Status: Point in time view as at 20/07/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Building Safety (Leaseholder Protections) (England) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

IMPORTANT NOTE: Answers to the questions below are needed to confirm whether or not any of the relevant landlords under the lease are responsible for historic safety defects under the Building Safety Act 2022.

Failure to return a completed, signed copy of this certificate, along with the evidence from any superior landlords under this lease, to the leaseholder will result in you being held responsible for all historical safety defects under the lease to which this certificate relates.

In answering the questions below you must provide information about the property as at 14th February 2022, not the current date.

If you were not the landlord of the property on 14th February 2022 it is still you who are responsible for completing, signing and returning this certificate, but you may need to seek the answers to the questions below from someone else e.g. the person who was the landlord on that date.

Questions as to group net worth criteria

At the beginning of 14th February 2022 the net worth of the landlord under the lease at the beginning of 14th February 2022 listed above and all the companies (if any) within the landlord group(d) of that landlord was £..... [insert net worth of the landlord group] and the number of relevant buildings for that landlord and its group on that date (N) was [insert number of relevant buildings for the landlord group].

- 1. The net worth of the landlord group was less than N x £2,000,000
- 2. The net worth of the landlord group was equal to or more than N x £2,000,000

Questions as to developer criteria

The relevant defect to which the below statements apply is [insert name of relevant defect to which the statement applies]

On 14th February 2022 the landlord under the lease was responsible for the relevant defect or associated with a person responsible for a relevant defect. (The definition of 'responsible' is set out in paragraph 2(3) of Schedule 8 to the Building Safety Act 2022.)	<input type="checkbox"/>
On 14th February 2022 at least one superior landlord was responsible for the relevant defect or was associated with a person responsible for a relevant defect. The superior landlords responsible for the defect are [insert name of relevant landlords to which the statement applies]	<input type="checkbox"/>
On 14th February 2022 the landlord under the lease and all superior landlords were not responsible for the relevant defect or associated with a person responsible for a relevant defect.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Status: Point in time view as at 20/07/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Building Safety (Leaseholder Protections) (England) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

Work undertaken on relevant defects

The following works have been carried out to the relevant building since 28 June 2017 to remedy relevant defects:

Date completed	Work undertaken	Total cost of works for building	Number of flats between which the costs should be divided	This lease's share of costs

Total amount paid for this lease since 28 June 2017: £..... [sum of this property's share of costs to date in the table above]

Based on the information provided in this certificate and the information provided by the leaseholder in the deed of certificate, the maximum liability for relevant historical safety defects for this lease where the landlord is not connected to the developer is £..... [calculate liability for the lease based on qualifying status, property value, shared ownership status, works already undertaken and landlord group net worth in accordance with the Building Safety Act 2022]

Status: Point in time view as at 20/07/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Building Safety (Leaseholder Protections) (England) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)
