PART 25

Powers and penalties

Prohibitions in relation to documents and records

- 146.—(1) A person must not with intent to deceive—
- (a) use a certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document issued or required by or under this Order that has been forged, altered, revoked or suspended, or to which the person is not entitled;
 - (b) lend a certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document issued or having effect or required by or under this Order to, or allow it to be used by, any other person; or
 - (c) make a false representation for the purpose of procuring for a person the grant, issue, renewal or variation of any such certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document.
- (2) In paragraph (1) a reference to a certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document includes a copy or purported copy.
- (3) A person must not intentionally damage, alter or render illegible —
- (a) a log book or other record required to be maintained by or under this Order.
 - (b) an entry made in such a log book or record.
- (4) A person must not —
- (a) knowingly make, or procure or assist in the making of, a false entry in or material omission from a log book or record referred to in paragraph (3); or
 - (b) destroy any such log book or record during the period for which it is required under this Order to be preserved.
- (5) All entries made in writing in a log book or record referred to in paragraph (3) must be made in ink or indelible pencil.
- (6) A person must not knowingly make in a load sheet an entry that is incorrect in a material particular or make a material omission from such a load sheet.
- (7) A person must not purport to issue a certificate for the purposes of this Order or any applied regulations unless authorised to do so by the relevant legislation.
- (8) A person must not issue a certificate referred to in paragraph (7) unless satisfied that all statements in the certificate are correct.
