EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is the third Commencement Order made under the Welfare Reform Act 2012 (“the 2012 Act”). It brings section 133(6) of the 2012 Act into force on 2nd July 2012.

Section 133(6) repeals sections 42, 43 and 69(2)(a) (“the repealed provisions”) of the Welfare Reform Act 2007 (“the 2007 Act”). Section 42 of the 2007 Act makes provision about the use, supply and provision of information relating to certain social security benefits and welfare services. Section 43 makes it an offence to disclose without lawful authority information received under section 42. These sections are replaced by sections 131 and 132 of the 2012 Act respectively. Section 69(2)(a) of the 2007 Act concerns the territorial extent of sections 42 and 43.

These repeals are subject to the savings provision in article 3 of the Order. This provides that the repealed provisions continue to have effect insofar as they concern the use, supply or provision, or unlawful disclosure of, information which came to any person by virtue of section 42(1), (2) or (5) of the 2007 Act before the repeal of that section.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has no impact on the private sector or civil society organisations.
