

Council Directive of 25 June 1991 supplementing the measures to encourage improvements in the safety and health at work of workers with a fixed-duration employment relationship or a temporary employment relationship (91/383/EEC)

SECTION II

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 3

Provision of information to workers

Without prejudice to Article 10 of Directive 89/391/EEC, Member States shall take the necessary steps to ensure that:

1. before a worker with an employment relationship as referred to in Article 1 takes up any activity, he is informed by the undertaking and/or establishment making use of his services of the risks which he faces;
2. such information:
  - covers, in particular, any special occupational qualifications or skills or special medical surveillance required, as defined in national legislation, and
  - states clearly any increased specific risks, as defined in national legislation, that the job may entail.
