86 Taxpayer notices

- (1) WRA may issue a notice (a “taxpayer notice”) requiring a person (“the taxpayer”) to provide information or produce a document if—
- (a) WRA requires the information or document for the purpose of checking the taxpayer's tax position,
 - (b) it is reasonable to require the taxpayer to provide the information or produce the document, and
 - (c) nothing in sections 97 to 102 prevents WRA from requiring the taxpayer to provide the information or produce the document.
- (2) But WRA may not issue a taxpayer notice without the approval of the tribunal.

87 Third party notices

- (1) WRA may issue a notice (a “third party notice”) requiring a person to provide information or produce a document if—
 - (a) WRA requires the information or document for the purpose of checking the tax position of another person (“the taxpayer”) whose identity is known to WRA,
 - (b) it is reasonable to require the person to provide the information or produce the document, and
 - (c) nothing in sections 97 to 102 prevents WRA from requiring the person to provide the information or produce the document.
- (2) But WRA may not issue a third party notice without—
 - (a) the agreement of the taxpayer, or
 - (b) the approval of the tribunal.
- (3) The taxpayer to whom a third party notice relates must—
 - (a) be named in the notice, and
 - (b) be issued with a copy of the notice by WRA.
- (4) But when it approves a third party notice, the tribunal may disapply one or both of the requirements of subsection (3) if it is satisfied that WRA has grounds for believing that naming the taxpayer or, as the case may be, issuing the taxpayer with a copy of the notice might seriously prejudice the assessment or collection of devolved tax.

 - (a) that—
 - (i) in the case of a taxpayer notice, the requirements of section 86(1), or
 - (ii) in the case of a third party notice, the requirements of section 87(1), have been met, and
 - (b) that sending notice of the application for approval to the recipient might have prejudiced the assessment or collection of devolved tax.
- (3) Where the recipient has been notified of the application for approval, the tribunal may approve the issuing of the taxpayer notice or third party notice only if—
 - (a) it is satisfied that—
 - (i) in the case of a taxpayer notice, the requirements of section 86(1), or have been met,

Status: Point in time view as at 25/01/2018.

- (b) the recipient has been told that the information or documents referred to in the taxpayer notice or third party notice are required and has been given a reasonable opportunity to make representations to WRA,
 - (c) the tribunal has been provided with a summary of any representations made, and
 - (d) in the case of a third party notice, the taxpayer has been provided with a summary of the reasons why WRA requires the information or documents.
- (4) But the tribunal may disapply the requirements of paragraph (b) or (d) of subsection (3) to the extent that it is satisfied that taking the action specified in the paragraph might prejudice the assessment or collection of devolved tax.
- (5) In approving the issuing of a taxpayer notice or third party notice, the tribunal may make such modifications to the notice as it thinks appropriate.

 - (d) the tribunal has approved the issuing of the notice.
- (2) An application for approval may be made without notice.
- (3) The tribunal may approve the issuing of the unidentified third party notice only if it is satisfied that—
- (a) the requirements of subsection (1)(a) to (c) have been met,
 - (b) the information or document to which the notice relates is not readily available to WRA from another source,
 - (c) there are grounds for believing that the person or any of the class of persons to whom the notice relates may have failed or may fail to comply with any provision of the law relating to a devolved tax, and
 - (d) any such failure is likely to have led or to lead to serious prejudice to the assessment or collection of devolved tax.
- (4) In approving the issuing of an unidentified third party notice, the tribunal may make such modifications to the notice as it thinks appropriate.
