Regulation 3

WRITTEN STATEMENT UNDER THE MOBILE HOMES (WALES) ACT 2013 REQUIRED TO BE GIVEN TO A PROPOSED OCCUPIER OF A PITCH

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ THIS STATEMENT CAREFULLY AND KEEP IT IN A SAFE PLACE. IT SETS OUT THE TERMS ON WHICH YOU WILL BE ENTITLED TO KEEP YOUR MOBILE HOME ON A PROTECTED SITE AND TELLS YOU ABOUT THE RIGHTS WHICH WILL BE GIVEN TO YOU BY LAW. IF THERE IS ANYTHING YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND YOU SHOULD GET ADVICE (FOR EXAMPLE, FROM A SOLICITOR OR A CITIZENS ADVICE BUREAU).

PART 1

Information about your Rights

The Mobile Homes (Wales) Act 2013

1. You will be entering into an agreement with a site owner which will entitle you to keep your mobile home on the site owner's land and live in it as your home. You will automatically be protected and given certain rights under Part 4 of the Mobile Homes (Wales) Act 2013 ("the 2013 Act"). These rights affect in particular your security of tenure, the sale of your home and the review of the pitch fee.

Implied Terms

2. Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the 2013 Act contains implied terms (Chapter 2 applies to agreements relating to all pitches on a protected site except those on local authority Gypsy and Traveller sites; Chapter 3 applies to agreements relating to transit pitches on local authority Gypsy and Traveller sites and Chapter 4 applies to agreements relating to permanent pitches on local authority Gypsy and Traveller sites) which will apply automatically to your agreement and cannot be overridden, so long as your agreement continues to be one to which Part 4 of the 2013 Act applies. The terms that will apply to you are contained in the Annex to Part 2 of this statement.

Express Terms

3. The express terms that are set out in Part 3 of this statement will apply to you. If you are not happy with any of these express terms you should discuss them with the site owner, who may agree to change them.

(The following paragraph does not apply to an agreement for a transit or permanent pitch on a local authority Gypsy and Traveller site.)

4. The site rules for your site, as deposited with your local authority, also form part of the express terms of your agreement, which are set out in Part 3 of this statement. Site rules may only be made, varied or deleted in accordance with the prescribed procedure, as set out in section 52 of the 2013 Act.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Additional Terms

(The following paragraph does not apply to an agreement that relates to a transit pitch on a local authority Gypsy and Traveller Site.)

5. There are additional terms set out in Part 2 of Schedule 2 to the 2013 Act which you can ask a residential property tribunal to be included in your agreement. These deal with the following matters:

- (a) the sums payable by the occupier in pursuance of the agreement and the times at which they are to be paid;
- (b) the review at yearly intervals of the sums so payable;
- (c) the provision or improvement of services available on the protected site, and the use by the occupier of such services; and
- (d) the preservation of the amenity of the protected site.

Right to challenge express terms

(The following paragraphs do not apply to an agreement that relates to a transit pitch on a local authority Gypsy and Traveller Site. They also do not apply to site rules which form part of the express terms of your agreement.)

6. If you enter into the agreement and subsequently become dissatisfied with the express terms of the agreement you can challenge them, but you must do so within 6 months of the date on which you enter into the agreement or the date you received the written statement, whichever is later. If you wish to challenge your agreement, you are advised to consult a solicitor or citizens advice bureau.

7. You can challenge the express terms by making an application to a residential property tribunal. You can ask for any express terms of the agreement (those set out in Part 3 of this statement) to be changed or deleted.

8. The site owner can also go to a residential property tribunal to ask for the agreement to be changed in these two ways.

9. The residential property tribunal must make an order on terms it considers just and equitable in the circumstances.

Six months time limit for challenging the terms

(The following paragraph does not apply to an agreement that relates to a transit pitch on a local authority Gypsy and Traveller Site. It also does not apply to site rules which form part of the express terms of your agreement.)

10. You must act quickly if you want to challenge the terms. If you or the site owner make no application to a tribunal within 6 months of the date on which you entered into the agreement or the date you received the written statement, whichever is later, both you and the site owner will be bound by the terms of the agreement and will not be able to change them unless both parties agree.

Unfair terms

11. If you consider that any of the express terms of the agreement (as set out in Part 3 of this statement) are unfair, you can, in accordance with the provisions of the Unfair Terms in Consumer Contracts Regulations 1999^(a) complain to the Competition and Markets Authority or any qualifying body under those Regulations.

^(a) S.I. 1999/2083. Schedule 1 to the Regulations contains a list of qualifying bodies.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Disputes

12. If you have a disagreement with your site owner about rights or obligations under your agreement, or Part 4 of the 2013 Act more generally, and you are unable to resolve the matter between yourselves, you can refer the matter to a Residential Property Tribunal. Sometimes there is a time limit for doing so. More information on applications to the tribunal can be found at <http://rpt.wales.gov.uk> or from your local Residential Property Tribunal Office.

13. Your site owner can only terminate your agreement on the grounds specified in the implied terms. You cannot be evicted from the site without an order from the court. If you are notified of termination proceedings and you wish to take legal advice, you should do so promptly.

Arbitration

14. You can agree in writing with your site owner to refer a particular dispute to arbitration.

15. If the agreement to go to arbitration was made before the dispute arose, Part 4 the 2013 Act provides that such a term will have no effect. Instead such disputes may only be determined by a Residential Property Tribunal.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Part 4 of the Mobile Homes (Wales) Act 2013 (“the 2013 Act”) applies to all agreements under which persons are entitled to station a mobile home on a protected site and occupy it as their only or main residence. Part 4 of the 2013 Act provides that before such an agreement is entered into, the site owner must give a written statement to the proposed occupier of the mobile home. This statement must include the matters specified in section 49(1)(a) to (d) of Part 4 of the 2013 Act and must comply with such other requirements as may be prescribed by the Welsh Ministers by regulations.

These Regulations specify that the written statement must contain certain information, in addition to that required by section 49(1)(a) to (d) of Part 4 of the 2013 Act, and must be in the form set out in the Schedule to these Regulations.

Part 1 of the Schedule contains information about the occupier’s rights under the agreement.

Part 2 of the Schedule sets out the main provisions of the agreement. These are the name and address of the parties, particulars of the land, the pitch fee and its review, and additional charges.

Part 3 of the Schedule contains any other express terms of the agreement.

These Regulations revoke the Mobile Homes (Written Statement) (Wales) Regulations 2012.
