TABLE

CHAPTER 67

Prepared feathers and down and articles made of feathers or of down; artificial flowers; articles of human hair Extract from the Harmonised System Explanatory Notes

Heading 6701 covers:

- (A) Skins and other parts of birds with their feathers or down, feathers and down, and parts of feathers, which though not yet constituting made up articles, have undergone a process other than a simple treatment of cleaning, disinfection or preservation (see Explanatory Note to heading 0505); the goods of this heading may, for example, be bleached, dyed, curled or waved.
- (B) Articles made of skins or of other parts of birds with their feathers or down, articles made of feathers, of down or of parts of feathers, even if the feathers or down, etc., are unworked or merely cleaned, but not including articles made of scapes or quills. The heading therefore includes:
- (1) Single feathers the quills of which have been wired or bound for use as, for example, millinery mounts, and also single composite feathers assembled from different elements.
 - (2) Feathers assembled in the form of clusters, and feathers or down assembled by glueing or fixing on textile fabric or other base.
 - (3) Trimmings made of birds, parts of birds, of feathers or down, for hats, boas, collars, capes or other articles of apparel or clothing accessories.
 - (4) Fans made of ornamental feathers, with frames of any material. However, fans with frames or precious metal are classified in heading 7113.
