The Armed Forces (Court Martial) Rules 2009

PART 12

EVIDENCE

CHAPTER 1

General

Application and interpretation of Part 12

- 72.—(1) The provisions of this Part apply in relation to any proceedings in which an issue of fact falls to be determined, unless otherwise stated.
- (2) In relation to any proceedings other than trial proceedings, references in this Part to a defendant are to be read as references to a person to whom the proceedings relate.

Rules of evidence

- 73.—(1) The rules of evidence applicable in a trial on indictment in England and Wales shall apply, to the extent that they—
 - (a) are capable of applying; and
 - (b) are not applied, with or without modifications, by any other enactment or subordinate legislation (whenever passed or made).
- (2) In this rule, "rules of evidence" includes rules conferring or restricting any discretion to exclude admissible evidence.
 - (3) No person may be required—
 - (a) to answer any question which he could not be required to answer in a trial on indictment in England and Wales; or
 - (b) to produce any document which he could not be required to produce in such a trial.
 - (4) The court may take judicial notice of—
 - (a) matters of which judicial notice could be taken in a trial on indictment in England and Wales; and
 - (b) matters within the general service knowledge of the court.

Oral testimony to be given on oath

- 74.—(1) Oral testimony shall be given on oath.
- (2) This rule is subject to—
 - (a) section 5 of the Oaths Act 1978 (affirmation);
 - (b) section 31 of the 1999 Act (evidence admitted under a special measures direction); and

(c) section 56 of that Act (reception of unsworn evidence by witness who is not permitted to be sworn).

Proof by written statement

- 75.—(1) Without prejudice to rule 73, section 9 of the 1967 Act (proof by written statement) shall apply, as modified by paragraph (2), in relation to a statement made—
 - (a) in the United Kingdom by any person, or
 - (b) outside the United Kingdom by a person subject to service law or a civilian subject to service discipline, as it applies in criminal proceedings in relation to a statement made in the United Kingdom.

- (2) In its application by virtue of this rule, section 9 of the 1967 Act shall have effect as if—
 - (a) subsection (2)(c) required service of the statement on the court administration officer (as well as each of the other parties to the proceedings);
 - (b) in subsection (2)(d), the reference to the parties' solicitors were to their legal representatives;
 - (c) subsections (5) and (8) were omitted; and
 - (d) in subsection (6), the references to the court were to the judge advocate.
- (3) An application to the court under section 9(4)(b) of the 1967 Act—
 - (a) may be made in preliminary proceedings; and
 - (b) if made in trial proceedings, shall be determined by the judge advocate.
- (4) Section 89 of the 1967 Act (offence of making a false statement tendered in evidence) shall apply in relation to a statement tendered in evidence in proceedings of the court by virtue of section 9 of that Act, wherever made, as it applies in relation to a statement tendered in evidence in criminal proceedings by virtue of that section.

Proof by formal admission

- 76.—(1) Without prejudice to rule 73, section 10 of the 1967 Act (proof by formal admission) shall apply, as modified by paragraph (2), as it applies in relation to criminal proceedings.
 - (2) In its application by virtue of this rule, section 10 of the 1967 Act shall have effect as if—
 - (a) in subsection (1), the reference to the prosecutor were to the Director; and
 - (b) in subsection (2), references to a defendant's counsel or solicitor were to his legal representative.

Use of documents to refresh memory

- 77.—(1) A person giving oral evidence about any matter may, at any stage in the course of doing so, refresh his memory of it from a document made or verified by him at an earlier time if—
 - (a) he states in his oral evidence that the document records his recollection of that matter at that earlier time; and
 - (b) his recollection of the matter is likely to have been significantly better at that time than it is at the time of his oral evidence.
 - (2) Where—
 - (a) a person giving oral evidence about any matter has previously given an oral account, of which a sound recording was made, and he states in that evidence that the account represented his recollection of the matter at that time,
