The Biocidal Products Regulations 2001

PART V

PACKAGING, LABELLING AND ADVERTISEMENTS

Packaging

30.—(1) No person shall place on the market an authorised biocidal product which may be mistaken for food, drink or feedingstuff unless—

- (a) it is packaged to minimise the likelihood of such a mistake being made; and
- (b) where that authorised biocidal product is available to the public, it contains a substance or preparation to discourage its consumption.

(2) In this regulation, “authorised biocidal product” means a biocidal product which has been authorised or registered in accordance with these Regulations.
