where—

PT is the number of modules, credits, credit points, points or other unit to be awarded to the eligible part-time student by the academic authority if the student successfully completes the academic year in connection with which that student is applying for a loan for living costs;

FT is—

- (a) where the course is provided by or on behalf of the Open University, 120;
- (b) where the course is provided by or on behalf of any other institution, the number of modules, credits, credit points, points or other unit that a standard full-time student would be required to obtain in each academic year in order to complete the full-time equivalent within the period ordinarily required to complete that course.

(3) In this Part, a reference to the period ordinarily required to complete the full-time equivalent means—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) the Secretary of State determines that the maximum amount of loan for living costs in relation to an academic year should be increased (including an increase from nil); and

 - (i) failing to provide information promptly which might affect the student's ability to qualify for the loan in question or the amount of loan in question for which the student qualifies; or
 - (ii) providing information that is inaccurate in any material particular.

Provision of United Kingdom national insurance number

157O.—(1) The Secretary of State may make it a condition of entitlement to payment of any loan under this Part that the eligible part-time student must provide the Secretary of State with the student's United Kingdom national insurance number.

(2) Where the Secretary of State has imposed a condition under paragraph (1), the Secretary of State must not make any payment of the loan to the eligible part-time student before the Secretary of State is satisfied that the student has complied with that condition.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(3) Despite paragraph (2), the Secretary of State may make a payment of loan to an eligible part-time student if the Secretary of State is satisfied that owing to exceptional circumstances it would be appropriate to make such a payment without the eligible part-time student having complied with the condition imposed under paragraph (1).

Information requirements and agreements to repay loans for living costs

157P.—(1) The Secretary of State may at any time request from an eligible part-time student information that the Secretary of State considers is required to recover a loan for living costs.

(2) The Secretary of State may at any time require an eligible part-time student to enter into an agreement to repay a loan for living costs by a particular method.

(3) The Secretary of State may at any time request from an eligible part-time student sight of their valid national identity card, valid passport issued by the state of which they are a national or their birth certificate.

(4) Where the Secretary of State has requested information under this regulation, the Secretary of State may withhold any payment of a loan for living costs until the person provides what has been requested or provides a satisfactory explanation for not complying with the request.

(5) Where the Secretary of State has required an agreement as to the method of repayment under this regulation, the Secretary of State may withhold any payment of a loan for living costs until the person provides what has been required.

Payment of loans for living costs

(2) Subject to paragraph (4), the Secretary of State may pay loans for living costs at such times as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

(3) An academic authority is required to send an attendance confirmation to the Secretary of State.

(4) The Secretary of State must not pay the first instalment under this Part or, where it has been determined not to pay the loan for living costs by instalments, make any payment of loans for living costs to the eligible part-time student before the Secretary of State has received an attendance confirmation from the relevant academic authority, unless an exception applies.

(5) An exception applies if the Secretary of State has determined that owing to exceptional circumstances it would be appropriate to make a payment without receiving an attendance confirmation.

(6) Where a final assessment cannot be made on the basis of the information provided by the student, the Secretary of State may make a provisional assessment and payment of support under this Part.

(7) Payments of loans for living costs are to be made in such manner as the Secretary of State considers appropriate and the Secretary of State may make it a condition of entitlement to payment that the eligible part-time student must provide the Secretary of State with particulars of a bank or building society account in the United Kingdom into which payments may be made by electronic transfer.

(8) Where the Secretary of State has made any payment of a loan for living costs under this Part and a student who qualifies for a loan for living costs under this Part applies for such a loan or applies for an additional amount of loan in respect of an academic year, the Secretary of State may pay that loan or that additional amount of loan in such instalments (if any) and at such times as the Secretary of State considers appropriate as soon as is reasonably practicable after a satisfactory application has been received.

(9) Subject to paragraph (10), no loan for living costs under this Part is due in respect of any day of an academic year on which the eligible student is a prisoner, unless in the opinion of the Secretary of State it would be appropriate in all the circumstances for a loan for living costs to be paid in respect of that day.

(10) In deciding whether it would be appropriate for a loan for living costs to be due under paragraph (9) the circumstances to which the Secretary of State must have regard include the financial hardship which not paying the loan would cause and whether not paying the support would affect the student's ability to continue the course.

(11) No loan for living costs under this Part in respect of the current course is due in respect of any payment period beginning after an eligible part-time student's period of eligibility terminates.

(12) No loan for living costs under this Part is due in respect of a payment period during part of which an eligible part-time student is absent from the course, unless in the opinion of the Secretary of State it would be appropriate in all the circumstances for a loan for living costs to be paid in respect of the period of absence.

(13) In deciding whether it would be appropriate for a loan for living costs to be due under paragraph (12) the circumstances to which the Secretary of State must have regard include the reasons for the student's absence, the length of the absence and the financial hardship which not paying the loan would cause.

(14) An eligible part-time student is not to be considered absent from the student's course if the student is unable to attend due to illness and the student's absence has not exceeded 60 days.

(15) Where, after the Secretary of State has made any payment of a loan for living costs under this Part for which a student qualifies in respect of an academic year, the Secretary of State makes a determination that the amount of loan for living costs for which the student qualifies is less than the amount previously determined either by way of a revision of a provisional assessment or otherwise—

- (a) the Secretary of State must subtract from any amount of loan which remains to be paid under this Part such amount as is necessary to ensure that the student does not borrow an amount of loan under this Part which is greater than that for which the student qualifies;
- (b) if the amount to be subtracted is greater than the amount of loan remaining to be paid under this Part, the amount of that loan remaining to be paid is reduced to nil;
- (c) any remaining overpayment is recoverable in accordance with regulation 157R.

(16) In this regulation—

- (a) "attendance confirmation" means—
 - (i) confirmation from the academic authority that the student has enrolled for the academic year where—
 - (aa) the student is applying for support in connection with a designated part-time course for the first time;
 - (bb) the student has a disability; and
 - (cc) the student is undertaking the course but not attending (regardless of whether the reason for not attending relates to the student's disability);
 - (ii) confirmation from the academic authority that the student has been present at the institution and begun to attend the course where—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (aa) the student is applying for support in connection with a designated part-time course for the first time;
 - (bb) the student's status as an eligible part-time student has not been transferred to the course from another designated part-time course at the same institution;
 - (cc) the student's status has not been converted to that of an eligible part-time student after the student has transferred from a designated course to a designated part-time course at the same institution; and
 - (dd) sub-paragraph (i)(cc) does not apply; or

- (aa) the student is applying for support in connection with a designated part-time course other than for the first time;

 - (cc) the student is applying for support in connection with a designated part-time course for the first time after the student's status as an eligible student has been converted to that of an eligible part-time student after the student has transferred from a designated course to a designated part-time course at the same institution;
- (b) "payment period" means a period in respect of which the Secretary of State pays loans for living costs or would have paid such support if the eligible part-time student's period of eligibility had not terminated.

Overpayments of loans for living costs

157R.—(1) A part-time student must, if so required by the Secretary of State, repay any amount paid to the student under this Part which for whatever reason exceeds the amount of loans for living costs to which the student is entitled under this Part.

(2) Any overpayment of a loan for living costs in respect of any academic year is recoverable by the Secretary of State from the student to whom the payment was made.

(3) The methods of recovery are—

- (a) subtracting the overpayment from any kind of grant or loan payable to the student from time to time pursuant to regulations made by the Secretary of State under section 22 of the 1998 Act;
- (b) requiring the student to repay the loan in accordance with regulations made under section 22 of the 1998 Act;
- (c) taking such other action for the recovery of an overpayment as is available to the Secretary of State."

Household income

- 3.—(1) The amount of an eligible part-time student's household income is—
- (a) in the case of an eligible part-time student who is not an independent eligible part-time student, the residual income of the eligible part-time student aggregated with the residual income of the eligible part-time student's parents (subject to paragraph 5(9)) and the residual income of the partner of the student's parent (provided that the Secretary of State has selected that parent under paragraph 5(9));
 - (b) in the case of an independent eligible part-time student who has a partner, the residual income of the eligible part-time student aggregated with the residual income of the eligible part-time student's partner; or
 - (c) in the case of an independent eligible part-time student who does not have a partner, the residual income of the eligible part-time student.
- (2) In determining the household income under sub-paragraph (1), there is deducted the sum of £1,130—

 - (b) for each child other than the eligible part-time student wholly or mainly financially dependent on the eligible part-time student's parent or the eligible part-time student's parent's partner whose residual income is being taken into account.

Calculation of eligible part-time student's residual income

4.—(1) For the purpose of determining the residual income of an eligible part-time student, there is deducted from the student's taxable income (unless already deducted in determining taxable income) the aggregate of any amounts falling within any of the following sub-paragraphs—

- (a) any remuneration for work done during any academic year of the eligible part-time student's course, provided that such remuneration does not include any sums paid in respect of any period for which the student has leave of absence or is relieved of the student's normal duties for the purpose of attending that course;
- (b) the gross amount of any premium or other sum paid by the eligible part-time student in relation to a pension (not being a pension payable under a policy of life insurance) in respect of which relief is given under section 188 of the Finance Act 2004⁽¹⁹⁾, or where the eligible part-time student's income is computed for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another Member State, the gross amount of any such premium or sum in respect of which relief would be given if that legislation made provision equivalent to the Income Tax Acts;

(2) Where the eligible part-time student receives income in a currency other than sterling, the value of that income for the purpose of this paragraph is—

- (a) if the student purchases sterling with the income, the amount of sterling the student so receives;
- (b) otherwise the value of the sterling which the income would purchase using the average rate published by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs for the calendar year which ends before the start of the relevant year.

Calculation of parent's residual income

5.—(1) For the purposes of determining the residual income of an eligible part-time student's parent ("A" in this paragraph) there is deducted from the taxable income of A the aggregate of any amounts falling within any of the following sub-paragraphs (unless already deducted in determining a person's taxable income)—

- (a) the gross amount of any premium or sum relating to a pension (not being a premium payable under a policy of life assurance) in respect of which relief is given under section 188 of the Finance Act 2004, or where the income is computed for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another Member State, the gross amount of any such premium in respect of which relief would be given if that legislation made provision equivalent to the Income Tax Acts;
- (b) in any case where income is computed for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts by virtue of sub-paragraph (6) any sums equivalent to the deduction mentioned in paragraph (a) of this sub-paragraph, provided that any sums so deducted do not exceed the deductions which would be made if the whole of A's income were in fact income for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts;
- (c) where A is a parent student or A holds a statutory award, £1,130.

(2) Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that the residual income of A in the financial year beginning immediately before the relevant year ("the current financial year") is likely to be not more than 85 per cent of the sterling value of A's residual income in the prior financial year the Secretary of State may, for the purpose of enabling the eligible part-time student to attend the course without hardship, ascertain A's residual income for the current financial year.

⁽¹⁹⁾ 2004 c. 12. Section 188 was amended by: paragraph 2 of Schedule 18, paragraph 7 of Schedule 19 and Part 3(1) of Schedule 27, to the Finance Act 2007 (c. 11); section 52(2) and (3) of the Finance Act 2013 (c. 29); and paragraph 13(2) and (3) of Schedule 7 to the Finance Act 2014 (c. 26).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(3) In the event that sub-paragraph (2) or this paragraph was applied in the previous academic year of the current course and the Secretary of State is satisfied that the residual income of A in the financial year beginning immediately before the relevant year (“the current financial year”) is likely to be not more than 85 per cent of the sterling value of A’s residual income in the previous financial year the Secretary of State may, for the purpose of enabling the eligible part-time student to attend the course without hardship, ascertain A’s residual income for the current financial year.

(4) In an academic year immediately following one in which the Secretary of State has ascertained A’s residual income for the current financial year under sub-paragraph (2) and, where applicable under sub-paragraph (3) the Secretary of State must ascertain A’s residual income in the preceding financial year.

(5) Where A satisfies the Secretary of State that A’s income is wholly or mainly derived from the profits of a business or profession carried on by A, then any reference in this Schedule to a prior financial year means the earliest period of twelve months which ends after the start of the prior financial year and in respect of which accounts are kept relating to that business or profession.

(6) Where A is in receipt of any income which does not form part of A’s income for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts or the income tax legislation of another Member State by reason only that—

- (a) A is not resident or domiciled in the United Kingdom, or where A’s income is computed as for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another Member State, not so resident or domiciled in that Member State,
- (b) the income does not arise in the United Kingdom, or where A’s income is computed as for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another Member State, does not arise in that Member State, or
- (c) the income arises from an office, service or employment, income from which is exempt from tax in pursuance of any legislation,

A’s taxable income for the purposes of this Schedule is computed as though the income under this sub-paragraph were part of A’s income for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts or the income tax legislation of another Member State, as the case may be.

(7) Where A’s income is computed as for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another Member State, it is computed under the provisions of this Schedule in the currency of that Member State and A’s income for the purposes of this Schedule is the sterling value of that income determined in accordance with the average rate published by Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs for the calendar year which ends before the end of the prior financial year.

(8) Where one of the eligible part-time student’s parents dies either before or during the relevant year and that parent’s income has been or would be taken into account for the purpose of determining the household income, the household income is—

- (a) where the parent dies before the relevant year, determined by reference to the income of the surviving parent; or
- (b) where the parent dies during the relevant year, the aggregate of—
 - (i) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined by reference to the income of both parents, being the proportion in respect of that part of the relevant year during which both parents were alive; and
 - (ii) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined by reference to the income of the surviving parent, being the proportion in respect of that part of the relevant year remaining after the death of the other parent.

(9) Where the Secretary of State determines that the parents are separated for the duration of the relevant year, the household income is determined by reference to the income of whichever parent the Secretary of State considers the more appropriate under the circumstances.

(10) Where the Secretary of State determines that the parents have separated in the course of the relevant year, the household income is determined by reference to the aggregate of—

- (a) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined in accordance with sub-paragraph (9), being the proportion in respect of that part of the relevant year during which the parents are separated; and
- (b) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined otherwise in respect of the remainder of the relevant year.

Calculation of eligible part-time student's partner's residual income

6.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph, an eligible part-time student's partner's income is determined in accordance with paragraph 5 (other than sub-paragraphs (7), (8) and (9) of paragraph 5), references to the parent being construed as references to the eligible part-time student's partner.

(2) Where the Secretary of State determines that the eligible part-time student and the student's partner are separated for the duration of the relevant year, the partner's income is not taken into account in determining the household income.

(3) Where the Secretary of State determines that the eligible part-time student and the eligible part-time student's partner have separated in the course of the relevant year, the partner's income is determined by reference to the partner's income under sub-paragraph (1) divided by fifty-two and multiplied by the number of complete weeks in the relevant year for which the Secretary of State determines that the eligible part-time student and the eligible part-time student's partner are not separated.

(4) Where an eligible part-time student has more than one partner in any one academic year, the provisions of this paragraph apply in relation to each.

Calculation of parent's partner's residual income

7. The income of an eligible part-time student's parent's partner whose income is part of the household income by virtue of paragraph 3(1)(a) is determined in accordance with paragraph 6 and—

- (a) references to the eligible part-time student's partner are to be construed as references to the eligible part-time student's parent's partner; and
- (b) references to the eligible part-time student are to be construed as references to the eligible part-time student's parent."

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Part 11 of the Education (Student Support) Regulations 2011 (S.I. 2011/1986) ("the Student Support Regulations") makes provision to ensure that eligible part-time students undertaking designated part-time courses may receive financial support in connection with those courses by way of fee loans, grants or allowances. These Regulations amend the Student Support Regulations to provide that eligible part-time students who begin designated part-time courses on or after 1st August 2018 may also receive loans for living costs in respect of some categories of such courses.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Regulations 2 to 5 and 7 to 15 of these Regulations amend Part 11 of the Student Support Regulations so that regulations 136 to 140 in that Part now make provision in respect of the eligibility of part-time students for fee support, grants and allowances in connection with designated part-time courses and also in respect of their eligibility for loans for living costs in connection with such courses. “Designated part-time courses” are described in Part 11, in regulation 139, and is given a more restricted meaning in relation to loans for living costs. Part-time students who are “eligible part-time students” in accordance with Part 11 may be entitled to fee support, grants and allowances under new Part 11A and also to loans for living costs under new Part 11B. Regulation 6 amends regulation 85 so as to update that provision.

Regulation 151 of the Student Support Regulations makes provision in respect of the status of eligible part-time students who transfer to other designated part-time courses at the same or at another institution. Regulation 152 makes provision in respect of students who convert their mode of study: eligible (full-time) students who transfer to designated part-time courses at the same or at another institution and eligible part-time students who transfer to designated (full-time) courses at the same or at another institution. Regulations 151 and 152 are omitted (by regulation 22) but the substance of those provisions is inserted into Part 11, with some modifications, in regulations 139A to 139D. The modifications ensure that, when students convert their mode of study during a term (the “relevant term”), their entitlement to a loan for living costs in that term is calculated by reference to the number of days in the relevant term which they undertake in each mode of study. The modifications also ensure that students who transfer from full or part-time courses that are designated to full or part time courses that are not designated, may apply for any loans for living costs to which they may have been entitled before the transfer.

Regulations 16 to 23 insert regulations 140A and 140B into the Student Support Regulations and amend and reposition regulations 141 to 150 and regulations 153 to 157 of those Regulations. The substance of those provisions remains unchanged by these Regulations but they now form a new Part 11A in the Student Support Regulations: they continue to make the same provision in respect of fee support, grants and allowances in connection with designated part-time courses.

Regulation 24 inserts a new Part 11B into the Student Support Regulations. Part 11B makes provision for the loan for living costs which may be available to eligible part-time students and replicates, for the most part, the position in respect of loans for living costs for full-time students in Part 6 of the Student Support Regulations.

Chapter 1 of Part 11B makes provision, at regulations 157B and 157C respectively, in respect of qualifying and applying for the loan for living costs once a student is an eligible part-time student in connection with a designated part-time course under Part 11. Regulation 157D makes provision requiring a declaration to be provided by the academic authority in respect of the eligible part-time student and the designated part-time course. Regulation 157E requires the provision of information to the Secretary of State as set out in (the existing) Schedule 3 to the Student Support Regulations.

Chapter 2 of Part 11B sets out the maximum amount of loan for living costs which students with full and reduced entitlement may receive under this Part. A loan for living costs is made up of a loan for maintenance and/or a special support loan. Information about a student’s household income is required to calculate the maximum amount of loan for living costs to which an eligible part-time student with full entitlement may be entitled. Regulation 157I introduces a new Schedule 6 into the Student Support Regulations. That Schedule sets out how a part-time student’s household income is to be calculated. Also in Chapter 4, regulation 157J specifies how to calculate the minimum amount of loan for living costs which may be available for a student with full entitlement.

Chapter 3 of Part 11B makes miscellaneous provision. Amongst other things, it sets out, at regulation 157L, the manner in which the maximum amount of loan for living costs is to be calculated where a student falls into more than one of the categories set out in regulation 157F(4). It also sets out, in regulation 157N, the circumstances in which an eligible part-time student may apply to borrow an additional amount of loan for living costs.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Chapter 4 of Part 11B makes provision in respect of the payment of loans for living costs to eligible part-time students. Regulation 157O allows the Secretary of State to request a national insurance number before any loan under Part 11B is paid. Regulation 157P allows the Secretary of State to request information which the Secretary of State considers is required to recover a loan for living costs and allows the Secretary of State to require eligible part-time students to enter into agreements to repay loans for living costs by a particular method. Regulation 157Q provides for how payments are to be made to eligible part-time students in connection with loans for living costs. Regulation 157R makes provision in respect of how any overpayments in respect of such loans may be recovered.
