

Council Directive 92/57/EEC of 24 June 1992 on the implementation of minimum safety and health requirements at temporary or mobile constructions sites (eighth individual Directive within the meaning of Article 16 (1) of Directive 89/391/EEC)

Article 8

Implementation of Article 6 of Directive 89/391/EEC

When the work is being carried out, the principles set out in Article 6 of Directive 89/391/EEC shall be applied, in particular as regards:

- (a) keeping the construction site in good order and in a satisfactory state of cleanliness;
- (b) choosing the location of workstations bearing in mind how access to these workplaces is obtained, and determining routes or areas for the passage and movement and equipment;
- (c) the conditions under which various materials are handled;
- (d) technical maintenance, pre-commissioning checks and regular checks on installations and equipment with a view to correcting any faults which might affect the safety and health of workers;
- (e) the demarcation and laying-out of areas for the storage of various materials, in particular where dangerous materials or substances are concerned;
- (f) the conditions under which the dangerous materials used are removed;
- (g) the storage and disposal or removal of waste and debris;
- (h) the adaptation, based on progress made with the site, of the actual period to be allocated for the various types of work or work stages;
- (i) cooperation between employers and self-employed persons;
- (j) interaction with industrial activities at the place within which or in the vicinity of which the construction site is located.
