PART 4

Income and earnings

Calculation of income

15.—(1) For the purposes of these Regulations an annual income threshold will apply, above which a claimant may not normally be eligible for discretionary support, unless Schedule 3 applies.

(2) For the purposes of this Part the “Annual income threshold” will be based on a working week of 40 hours over 52 weeks paid at the hourly rate set by the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2015⁽⁸⁾ for a person over the age of 25, in force on the date of a claim.

(3) For the purposes of this Part the income of a claimant which does not consist of earnings to be taken into account shall, subject to paragraph (2), be the claimant’s gross income and any capital treated as income under regulation 16.

(4) There shall be disregarded from the calculation of a claimant’s gross income under paragraph (1), any sum, where applicable, specified in Schedule 3.

(5) The income of a child or young person who is a member of the claimant’s immediate family shall not be treated as income of the claimant for the purposes of this regulation.

Capital treated as income

16.—(1) Any capital payable by instalments which are outstanding on the first day in respect of which discretionary support is payable or the date of determination of a claim, whichever is earlier, shall be treated as income.

(2) Any payment paid under an annuity shall be treated as income.

Notional income

17.—(1) A claimant shall be treated as possessing income of which they have deprived themselves for the purpose of securing entitlement to discretionary support or increasing the amount of that support.

(2) Except in the case of—

- (a) a discretionary trust;
- (b) a trust derived from a payment made in consequence of a personal injury; or
- (c) any benefit related to employment which may be payable to the claimant who is not required to be available for employment, income which would become available to the claimant upon a claim being made, but which has not been acquired by them, shall be treated as possessed by them but only from the date on which it would be so acquired.

(3) Except in the case of a discretionary trust, or a trust derived from a payment made in consequence of a personal injury, any income which is due to be paid to a claimant but has not been paid to them shall be treated as possessed by the claimant.

(4) Where a claimant’s earnings are not ascertainable at the time of the determination of the claim, or of any subsequent review, a discretionary support officer shall treat the claimant as possessing such earnings as is reasonable in the circumstances of the case having regard to the number of hours worked and the earnings paid for comparable employment in the area.

(5) Where—

- (a) a claimant performs a service for another person; and
- (b) that person makes no payment of earnings or pays less than that paid for a comparable employment in the area,

a discretionary support officer shall treat the claimant as possessing such earnings (if any) as is reasonable for that employment unless the claimant satisfies the discretionary support officer that the means of the person are insufficient for them to pay more for the service; but this paragraph shall not apply to a claimant who is engaged by a charitable or voluntary body or is a volunteer if the discretionary support officer is satisfied that it is reasonable for them to provide the services free of charge.

PART 5

Capital

Calculation of capital

18.—(1) For the purposes of these Regulations the capital of a claimant to be taken into account shall, subject to paragraph (2), be the whole of the claimant’s capital calculated in accordance with this Part.

(2) The capital of a claimant includes the capital of the other member of the couple, and any reference to the “claimant” shall, except where the context otherwise requires, be construed, for the purposes of this Part, as if it were a reference to the claimant’s partner.

(3) There shall be disregarded from the calculation of a claimant’s capital under paragraph (1) any capital, where applicable, specified in Schedule 4.

Notional capital

19.—(1) A claimant shall be treated as possessing capital of which they have deprived themselves for the purpose of securing entitlement to discretionary support.

(2) Except in the case of—

(a) a discretionary trust; or

(b) a trust derived from a payment made in consequence of a personal injury, any capital which would become available to the claimant upon a claim being made but which has not been acquired by them shall be treated as possessed by them but only from the date on which it would be so acquired.

(3) Where a claimant is treated as possessing capital under paragraphs (1) and (2), the foregoing provisions of this Part shall apply for the purposes of calculating its amount as if it was actual capital which they do possess.

Capital jointly held

20. Where the claimant and one or more persons are beneficially entitled in possession to any capital asset they shall be treated as if each of them were entitled in possession to the whole beneficial interest therein in an equal share.

PART 6

Awards and Payments

Principles of determination of an award

21.—(1) An award of discretionary support may take the form of either a loan or a grant.

(2) A discretionary support officer may decide whether or not to make a discretionary support award in a particular case, or the amount or value to be awarded, and shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case and in particular—

- (a) the nature, extent and urgency of the need;
 - (b) the existence of resources including income and capital from which the need may be met either in whole or in part;
 - (c) the possibility that some other person or body may wholly or partly meet the need;

 - (f) take account of any general guidance issued by the Department.
- (3) An award of a loan shall include a determination that it is recoverable.
- (4) The amount or value of a loan to be awarded should normally be the lowest reasonable cost to meet the claimant's need but the amount shall not in any case exceed the difference between any sum already repayable by the claimant to the Department in respect of discretionary support, social fund, payments on account of benefit, budgeting loan, budgeting advances and the level of debt for the time being acceptable to the Department.
- (5) No loan may be awarded in excess of the amount which a discretionary support officer has determined the claimant is likely to be able to repay.
- (6) The maximum period permitted for the repayment of a loan will be 52 weeks. Except where it appears to a discretionary support officer that due to exceptional circumstances, the 52 week period will not be met, the loan repayment period may be extended at the point of decision making to a maximum of 78 weeks.
- (7) The Department shall inform the claimant, or the person appointed to act on the claimant's behalf, in writing of its decision on a claim as soon as reasonably practicable and that written notification shall also advise of the right to apply for a review.

Conditions to be satisfied before payment of an award

- 22.—(1) An award of a loan shall be recoverable under such terms and conditions, as the Department notifies to the claimant or person appointed to act on the claimant's behalf before payment is made.
- (2) An award of a grant shall be made under such terms and conditions, as the Department notifies to the claimant or person appointed to act on the claimant's behalf before payment is made.
- (3) The claimant may be required to inform the Department in writing whether they agree to the terms and conditions contained in the notification issued under paragraph (1) within a period defined by the Department and failure to meet this condition will result in an offer being withdrawn.
- (4) Before payment the Department shall be satisfied as to the identity of the claimant.
- (5) An award will be withdrawn where the claimant fails to satisfy the conditions in paragraphs (1), (2) & (3)

Payment of an award

- 23.—(1) Discretionary support is to be paid in accordance with an award as soon as is reasonably practicable after an award has been made and the claimant has agreed to the terms and conditions.
- (2) Subject to the claimant satisfying the conditions in regulations 21 and 22 the Department may arrange for an award of discretionary support to be paid—
- (a) directly to the claimant by way of a transfer into an account held in the name of the claimant, or an account held jointly as a member of a couple;
 - (b) to an account of a person appointed to act on behalf of the claimant; or

(c) through the supply of goods or services directly to the claimant to the value of the award.

(3) Payment of an award shall be made to the claimant or person appointed to act on behalf of the claimant unless a discretionary support officer determines otherwise.

PART 7

Recovery

Recovery of an award

24.—(1) A discretionary support award that is repayable shall be recoverable by the Department.

(2) A discretionary support award that is not repayable may be recoverable by the Department.

(3) Where it is determined that, whether fraudulently, or otherwise, any person has misrepresented, or failed to disclose, any material fact and in consequence of the misrepresentation or failure, an award of discretionary support has been made, the Department shall be entitled to recover the amount of any payment which the Department would not have made or any sum which the Department would have received but for the misrepresentation or failure to disclose.

(4) Without prejudice to any other method of recovery, the Department may recover an award under paragraph (1), (2) or (3) from benefits.

(5) The Department may recover an award from the person to or for the benefit of whom it was made.

(6) Sections 69ZC to 69ZE of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992(9) apply to amounts recoverable under this regulation as they apply to amounts recoverable under section 69ZB of that Act.

PART 8

Reviews

Reviews and further reviews

25.—(1) The Department may establish procedures for reviewing a person's entitlement to a discretionary support award under these Regulations.

(2) The procedures established under paragraph (1) must—

- (a) provide for a review to be carried out on the application of any claimant; and
- (b) provide for the manner of making such an application.

(3) Such procedures may, in particular, provide for—

- (a) the need to take account of any general guidance issued by the Department;
- (b) the consideration of the claimant's entitlement to a discretionary support award by a discretionary support officer;
- (c) the further consideration of the claimant's entitlement to a discretionary support award by a discretionary support inspector, following consideration by a discretionary support officer;

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which are made under articles 135 & 136 (5) of the Welfare Reform (Northern Ireland) Order 2015, provide for the establishment of a discretionary support fund to be administered by the Department, to provide emergency loans and grants to claimants who find themselves in extreme, exceptional or crisis circumstances which present a significant risk to the health, safety or well-being of the claimant or a member of the claimant's family.

Part 1 sets out the commencement, citation and interpretation relevant to the Regulations.

Part 2 details the manner in which a claim can be made. Claims can be made by telephone or in such other manner as the Department may accept as sufficient to a particular case (regulation 4(1)). Claims can also be made in writing 4(2); claims must be communicated, sent or delivered to an appropriate office 4(3). Regulation 5 specifies the date on which a claim has been received by the Department. Regulation 6 sets out the information types the Department may request a claimant to provide. Regulation 7 sets out the rules that apply when a person is unable to act on their own behalf. Regulation 8 provides the discretionary support officer with a discretionary power to decide whether a claim for discretionary support should proceed as a loan or a grant application. It also makes the discretionary support officer liable to take into account any guidance issued by the Department in relation to any matter concerning discretionary support. Regulation 9 permits the claimant to withdraw a claim.

Part 3 deals with eligibility. Regulation 10 sets out the general eligibility criteria that must be satisfied, including in 10(1)(a) that there should be significant risk to the claimant or the claimant's family. 10(1)(b) specifies the need must arise in Northern Ireland. Regulation 10(1)(c) ensures the claimant's income cannot exceed a set income threshold, 10(1)(d) sets out the age restrictions – over 18, unless their parents are in receipt of child benefit, or a minimum of 16 if the young person has no parental support, and 10(1)(e) that the need must be satisfied in Northern Ireland. Regulation 10(2) sets out that the claimant must be a resident of Northern Ireland and present in Northern Ireland. Regulation 10(3) specifies when a discretionary support officer should not make a determination and the exceptions to those circumstances. 11 & 12 set out the criteria for eligibility for a loan or a grant, including reference to Schedules 1 and 2 which sets out excluded items. Regulation 13 sets out those persons who are excluded from applying for discretionary support and Regulation 14 sets out those who are ordinarily excluded, but may be eligible to make a claim for discretionary support, but only where that is a loan for living expenses arising as a consequence of a disaster.

Part 4 explains the conditions around income and earnings, regulation 15 sets an annual income threshold with reference to the national living wage paid to those over 25 assuming a working pattern of 40 hours per week 52 weeks per year. Anyone whose earnings exceed this may not be eligible. Income taken into account will be gross income. By regulation 15(4) certain disregards specified in Schedule 3 apply to the calculation of income. The income of a child or young person will not be regarded as income of the claimant, but that of a member of a couple will be treated as income of the claimant. Regulation 16 deals with circumstances where some capital is regarded as income and regulation 17 covers circumstances where it appears the claimant may have intentionally deprived themselves of income to ensure they are eligible. So called notional income will be taken into account as if the claimant was in possession of that income.

Part 5 details the rules around capital held by a claimant and regulation 18 deals with the calculation of capital, and includes provision that any capital held by the claimant or the other member of a couple will be regarded as capital of the claimant. As with income, a number of disregards will apply and these are specified in Schedule 4. Regulation 19 details that any capital deliberately disposed of for the purposes of securing discretionary support will be treated as capital they actually possess. Regulation 20 deals with capital that is jointly held.

Part 6 covers awards and payments. Regulations 21 to 23 set out the principles for determining an award, dependent on existing levels of debt; the conditions a claimant must satisfy before an award can be paid; and how a payment should be made once conditions are satisfied.

Part 7 deals with recovery. All loans will be repayable, and grants may be recoverable. Regulation 24 sets out the ways in, and circumstances under which a loan or overpayment can be recovered.

Part 8 outlines reviews of a determination. Regulation 25 provides the Department with power to establish review procedures and the manner in which they can be conducted.

Schedule 1 sets out items and services that are excluded from the loan process.

Schedule 2 sets out items and services that are excluded from the grant process.

Schedule 3 sets out the disregards in respect of income calculations.

Schedule 4 sets out the disregards in respect of capital calculations.
