Interpretation of the Terms Used

1. In this Instrument of Government—
 - (a) any reference to “the Chief Executive “ shall include a person acting as Principal or Chief Executive;
 - (b) “the Clerk” means the Clerk to the Corporation;
 - (c) “the Corporation” means the further education corporation to which this Instrument applies, the Ada National College for Digital Skills;
 - (d) “the institution” means the institution which the Corporation is established to conduct and any institution for the time being conducted by the Corporation in exercise of its powers under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992;
 - (e) “this Instrument” means this Instrument of Government;
 - (f) “meeting” includes a meeting at which the members attending are present in more than one room, provided that by the use of audio-conferencing facilities it is possible for every person present at the meeting to communicate with each other;

- (g) “necessary skills” means skills and experience, other than professional qualifications, specified by the Corporation as appropriate for members to have taking account, if appropriate, of the category of that member;
- (h) “staff member” and “student member” have the meanings given to them in clause 2;
- (i) “the Secretary of State” means the Secretary of State for Business, Innovation and Skills (or any successor thereto responsible for further education);
- (j) “the Senior Leadership Team” includes the person acting as Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Dean (if appointed), and such other posts as determined by the Corporation from time to time;
- (k) any reference to “staff” or “staff of the institution” shall include staff employed by the Corporation and staff employed by a subsidiary of the Corporation;
- (l) “staff matters” means the remuneration, conditions of service, promotion, conduct, suspension, dismissal or retirement of staff;
- (m) “the students’ association” means any association of students formed to further the educational purposes of the institution and the interests of students, as students.

Composition of the Corporation

2.—(1) The Corporation shall consist of—

- (a) up to fifteen members who appear to the Corporation to have the necessary skills to ensure that the Corporation carries out its functions under article 3 of the Articles of Government;
- (b) the Chief Executive of the institution, unless the Chief Executive chooses not to be a member;
- (c) one member who is a member of the institution’s staff and who has been nominated and elected by staff of the institution in such manner as such staff approve from time to time and is approved by the Corporation as having the necessary skills to act as a member of the Corporation (“staff member”); and
- (d) one member who is a student at the institution and has been nominated and elected by their fellow students, or if the Corporation so decides, by a recognised association representing such students and in any case approved by the Corporation as having the necessary skills to act as a member of the Corporation (“student member”).

(2) A person who is not for the time being enrolled as a student at the institution, shall nevertheless be treated as a student during any period of authorised absence from the institution for study, travel or for carrying out the duties of any office held by that person in the institution’s students’ union.

(3) The first members of the Corporation shall be—

- (a) Sir Rod Aldridge;
- (b) Tom Ilube;
- (c) Nick Wilcock;
- (d) Rachel Jackson.

Determination of Membership Numbers

3.—(1) Subject to sub-clause 3(2), the number of members of the Corporation, and the number of members of each variable category shall be that decided by the Corporation at its first meeting and thereafter in accordance with sub-clause 3(2).

(2) The Corporation may at any time vary the determination referred to in sub-clause 3(1) and any subsequent determination under this sub-clause provided that—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) the number of members of the Corporation shall not be less than seven or more than fifteen; and
 - (b) the numbers of members of each variable category shall be subject to the limit which applies to that category set out in clause 2.
- (3) No determination under this clause shall terminate the appointment of any person who is already a member of the Corporation at the time when the determination is made.

Appointment of the Members of the Corporation

4.—(1) The Secretary of State shall be the appointing body for the first members of the Corporation. Subject thereto and subject to sub-clause 4(2) the Corporation is the appointing authority in relation to subsequent appointments of its members.

(2) If the number of members falls below the number needed for a quorum, the Secretary of State is the appointing authority in relation to the appointment of those members needed for a quorum.

(3) The appointing authority may decline to appoint a member if—

- (a) it is satisfied that the person has been removed from office as a member of a further education corporation in the previous ten years; or
- (b) the appointment of the person would contravene any rule or bye-law made under article 16 of the Articles of Government concerning the number of terms of office which a person may serve, provided that such rules or bye-laws make the same provision for each category of members appointed by the appointing authority; or
- (c) the person is ineligible to be a member of the corporation because of clause 7.

(4) Where the office of any member becomes vacant the appointing authority shall as soon as practicable take all necessary steps to appoint a new member to fill the vacancy.

Appointment of the Chair and Vice-Chair

5.—(1) The members of the Corporation shall appoint a Chair, and if the Corporation determine from time to time a Vice-Chair, from among themselves.

(2) Neither the Chief Executive nor any staff or student member shall be eligible to be appointed as Chair or Vice-Chair or to act as Chair in their absence.

(3) If both the Chair and the Vice-Chair are absent from any meeting of the Corporation, the members present shall choose someone from among themselves to act as Chair for that meeting.

(4) Within their term of office as members (see clause 8), the Chair and Vice-Chair shall hold office for such period as the Corporation decides.

(5) The Chair or Vice-Chair may resign from office at any time by giving notice in writing to the Clerk.

(6) If the Corporation is satisfied that the Chair or Vice-Chair is unfit or unable to carry out the functions of office, it may give written notice, removing the Chair or Vice Chair (as the case may be) from office and the office shall then be vacant.

(7) At the last meeting before the end of the term of office of the Chair or Vice-Chair (as the case may be), or at the first meeting following the Chair's or Vice Chair's (as the case may be) resignation or removal from office, the members shall appoint a replacement from among themselves.

(8) Unless the Corporation otherwise resolve from time to time, at the end of their respective terms of office, the Chair and Vice-Chair shall be eligible for reappointment subject to any maximum terms of office approved by the Corporation from time to time.

Appointment of the Clerk to the Corporation

6.—(1) The Corporation shall appoint a person to serve as its Clerk. The Chief Executive may not be appointed as Clerk.

(2) In the temporary absence of the Clerk, the Corporation shall appoint a person to serve as a temporary Clerk, but the Chief Executive may not be appointed as temporary Clerk.

(3) Any reference in this Instrument to the Clerk shall include a temporary Clerk appointed under sub-clause 6(2).

(4) Subject to clause 13, the Clerk shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Corporation and any of its committees.

(5) The Clerk may also be a member of staff at the institution.

Persons who are ineligible to be Members

7.—(1) No one under the age of 18 years may be a member.

(2) The Clerk may not be a member.

(3) A person who is a member of staff of the institution may not be, or continue as, a member, except as a staff member or in the capacity of Chief Executive.

(4) Sub-clause 7(3) does not apply to a student who is employed by the Corporation in connection with the student's role as an officer of a students' association.

(5) A person shall be disqualified from holding, or from continuing to hold, office as a member, if that person has been adjudged bankrupt or is the subject of a bankruptcy restrictions order, an interim bankruptcy restrictions order or a bankruptcy restrictions undertaking within the meaning of the Insolvency Act 1986(2), or if that person has made a composition or arrangement with creditors, including an individual voluntary arrangement.

(6) A person shall also be disqualified from holding, or from continuing to hold, office as a member if—

- (a) that person has been convicted, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, of any offence (except a road traffic offence not involving death or personal injury or driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs) unless the Corporation resolve otherwise. For the purpose of this paragraph there shall be disregarded any conviction by or before a court outside the United Kingdom for an offence in respect of conduct which, if it had taken place in the United Kingdom, would not have constituted an offence under the law then or now in force anywhere in the United Kingdom; or
- (b) that person is no longer eligible to be a charity trustee; or
- (c) that person is certified by a registered medical practitioner as being physically or mentally incapable of discharging his duties as a member and will remain so for 3 months or more and the Corporation resolves to remove that member from office; or
- (d) that person is unfit or unable to discharge his functions as a member or his conduct calls himself or the institution into disrepute and the Corporation resolves to remove that member from office; or
- (e) that person without the consent of the Corporation is absent from two or more consecutive meetings of the Corporation without approval from the Corporation and the Corporation resolves to remove that member from office; or
- (f) that person breaches the code of conduct applying to members of the Corporation from time to time.

(2) 1986.c.45 as amended by the Enterprise Act 2002 (c. 40).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(7) Upon a member of the Corporation becoming disqualified from continuing to hold office under sub-clauses 7(5) or 7(6), the member shall immediately give notice of that fact to the Clerk.

The Term of Office of a Member

8.—(1) A member of the Corporation shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of the appointment, but the length of the term of office shall not exceed four years.

(2) Members retiring at the end of their term of office shall be eligible for reappointment for a further period of up to four years. Following expiry of the second term of office of a member of the Corporation, that member may in exceptional circumstances (as approved by the Corporation) be eligible for reappointment and then for a period of no more than two years. Thereafter, a member shall not be eligible to remain a member.

(3) Paragraph 8(2) is subject to any rule or bye-law made by the Corporation under article 16 of the Articles of Government concerning the number of terms of office which a person may serve.

Termination of Membership

9.—(1) A member may resign from office at any time by giving notice in writing to the Clerk.

(2) Any person who is a member of the Corporation by virtue of being a member of the staff at the institution, including the Principal, shall cease to hold office upon ceasing to be a member of the staff and the office shall then be vacant.

(3) A student member shall cease to hold office—

- (a) at the end of the student's final academic year, or at such other time in the year after ceasing to be a student as the Corporation may decide; or
- (b) if expelled from the institution, and the office shall then be vacant.

Members not to hold interests in matters relating to the Institution

10.—(1) A member to whom sub-clause 10(2) applies shall—

- (a) disclose to the Corporation the nature and extent of the interest; and
- (b) if present at a meeting of the Corporation, or of any of its committees, at which such supply, contract or other matter as is mentioned in sub-clause 10(2) is to be considered, not take part in the consideration or vote on any question with respect to it and not be counted in the quorum present at the meeting in relation to a resolution on which that member is not entitled to vote; and
- (c) withdraw, if present at a meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which such supply, contract or other matter as is mentioned in sub-clause 10(2) is to be considered, where required to do so by a majority of the members of the Corporation or committee present at the meeting.

(2) This sub-clause applies to a member who—

- (a) has any financial interest in—
 - (i) the supply of service or work to the institution or a subsidiary company of the Corporation, or the supply of goods for the purposes of the institution or a subsidiary company of the Corporation;
 - (ii) any contract or proposed contract concerning the institution or a subsidiary company of the Corporation; or

- (iii) any other matter relating to the institution or a subsidiary company of the Corporation; or
 - (b) has any other interest of a type specified by the Corporation in any matter relating to the institution or a subsidiary company of the Corporation.
- (3) This clause shall not prevent the members considering and voting upon proposals for the Corporation to insure them against liabilities incurred by them arising out of their office or the Corporation obtaining such insurance and paying the premium.
- (4) Where the matter under consideration by the Corporation or any of its committees relates to the pay and conditions of all staff, or all staff in a particular class, a staff member—
- (a) need not disclose a financial interest; and
 - (b) may take part in the consideration of the matter, vote on any question with respect to it and count towards the quorum present at that meeting, provided that in so doing, the staff member acts in the best interests of the Corporation as a whole and does not seek to represent the interests of any other person or body, but
 - (c) shall withdraw from the meeting if the matter is under negotiation with staff and the staff member is representing any of the staff concerned in those negotiations.
- (5) The Clerk shall maintain a register of the interests of the members which have been disclosed and the register shall be made available during normal office hours at the institution to any person wishing to inspect it.
- (a) no member shall without the consent of the Charity Commission be paid for acting as a member except where any members are paid reasonable expenses for attendance at meetings of the Corporation and any committee thereof; or
 - (b) any members are beneficiaries of the institution; or
 - (c) the payment is of reasonable and proper remuneration to any member for any services rendered to the institution; or
 - (d) the payment is of interest on money lent by any member to the institution at a reasonable and proper rate per annum not exceeding 2% (two per cent) less than the published base lending rate of a clearing bank to be selected by the Corporation or a rate of 3% (three per cent) whichever is the greater; or
 - (e) the payment is of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member to the institution; or
 - (f) the payment is of fees, remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth to any company or other legal entity or business of which a member may also be a member holding not more than 1% (one per cent) of the capital of that company or other legal entity or business; or
 - (g) the payment is to a member for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the institution where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011⁽³⁾; or
 - (h) the payment is of reasonable and proper remuneration for the service of acting as a Chair of the Corporation subject to compliance with charities law; or
 - (i) the payment is of a premium for insurance designed to indemnify a member in accordance with the terms of, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

(3) 2011 c. 25.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Meetings

11.—(1) The Corporation shall meet at least three times during a calendar year, and shall hold such other meetings as may be necessary.

(2) Subject to sub-clauses 11(4) and 11(5) and to sub-clause 12(4), all meetings shall be called by the Clerk, who shall, at least five calendar days before the date of the meeting, send to the members of the Corporation written notice of the meeting and a copy of the proposed agenda.

(3) If it is proposed to consider at any meeting the remuneration, conditions of service, conduct, suspension, dismissal or retirement of the Clerk, the Chair shall, at least five calendar days before the date of the meeting, send to the members a copy of the agenda item concerned, together with any relevant papers.

(4) A meeting of the Corporation, called a “special meeting”, may be called at any time by the Chair or at the request in writing of any five members.

(5) Where the Chair, or in the Chair’s absence the Vice-Chair, decides that there are matters requiring urgent consideration, the written notice convening the special meeting and a copy of the proposed agenda may be given within less than five calendar days.

(6) Every member shall act in the best interests of the Corporation and shall not be bound to speak or vote by mandates given by any other body or person.

(7) Members may participate in any meeting irrespective of where any member is or how the members communicate with each other but so that such members shall be required to be able to hear each other. If members participate in a meeting when they are not all in the same place, then they may decide that meeting is treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

(8) Any decision that could be made by a meeting of the Corporation or any committee thereof shall be capable of being validly made if a resolution in writing is signed to that effect by such number of persons being at least the minimum number required to pass a resolution at a meeting and eligible to be at the relevant quorate meeting of the Corporation or committee thereof (as the case may be).

(9) Any meeting or communication with a member of the Corporation or any committee thereof shall be capable of being made by electronic means (as defined in section 1168 (3) to (6) (inclusive) Companies Act 2006(4)).

Quorum

12.—(1) Meetings of the Corporation shall be quorate if the number of members present is at least 40% of the total number of members, determined according to clause 2.

(2) If the number of members present for a meeting of the Corporation does not constitute a quorum, the meeting shall not be held unless (if the number of members has dropped to below that needed to form a quorum) for the purpose of appointing additional members in order to fill vacancies to have sufficient members to constitute a quorum.

(3) If during a meeting of the Corporation there ceases to be a quorum, the meeting shall be terminated at once.

(4) If a meeting cannot be held or cannot continue for lack of a quorum, the Chair may call a special meeting as soon as it is convenient.

Proceedings of Meetings

13.—(1) Every question to be decided at a meeting of the Corporation shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast by members present and entitled to vote on the question.

(4) 2006 c.46.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(2) Where, at a meeting of the Corporation, there is an equal division of votes on a question to be decided, the Chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

(3) A member may not vote by proxy or appoint an alternate.

(4) No resolution of the members may be rescinded or varied at a subsequent meeting unless consideration of the rescission or variation is a specific item of business on the agenda for that meeting.

(5) Except as provided by procedures made pursuant to article 10 of the Articles of Government, a member of the Corporation who is a member of staff at the institution, including the Principal, shall withdraw—

- (a) from that part of any meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which staff matters relating solely to that member of the staff, as distinct from staff matters relating to all members of staff or all members of staff in a particular class, are to be considered;
- (b) from that part of any meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which that member's reappointment or the appointment of that member's successor is to be considered;
- (c) from that part of any meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which the matter under consideration concerns the pay or conditions of service of all members of staff, or all members of staff in a particular class, where the member of staff is acting as a representative (whether or not on behalf of a recognised trade union) of all members of staff or the class of staff (as the case may be); and
- (d) if so required by a resolution of the other members present, from that part of any meeting of the Corporation or any of its committees, at which staff matters relating to any member of staff holding a post senior to that members are to be considered, except those relating to the pay and conditions of all staff or all staff in a particular class.

(6) A Chief Executive who has chosen not to be a member of the Corporation shall still be entitled to attend and speak, or otherwise communicate, at all meetings of the Corporation and any of its committees, except that the Chief Executive shall withdraw in any case where the Chief Executive would be required to withdraw under sub-clause 13(5).

(7) Except as provided by rules made under article 11 of the Articles of Government relating to appeals and representations by students in disciplinary cases, a student member shall withdraw from that part of any meeting of the Corporation or any of its committees, at which a student's conduct, suspension or expulsion is to be considered.

(8) In any case where the Corporation, or any of its committees, is to discuss staff matters relating to a member or prospective member of staff at the institution, a student member shall—

- (a) take no part in the consideration or discussion of that matter and not vote on any question with respect to it; and
- (b) where required to do so by a majority of the members, other than student members, of the Corporation or committee present at the meeting, withdraw from the meeting.

(9) The Clerk—

- (a) shall withdraw from that part of any meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which the Clerk's remuneration, conditions of service, conduct, suspension, dismissal or retirement in the capacity of Clerk are to be considered; and
- (b) where the Clerk is a member of staff at the institution, the Clerk shall withdraw in any case where a member of the Corporation is required to withdraw under sub-clause 13(5).

(10) If the Clerk withdraws from a meeting, or part of a meeting, of the Corporation under sub-clause 13(9), the Corporation shall appoint a person from among themselves to act as Clerk during this absence.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(11) If the Clerk withdraws from a meeting, or part of a meeting, of a committee of the Corporation, the Corporation shall appoint a person from among themselves to act as Clerk to the committee during this absence.

Minutes

14.—(1) Written minutes of every meeting of the Corporation shall be prepared, and, subject to sub-clause 14(2), at every meeting of the Corporation the minutes of the last meeting shall be taken as an agenda item.

(2) Sub-clause 14(1) shall not require the minutes of the last meeting to be taken as an agenda item at a special meeting, but where they are not taken, they shall be taken as an agenda item at the next meeting which is not a special meeting.

(3) Where minutes of a meeting are taken as an agenda item and agreed to be accurate, those minutes shall be signed as a true record by the Chair of the meeting.

(4) Separate minutes shall be taken of those parts of meetings from which staff members, the Chief Executive, student members or the Clerk have withdrawn from a meeting in accordance with sub-clauses 13(5), 13(6), 13(7), 13(8) or 13(9) and such persons shall not be entitled to see the minutes of that part of the meeting or any papers relating to it.

Access to Meetings

15. The Corporation shall decide any question as to whether a person should be allowed to attend any of its meetings where that person is not a member or the Clerk, or the Chief Executive.

Publication of Minutes and Papers

16.—(1) Subject to sub-clause 16(2), the Corporation shall ensure that a copy of—

- (a) the agenda for every meeting of the Corporation;
- (b) the draft minutes of every such meeting, if they have been approved by the Chair of the meeting;
- (c) the signed minutes of every such meeting; and
- (d) any report, document or other paper considered at any such meeting, shall as soon as possible be made available during normal office hours at the institution to any person wishing to inspect them.

(2) There shall be excluded from any item made available for inspection any material relating to—

- (a) a named person employed at or proposed to be employed at the institution;
- (b) a named student at, or candidate for admission to, the institution;
- (c) the Clerk; or
- (d) any matter which, by reason of its nature, the Corporation is satisfied should be dealt with on a confidential basis.

(3) The Corporation shall ensure that a copy of the draft or signed minutes of every meeting of the Corporation, under sub-clause 16(1), shall be placed on the institution's website, and shall, despite any rules the Corporation may make regarding the archiving of such material, remain on its website for a minimum period of 12 months.

(4) The Corporation shall review regularly all material excluded from inspection under paragraph 16(2)(d) and make any such material available for inspection where it is satisfied that the reason for dealing with the matter on a confidential basis no longer applies, or where it considers that the public interest in disclosure outweighs that reason.

Copies of the Instrument of Government

17. A copy of this Instrument shall be given free of charge to every member of the Corporation and at a charge not exceeding the cost of copying or free of charge to any other person who so requests a copy, and shall be available for inspection at the institution upon request, during normal office hours, to every member of staff and every student.

Change of Name of the Corporation

18. The Corporation may change its name with the approval of the Secretary of State.

Indemnity

19. The members shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Corporation against any liability properly incurred by that member for acting as member subject to any limitations imposed by law from time to time.

Notices

20. Any notice given by post shall be made by first class pre-paid post and shall be deemed to be delivered on the business day following its posting. Notices served by hand or by electronic means shall be deemed to be delivered on the business day of delivery or if not a business day then the next business day.

Application of the Seal

21. The application of the seal of the Corporation shall be authenticated by—
- (a) the signature of either the Chair or of some other member authorised either generally or specially by the Corporation to act for that purpose; and
 - (b) the signature of any other member.

The establishment of committees and delegation of functions generally

4.—(1) The Corporation may establish committees for any purpose or function, other than those assigned in these Articles to the Chief Executive or Clerk and may delegate powers to—

- (a) such committees;
- (b) the Chair, or in the Chair’s absence, the Vice-Chair; or
- (c) the Chief Executive.

(2) Without prejudice to article 4(1)(b), both the Chair and in the Chair’s absence the Vice Chair shall, on terms specified in rules and bye-laws from time to time, be empowered to act for the Corporation between meetings of the Corporation where action is required to be taken between such meetings.

(3) The number of members of a committee and the terms on which they are to hold and to vacate office, shall be decided by the Corporation.

(4) The Corporation may also establish committees under collaboration arrangements made with other further education institutions or maintained schools (or with both), and such joint committees shall be subject to any regulations made under section 166 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006⁽⁵⁾ governing such arrangements.

(5) Subject to Article 9(2) any committee established by the Corporation may include persons who are not members of the Corporation.

The search committee

5.—(1) The Corporation shall establish a committee, to be known as the “search committee”, to advise on—

- (a) the appointment of members (other than as a staff or student member); and
- (b) such other matters relating to membership and appointments as the Corporation may ask it to.

(2) The Corporation shall not appoint any person as a member (other than as a parent, staff or student member) without first consulting and considering the advice of the search committee.

(3) The Corporation may make rules specifying the way in which the search committee is to be conducted.

The audit committee

6.—(1) The Corporation shall establish a committee, to be known as the “audit committee”, to advise on matters relating to the Corporation’s audit arrangements and systems of internal control.

(2) The audit committee shall consist of such persons and operate in such way as is approved by the Corporation from time to time subject to compliance with any criteria imposed on the Corporation by any funding agency (or any successor body) from time to time.

Remuneration Committee

7.—(1) The Corporation shall establish a committee, to be known as the “remuneration committee”, to advise on—

- (a) the remuneration of the Chief Executive and Clerk and such other persons or categories of persons as the Corporation may approve from time to time; and

(5) 2006 c. 40; section 166 was amended by section 9(4) of the Education (Wales) Measure 2011 (c.07) and paragraph 104 of Schedule 1 to the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 (Consequential Amendments) (England and Wales) Order (S.I. 2010/1080).

- (b) such other matters relating to membership and appointments as the Corporation may ask it to.
- (2) The Corporation may make rules specifying the way in which the remuneration committee is to be conducted.

Access to committees by non-members and publication of minutes

- 8.—(1) The Corporation shall be entitled to decide from time to time its policies regarding—
- (a) attendance at committee meetings by persons who are not committee members; and
 - (b) the publication of minutes of committee meetings.

Delegable and non-delegable functions

- 9.—(1) The Corporation shall not delegate the following functions—
- (a) the determination of the educational character and mission of the institution;
 - (b) the approval of the annual estimates of income and expenditure;
 - (c) the responsibility for ensuring the solvency of the institution and the Corporation and for safeguarding their assets;
 - (d) the appointment of the Chief Executive;
 - (e) the appointment of the Clerk, (including, where the Clerk is, or is to be, appointed as a member of staff, the Clerk's appointment in the capacity of a member of staff); and
 - (f) the modification or revocation of the Instrument of Government or these Articles.
- (2) The Corporation may not delegate—
- (a) the consideration of the case for dismissal; and
 - (b) the power to determine an appeal in connection with the dismissal of the Chief Executive or the Clerk, other than to a committee of members of the Corporation.

- (3) The Corporation shall make rules specifying the way in which a committee having functions under article 9(2) shall be established and conducted.

Rules relating to staff

10. The Corporation shall, after consultation with the staff of the institution, make rules relating to the conduct of staff (including governance procedures, procedures for suspension of staff, and disciplinary and dismissal procedures). Such rules and procedures shall be subject to the provisions of articles 3(1)(f), 3(1)(g), 3(2)(e) and 9(2).

Students

11.—(1) The students shall be entitled to form a students' association in accordance with a constitution approved by the students.

(2) After consultation with representatives of any students association formed under article 11(1), the Corporation shall make rules concerning the conduct of the students, including procedures for their suspension and expulsion (including expulsion for an unsatisfactory standard of work or other academic reason).

Financial Matters

12. The Corporation shall set the policy by which the tuition and other fees payable to it are determined, subject to any terms and conditions attached to grants, loans or other payments paid or made by any funding agency or any successor or other body.

Academic freedom

13. In making rules under article 10, the Corporation shall have regard to the need to ensure that academic staff at the institution have freedom within the law to question and test received wisdom, and to put forward new ideas and controversial or unpopular opinions, without putting themselves at risk of losing their jobs or any privileges which they may enjoy at the institution.

Internal audit

14.—(1) The Corporation shall, at such times as it considers appropriate, examine and evaluate its systems of internal financial and other control to ensure that they contribute to the proper, economic, efficient and effective use of the Corporation's resources.

(2) The Corporation may arrange for the examination and evaluation mentioned in article 14(1) to be carried out on its behalf by internal auditors.

(3) The Corporation shall not appoint persons as internal auditors to carry out the activities referred to in article 14(1) if those persons are already appointed as external auditors under article 15.

Accounts and audit of accounts

15.—(1) The Corporation shall—

- (a) keep proper accounts and proper records in relation to the accounts; and
- (b) prepare a statement of accounts for each financial year of the Corporation.

(2) The statement shall—

- (a) give a true and fair account of the state of the Corporation's affairs at the end of the financial year and of its income and expenditure in the financial year. The statements shall also comply with any requirements or directions of any funding agency funding the institution from time to time.

(3) The accounts and the statement of accounts shall be audited by external auditors appointed by the Corporation in respect of each financial year.

(4) The Corporation shall not appoint persons as external auditors in respect of any financial year if those persons are already appointed as internal auditors under article 14.

(5) The "financial year" means the first financial year and, except as provided for in article 15(7), each successive period of twelve months.

(6) The "first financial year" means the period from the date the Corporation was established up to 31st July following that date.

(7) If the Corporation is dissolved—

- (a) the last financial year shall end on the date of dissolution; and
- (b) the Corporation may decide that what would otherwise be the last two financial years, shall be a single financial year for the purpose of this article.

Rules and bye-laws

16. The Corporation shall have the power to make rules and bye-laws relating to the governance and conduct of the institution and these rules and bye-laws shall be subject to the provisions of the Instrument of Government and these Articles.

Copies of Articles of Government and rules and bye-laws

17. A copy of these Articles, and of any rules and bye-laws, shall be given free of charge to every member of the Corporation and at a charge not exceeding the cost of copying or free of charge, to any other person who requests a copy and shall be available for inspection at the institution upon request, during normal office hours, to every member of staff and every student at the institution.

Modification or replacement of the Instrument and Articles of Government

18.—(1) Subject to article 18(2), the Corporation may, by resolution of the members, modify or replace its instruments and articles of government after consultation with any persons who, in the Corporation's view, are likely to be affected by the proposed changes.

(2) The Corporation shall not make changes to the instrument or articles of government that would result in the Corporation ceasing to be a charity.

Dissolution of the Corporation

19. Subject to complying with any legal requirements from time to time in force, the Corporation may by resolution dissolve itself and provide for the transfer of its property, rights and liabilities.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations prescribe, for the newly established further education corporation called Ada National College for Digital Skills, the first provisions of the instrument of government providing for the constitution of the corporation, and those of the articles of government in accordance with which the corporation, and the institution it will run, are to be conducted.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has no wider impact on the costs of business, charities or voluntary bodies. The impact on the public sector is minimal. The Explanatory Memorandum is published alongside these Regulations on www.legislation.gov.uk.
