Procedure on plea of not guilty

37.3.—(1) This rule applies—

- (a) if the defendant has—
 - (i) entered a plea of not guilty, or
 - (ii) not entered a plea; or
- (b) if, in either case, it appears to the court that there may be grounds for making a hospital order without convicting the defendant.

(2) If a not guilty plea was taken on a previous occasion, the justices' legal adviser or the court must ask the defendant to confirm that plea.

(3) In the following sequence—

- (a) the prosecutor may summarise the prosecution case, identifying the relevant law and facts;
- (b) the prosecutor must introduce the evidence on which the prosecution case relies;
- (c) at the conclusion of the prosecution case, on the defendant's application or on its own initiative, the court—
 - (i) may acquit on the ground that the prosecution evidence is insufficient for any reasonable court properly to convict, but
 - (ii) must not do so unless the prosecutor has had an opportunity to make representations;
- (d) the justices' legal adviser or the court must explain, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary)—
 - (i) the right to give evidence, and
 - (ii) the potential effect of not doing so at all, or of refusing to answer a question while doing so;
- (e) the defendant may introduce evidence;

- (f) a party may introduce further evidence if it is then admissible (for example, because it is in rebuttal of evidence already introduced);
 - (g) the defendant may make representations about the case; and
 - (h) the prosecutor may make representations about the relevant law and the defendant may respond.
- (4) Where a party wants to introduce evidence or make representations after that party's opportunity to do so under paragraph (3), the court—
- (a) may refuse to receive any such evidence or representations; and
 - (b) must not receive any such evidence or representations after it has announced its verdict.
- (5) If the court—
- (a) convicts the defendant; or
 - (b) makes a hospital order instead of doing so,
- it must give sufficient reasons to explain its decision.
- (6) If the court acquits the defendant, it may—
- (a) give an explanation of its decision; and
 - (b) exercise any power it has to make—
 - (i) a civil behaviour order,
 - (ii) a costs order.

[Note. See section 9 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(33).

Under section 37(3) of the Mental Health Act 1983(34), if the court is satisfied that the defendant did the act or made the omission alleged, then it may make a hospital order without convicting the defendant.

Under section 35 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994(35), the court may draw such inferences as appear proper from a defendant's failure to give evidence, or refusal without good cause to answer a question while doing so. The procedure set out in rule 37.3(3)(d) is prescribed by that section.

The admissibility of evidence that a party introduces is governed by rules of evidence.

See rule 37.10 for the procedure if the court convicts the defendant.

Evidence of a witness in person

37.4.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to introduce evidence by calling a witness to give that evidence in person.

- (2) Unless the court otherwise directs—

 - (c) a witness' address must not be announced unless it is relevant to an issue in the case.
- (3) Unless other legislation otherwise provides, before giving evidence a witness must take an oath or affirm.
- (4) In the following sequence—
- (a) the party who calls a witness must ask questions in examination-in-chief;
 - (b) every other party may ask questions in cross-examination;
 - (c) the party who called the witness may ask questions in re-examination;
 - (d) at any time while giving evidence, a witness may refer to a record of that witness' recollection of events, if other legislation so permits;
 - (e) the party who calls a witness, in examination-in-chief may ask that witness to adopt all or part of such a record as part of that witness' evidence, but only if—

Sections 1, 3, 5 and 6 of the Oaths Act 1978(38) provide for the taking of oaths and the making of affirmations, and for the words that must be used. Section 28 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1963(39) provides that in a youth court, and where a witness in any court is under 18, an oath must include the words 'I promise' in place of the words 'I swear'. Under sections 55 and 56 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(40), a person may give evidence without taking an oath, or making an affirmation, where that person (i) is under 14 or (ii) has an insufficient appreciation of the solemnity of the occasion and of the particular responsibility to tell the truth which is involved in taking an oath.

(3) The prosecutor must—

- (a) summarise the prosecution case, if the sentencing court has not heard evidence;

(b) is convicted.

Under section 20A of the Criminal Justice Act 1991(58), it is an offence for a defendant knowingly or recklessly to make a false or incomplete statement of financial circumstances, or to fail to provide such a statement, in response to a request by a court officer on behalf of the court.

Under section 156 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(59), the general rule (subject to exceptions) is that the court must obtain and consider a pre-sentence report—

(a) where it is considering a custodial sentence or a community sentence;

(b) where it thinks the defendant may pose a significant risk of causing serious harm to the public by further offending.

Under section 159 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(60), where the court obtains a written pre-sentence report about a defendant who is under 18, it may direct that information in it must be withheld if it would be likely to create a risk of significant harm to the defendant.

For the circumstances in which a magistrates' court may (and in some cases must) remit the defendant to a youth court for sentence, see section 8 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(61).

The Sentencing Guidelines Council may issue sentencing guidelines under section 170 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(62).

For the circumstances in which a court may (and in some cases must) order the endorsement of a defendant's driving licence, or the disqualification of a defendant from holding or obtaining one, see sections 34, 35 and 44 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988. Under that legislation, in some circumstances the court has discretion not to make such an order.

The evidence that may be introduced is subject to rules of evidence.

In addition to the specific powers to which this rule applies, the court has a general power to adjourn a trial: see rule 37.2.

For the circumstances in which a magistrates' court may (and in some cases must) commit a defendant to the Crown Court for sentence, see sections 3, 3A, 3B, 3C, 4, 4A and 6 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(63).

Under section 1 of the 2000 Act(64), if (among other things) the defendant consents, the court may defer sentence for up to 6 months, for the purpose of allowing it to take account of the defendant's conduct after conviction, or any change in the defendant's circumstances.]

Procedure where a party is absent

37.11.—(1) This rule—

- (a) applies where a party is absent; but
 - (b) does not apply where the defendant has served a notice of guilty plea under rule 37.8 (written guilty plea: special rules).
- (2) Where the prosecutor is absent, the court may—
- (a) if it has received evidence, deal with the case as if the prosecutor were present; and
 - (b) in any other case—
 - (i) enquire into the reasons for the prosecutor's absence, and
 - (ii) if satisfied there is no good reason, exercise its power to dismiss the allegation.
- (3) Where the defendant is absent—
- (a) the general rule is that the court will proceed as if the defendant—
 - (i) were present, and
 - (ii) had pleaded not guilty (unless a plea already has been taken) and the court must give reasons if it does not do so; but
 - (b) the general rule does not apply if the defendant is under 18;
 - (c) the general rule is subject to the court being satisfied that—
 - (i) any summons or requisition was served on the defendant a reasonable time before the hearing, or
 - (ii) in a case in which the hearing has been adjourned, the defendant had reasonable notice of where and when it would resume;
 - (d) the general rule is subject also to rule 37.10(10)(a) (restrictions on passing sentence in the defendant's absence); and
 - (e) the hearing must be treated as if it had not taken place at all if—
 - (i) the case started with a summons or requisition,
 - (ii) the defendant makes a statutory declaration of not having found out about the case until after the hearing began, and
 - (iii) the defendant serves that declaration on the court officer not more than 21 days after the date of finding out about the case, unless the court extends that time limit.
- (4) Where the defendant is absent, the court—
- (a) must exercise its power to issue a warrant for the defendant's arrest, if it passes a custodial sentence; and
 - (b) may exercise its power to do so in any other case, if it does not apply the general rule in paragraph (3)(a) of this rule about proceeding in the defendant's absence.

[Note. See sections 11, 14, 15 and 16 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(65).

(64) 2000 c. 6; section 1 was amended by section 278 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 23 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and article 3 of, and paragraph 14 of Schedule 1 to, The Offender Management Act 2007 (Consequential Amendments) Order 2008 (S.I. 2008/912).

(65) 1980 c. 43; section 14 was amended by section 109 of, and paragraph 205 of Schedule 8 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39).

Under section 27 of the 1980 Act(66), where a magistrates' court dismisses an allegation of an offence classified as one that can be tried either in a magistrates' court or in the Crown Court (in other legislation, described as triable either way), that dismissal has the same effect as an acquittal in the Crown Court.

Under section 14(3) of the 1980 Act, a single justice of the peace may extend the time limit for serving a declaration to which rule 37.11(3)(e) applies.

Under section 11 of the 1980 Act, the court may pass a custodial sentence in the defendant's absence if the case started with the defendant's arrest and charge (and not with a summons or requisition). Section 11(3A) requires that, in that event, the defendant must be brought before the court before being taken to a prison or other institution to begin serving that sentence. Under section 7(1) of the Bail Act 1976(67), the court has power to issue a warrant for the arrest of a defendant released on bail who has failed to attend court when due to do so.

Under section 13 of the 1980 Act(68), the court has power to issue a warrant for the arrest of an absent defendant, instead of proceeding, where—

- (1) the case started with—*
 - (a) the defendant's arrest and charge, or*
 - (b) a summons or requisition, if—*
 - (i) the court is satisfied that that summons or requisition was served on the defendant a reasonable time before the hearing, or*
 - (ii) the defendant was present when the hearing was arranged; and*
- (2) the offence is punishable with imprisonment; or*
- (3) the defendant has been convicted and the court considers imposing a disqualification.*

The Practice Direction sets out a form of declaration for use in connection with rule 37.11(3)(e)(ii).]

Provision of documents for the court

- 37.12.—(1) This rule applies where a party—
- (a) introduces in evidence any document; or
 - (b) relies on any other document in the presentation of that party's case.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise directs, that party must supply sufficient copies of such a document for—
- (a) each other party;
 - (b) the court; and
 - (c) the justices' legal adviser.

Place of trial

- 37.13.—(1) Unless the court otherwise directs, the hearing must take place in a courtroom provided by the Lord Chancellor.

(2) A justices' legal adviser must—

- (a) give the court legal advice; and
- (b) if necessary, attend the members of the court outside the courtroom to give such advice; but
- (c) inform the parties of any such advice given outside the courtroom.

(3) A justices' legal adviser must—

- (a) assist an unrepresented defendant;
- (b) assist the court by—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules add the following new provisions to The Criminal Procedure Rules 2005:

- a new Part 21 (Initial details of prosecution case), in substitution for the existing Part 21 (Advance information in magistrates' courts), which revises and simplifies the rules about the early provision of details of the prosecution case. The new Part 21 applies unless the court otherwise directs, to allow for the gradual introduction of the arrangements with which it deals into all magistrates' courts and all categories of case. If the court disapplies the new rules, the rules in the old Part 21 will continue to apply.
- a new Part 37 (Trial and sentence in a magistrates' court), in substitution for the existing Part 37 (Summary trial) and Part 38 (Trial of children and young persons), which consolidates, revises and simplifies the rules about procedure at trial in magistrates' courts, including youth courts.
- a new Part 44 (Breach, revocation and amendment of community and other orders in a magistrates' court), in substitution for the existing Part 44 (Sentencing children and young persons). The rules about trial and sentence procedure in magistrates' courts now are all contained in the new Part 37. The new Part 44 rules therefore deal only with the procedures relating to community and other orders to which some of the old Part 38 and Part 44 rules applied.
- new rules in Part 2 (Understanding and applying the Rules) make transitional provision and explain when the new rules in Part 21, Part 37 and Part 44 will apply.

In addition, the following amendments are made:

- Part 2 (Understanding and applying the Rules) is amended to define the expression “justices' legal adviser”, used in the new Part 37 rules.
- Part 19 (Bail in magistrates' courts and the Crown Court) is amended to introduce into magistrates' courts a requirement for advance notice to be given of an application to vary the conditions of subsisting bail, including change of address: which is a requirement that applies already in the Crown Court. A new rule 19.25 is added, to introduce into magistrates' courts and the Crown Court a requirement for the defendant to give notice of the address at which he or she would reside if the court granted bail with a condition of residence, so as to help the court assess the suitability of the address proposed.
- The Arrangement of Rules is amended to accommodate the changes to Part titles made in this and previous amendments of The Criminal Procedure Rules 2005.
