EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend child benefit legislation by inserting an exception to the 3-month residence requirement for the purposes of entitlement to child benefit.

Regulation 1 provides for citation and commencement.

Regulation 2 amends regulations 23 and 27 of the Child Benefit (General) Regulations 2006 (S.I. 2006/223) (“the principal Regulations”). Regulation 23 of the principal Regulations sets out the circumstances in which a person is treated as not being in Great Britain for the purposes of entitlement to child benefit. In particular, paragraph (5) sets out a 3-month residence requirement, with paragraph (6) providing for exceptions to this requirement. Regulation 2(2) of these Regulations amends paragraph (6) of regulation 23 of the principal Regulations to include an exception to that requirement for any person who left Sudan in connection with the violence which rapidly escalated on 15th April 2023 in Khartoum and across Sudan, providing that person was residing in Sudan immediately before 15th April 2023. Regulation 27 of the principal Regulations makes identical provision in respect of Northern Ireland. Paragraph (4) sets out the 3-month residence requirement, with paragraph (5) providing for exceptions to this requirement. Regulation 2(3) of these Regulations amends paragraph (5) of regulation 27 of the principal Regulations to include an identical exception in relation to Northern Ireland.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sectors is foreseen.
