SCHEDULE

Regulation 3(2)

Savings and transitional provisions

PART 1

General

1. The revocation of the 2015 Regulations does not affect the validity of any action or decision taken or right accrued under those Regulations on or after 31 December 2020 and before the relevant date⁽³⁾.

2.—(1) Where sub-paragraph (2) applies, the provisions of the 2015 Regulations continue to apply on and after the relevant date as they had effect immediately before that date.

(2) This paragraph applies where on or after 31 December 2020 and before the relevant date—

(a) an applicant has made an application to a competent authority relying on the 2015 Regulations; and

(b) the application has not been finally determined before the relevant date.

(3) An application is finally determined when—

(a) the competent authority has notified, or is deemed to have notified, the applicant of its decision; and

(b) either—

(i) the period for appeal against that decision under regulation 68 of the 2015 Regulations has expired without an appeal being made; or

(ii) an appeal made under that regulation has been determined.

3. Regulations 38 and 39 of the 2015 Regulations continue to have effect for the purposes of regulation 31(5)(k) of the Provision of Services Regulations 2009⁽⁴⁾.

PART 2

Savings relating to the Common Travel Area

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These are the third commencement Regulations made under the Professional Qualifications Act 2022 (“the Act”). They bring into force on 1st December 2023 section 5(1) of the Act which revokes the European Union (Recognition of Professional Qualifications) Regulations 2015 (“the 2015 Regulations”).

The 2015 Regulations, as amended by the Recognition of Professional Qualifications (Amendment etc) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 (2019/312) (“the 2019 Regulations”) set out an interim system for the recognition of professional qualifications from the EEA and Switzerland.

These Regulations commence the revocation of the 2015 Regulations. Part 1 of the Schedule contains transitional and savings provisions in respect of recognition obtained and applications made, but not determined, on and after 31 December 2020 and before the date when the 2015 Regulations are revoked. Transitional and savings provisions in respect of the period before 31 December 2020 are contained in Part 3 of Schedule 1 to the 2019 Regulations. Part 2 of the Schedule to these Regulations makes specific savings for the application of the 2015 Regulations to certain qualifications obtained
