EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

The blight notice provisions in sections 149 to 171 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (c.8) enable persons holding certain interests in categories of land, specified in Schedule 13 to that Act (including land affected by certain planning and highway proposals), to require the appropriate authority to acquire their interest in the land.

One of the interests in land which qualifies for protection is the interest of an owner-occupier of a hereditament where the annual value does not exceed such amount as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State. This Order increases the annual value limit from £34,800 to £36,000 (except in Greater London where it increases to £44,200), to take account of the rating revaluation in the year 2017. Hereditament means a relevant hereditament within the meaning of section 64(4)(a) to (c) of the Local Government Finance Act 1988 (c.41).

The Town and Country Planning (Blight Provisions)(England) Order 2010 (S.I. 2010/498) is revoked.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it puts into effect an uprating in line with the business rates revaluation 2017.
