1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Bail (Electronic Monitoring of Requirements) (Responsible Officer) Order 2008 and shall come into force on 3rd November 2008.

Responsible Officers

2.—(1) Where an electronic monitoring requirement is imposed for the purpose of securing compliance with a requirement imposed on a person as a condition of bail which relates to a place or area in a police area specified in Schedule 1 to this Order, the responsible officer must be an employee of Serco Limited, Serco House, 16 Bartley Wood Business Park, Bartley Way, Hook, Hampshire RG27 9UY (company number 00242246).

(2) If one of the requirements is a curfew requirement, then article 2 has effect as if the electronic monitoring requirement was imposed solely for the purpose of securing compliance with the curfew requirement.

(3) In any other case, the court shall choose whichever of the police areas specified in paragraph (1)(c) as it thinks fit and the responsible officer will be of the description which would be specified in article 2 if the electronic monitoring requirement was imposed for the purpose of securing compliance with requirements which related solely to places or areas within that police area.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order specifies the persons responsible (“responsible officer”) for the electronic monitoring of a person’s compliance with a requirement imposed as a condition of bail.

Article 2 specifies the responsible officer according to the police area to which the bail condition relates.

Article 3 applies where an electronic monitoring requirement is imposed in respect of more than one bail condition which relates to different police areas (for example, a curfew requirement and an exclusion requirement) and the application of article 2 results in there being more than one responsible officer. Article 3(2) provides that any curfew requirement takes precedence in determining the responsible officer. Article 3(3) provides that where there is no curfew requirement, the court must choose one of the police areas to which the requirements relate and the choice of police area will determine the appropriate responsible officer.

Article 4 revokes the Bail (Electronic Monitoring of Requirements) (Responsible Officer) Order 2002 (S.I. 2002/844).
