WARNING

It is an offence under paragraph 48(4) of Schedule B1 to the Insolvency Act 1986, as modified and applied by Schedule 10 to the Postal Services Act 2011, if you fail without reasonable excuse to comply with this requirement.

(f) Delete words in brackets if not applicable

Section 235 of the Insolvency Act 1986, as modified and applied by Schedule 10 to the Postal Services Act 2011, places a duty on you (f) (as an officer of the company) to provide the postal administrator(s) with information and attend upon the postal administrator(s) if required. I have to warn you that failure to submit the statement of affairs as required by this notice, or to co-operate with the postal administrator(s) under section 235 of the Insolvency Act 1986, may make you liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

Under paragraph 10 of Schedule 1 to the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986, as modified and applied by Schedule 10 to the Postal Services Act 2011, failure to submit a statement of affairs or to co-operate with the postal administrator under section 235 of the Insolvency Act 1986 are matters which may be taken into account by the court in determining whether a person is unfit to be an officer of or to be involved in the management of a company. Unfit conduct may result in a disqualification under the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986.

Note:

Forms and instructions for the preparation of the statement of affairs are enclosed. Under Rule 14 expenses incurred in making the statement of affairs which the administrator considers to be reasonable can be claimed out of the company's assets.

PARTICULARS OF EACH DEBT

Notes

A separate set of particulars should be made out in respect of each debt.

1. Describe briefly the debt, giving details of its nature, the date when it was incurred and when payment became due.

Attach any documentary evidence of the debt, if available.

2. Insert total amount of the debt, showing separately the amount of principal and any interest which is due on the debt as at the due date (see note (c)). Interest may only be claimed if the creditor is entitled to it. Show separately the VAT on the debt and indicate whether the VAT is being claimed back from HM Revenue and Customs.

3. Insert the nature and amount of any preference under Schedule 6 to the Insolvency Act 1986 claimed in respect of the debt.

4. Specify and give details of the nature of any security held in respect of the debt including—

(a) the subjects covered and the date when it was given;

(b) the value of the security.

Security is defined in section 248(b) of the Insolvency Act 1986 as meaning "any security (whether heritable or moveable), any floating charge and any right of lien or preference and any right of retention (other than a right of compensation or set off)" and for claims in postal administration procedure security also includes a retention of title agreement, hire purchase agreement, agreement for the hire of goods for more than three months and a conditional sale agreement (see Rule 30).

The creditor should state whether he is surrendering or undertakes to surrender his security; the postal administrator may at any time after 12 weeks from the date on which the company entered postal administration require a creditor to discharge a security or to convey or assign it to him on payment of the value specified by the creditor.

5. In calculating the total amount of his claim in an postal administration, a creditor shall deduct the value of any security as estimated by him unless he surrenders it (see note 4).

1. Particulars of debt

2. Amount of debt

3. Preference claimed for debt

4. Security for debt
