Application under section 1088 to make an address unavailable for public inspection by a company

10.—(1) A section 1088 application may be made to the registrar by a company in respect of the addresses of—

- (a) all of its members and former members whose addresses were contained in—
 - (i) an annual return; or
 - (ii) a return of allotment of shares,^{F3} ...; or
- (b) the subscribers to its memorandum of association [^{F4}, statement of capital and initial shareholdings or statement of guarantee.]^{F5}...

(2) The grounds on which an application under paragraph (1) may be made are that the company making the application considers that, as a result of its activities, the availability to members of the public of the addresses described in paragraph (1) creates a serious risk that its members or former members or subscribers, or persons who live at those addresses, will be subjected to violence or intimidation.

(3) The application shall—

- (a) contain—
 - (i) the name of the applicant and its registered number; and
 - (ii) a statement of the grounds on which the application is made; and
- (b) be accompanied by evidence—
 - (i) which supports the applicant's assertion that its application falls within the grounds stated in its application; or
 - (ii) where the court has made an order under section 117(3) (register of members: response to request for inspection or copy) directing the applicant not to comply with a request under section 116 (rights to inspect and require copies), a copy of that order.

(4) The registrar may refer to a relevant body any question relating to the assessment of the nature and extent of any risk of violence or intimidation considered by the applicant to arise in relation to any of its members or former members or subscribers, or persons who live at the addresses described in paragraph (1), as a result of its activities by virtue of the availability to members of the public of particulars of the addresses of such members or former members or subscribers.

(5) The registrar shall determine the application and send the applicant to its registered office notice of his determination on the section 1088 application within five working days of that determination being made.

Application under section 1088 to make an address unavailable for public inspection by a person who registers a charge

11.—(1) A section 1088 application may be made to the registrar by a person who—

- (a) (i) ^{F6}... registered a charge under Part 12 of the 1985 Act (registration of charges) or Part 13 of the 1986 Order; or
- (ii) has registered a charge under Part 25 of the Act (company charges) [^{F7}or under regulations made under section 1052]; and

(b) is not the company which created the charge or acquired the property subject to a charge, in respect of his address delivered to the registrar for the purposes of that registration.

(2) The grounds on which an application under paragraph (1) may be made are that the person making the application considers that there is a serious risk that he, or if applicable his employees, or persons who live with him or his employees, will be subjected to violence or intimidation as a result of the activities of the company which is, or was, subject to the charge.

(3) The application shall—

- (a) contain—
- (i) a statement of the grounds on which the application is made;
- (ii) the name of the applicant, and where the applicant is a company, its registered number;
- (iii) the address of the applicant that is to be made unavailable for public inspection;
- (iv) the name and registered number of the company which is or was subject to the charge;
- (v) an address for correspondence with the registrar in respect of the application;
- (vi) where the applicant is the chargee, the service address which is to replace the address of the applicant on the register; and
- (b) be accompanied by evidence which supports the applicant's assertion that there is a serious risk that he or, if applicable, his employees, or persons who live with him or his employees, will be subjected to violence or intimidation as a result of the activities of the company which is or was subject to the charge.

(4) The registrar may refer to a relevant body any question relating to the assessment of the nature and extent of any risk of violence or intimidation considered by the applicant to arise in relation to himself or, if applicable, his employees, or persons who live with him or his employees, as a result of the activities of the company which is or was subject to the charge.

(5) The registrar shall determine the application and send the applicant to the address stated in the application in accordance with paragraph (3)(a)(v) notice of his determination on the section 1088 application within five working days of that determination being made.

[^{F13}Effect of a section 1088 application

13.—(1) Paragraphs (2) to (4) apply in relation to a section 1088 application made under regulation 9.

(2) The registrar must make the specified address unavailable for public inspection in the places on the register where the applicant has indicated, in the application, that it appears.

(3) Where the application relates to an entry concerning a company which is required to maintain a current address for the applicant on the register, the registrar must make the specified address unavailable for public inspection by replacing it with the service address provided by the applicant.

(4) In any other case the registrar must make the specified address unavailable for public inspection by removing all elements of that address, except—

(a) for a United Kingdom address—

(i) the outward code from the postcode, or

(ii) where the address on the register does not include the outward code from the postcode, any information in that address that denotes a geographical area which is equivalent to or larger than the area represented by the outward code of the postcode which applies to that address; and

(b) for an address other than a United Kingdom address, the country or territory and the name of the next principal unit of geographical subdivision for that country or territory (e.g. the state, region, province, county, district, municipality or equivalent) if there is one included in that address as it appears on the register.

(5) Where a section 1088 application has been made under regulation 10(1) and has been determined in favour of the applicant, the registrar must make all of the members', former members' or subscribers' addresses unavailable for public inspection by removing the whole of those addresses.

(6) Where a section 1088 application has been made under regulation 11(1) and has been determined in favour of the applicant, the registrar must make the specified address unavailable for public inspection by removing the whole address and, where the applicant is the chargee, replacing it with the service address provided by the applicant.

(7) In this regulation—

“specified address” means the address specified in the application as being the one to be made unavailable for public inspection; and

“outward code” means the part of a postcode before the internal space but not the number and letters which come after that space.]
