be granted, in addition to meeting all the other immigration requirements for a grant of leave in this category, you will need to establish that you qualify for the award of a minimum of 75 points under the Points Scoring oritaria associated with HSMP extensions. This section of the application for megures you to state the number of points you are claiming under each of the available points scoring areas, and to specify the documentation submitted with your application as evidence that you qualify for the award of the points claimed.

If your initial HSMP approval was granted under either the MBA Provision of HSMP, or under the GP Priority Application category, you will need to meet the full point scoring assessment at extension. (Further advice on this point can be found in Section 3 of the guidance notes that accompany this application form).

When completing this part of the application form, you should refer to Annex B of the accompanying guidance notes for applicants.

Please note, you must submit the documentation specified on the application form in respect of any points being claimed. Documents submitted must be original. We may seek to verify the documents provided. If this is not possible it may lead to refusal of the application.

If you have previously sent in evidence to gain points for your HSMP status approval, it is not necessary for you to re-submit that information for any subsequent HSMP applications. If you have gained higher qualifications or have evidence which may enable you to claim more points when applying for an extension to your leave, you may submit fresh examples of the required evidence.

FLR(HSMP) Version 11/2006

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Immigration (Leave to Remain)(Prescribed Forms and Procedures) Regulations 2006 ("the 2006 Regulations"). The 2006 Regulations prescribe forms to be used for applications for leave to remain in the United Kingdom and the procedures to be followed in relation to an application for which a form is prescribed.

These Regulations prescribe a new FLR (IED) form for applications for limited leave to remain in the UK for (i) work permit employment, (ii) as a seasonal agricultural worker, (iii) for the purposes of the Sectors-Based Scheme and (iv) for Home Office approved training or work experience. The new FLR (IED) form omits any reference to highly skilled migrants. In addition, a new form, FLR (HSMP), is prescribed for applications for limited leave to remain in the UK as a highly skilled migrant. This new form is prescribed in order to reflect the changes that have been made to the immigration rules in respect of the highly skilled migrant programme.

These Regulations also provide transitional arrangements. Applications for limited leave to remain in the UK for (i) work permit employment, (ii) as a seasonal agricultural worker, (iii) for the purposes of the Sectors-Based Scheme and (iv) for the Home Office approved training or work experience which are made on the old FLR (IED) form (i.e. the form that still has references to highly skilled migrants) will be treated as if made on the new FLR (IED) form (i.e. the one without references to highly skilled migrants) for 27 days after these Regulations come into force. In addition, applications for limited leave to remain in the UK as a highly skilled migrant which are made on the old FLR (IED) form will be treated as if made on the new FLR (HSMP) form for 27days after these Regulations come into force.
