

Directive 2003/98/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 17 November 2003 on the re-use of public sector information

CHAPTER I U.K.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 U.K.

Subject matter and scope

- 1 This Directive establishes a minimum set of rules governing the re-use and the practical means of facilitating re-use of existing documents held by public sector bodies of the Member States.
- 2 This Directive shall not apply to:
- [<sup>F1</sup>a documents the supply of which is an activity falling outside the scope of the public task of the public sector bodies concerned as defined by law or by other binding rules in the Member State, or in the absence of such rules, as defined in line with common administrative practice in the Member State in question, provided that the scope of the public tasks is transparent and subject to review;]
  - b documents for which third parties hold intellectual property rights;
  - [<sup>F1</sup>c documents which are excluded from access by virtue of the access regimes in the Member States, including on the grounds of:
    - the protection of national security (i.e. State security), defence, or public security,
    - statistical confidentiality,
    - commercial confidentiality (e.g. business, professional or company secrets);]
  - [<sup>F2</sup>ca documents access to which is restricted by virtue of the access regimes in the Member States, including cases whereby citizens or companies have to prove a particular interest to obtain access to documents;
  - cb parts of documents containing only logos, crests and insignia;
  - cc documents access to which is excluded or restricted by virtue of the access regimes on the grounds of protection of personal data, and parts of documents accessible by virtue of those regimes which contain personal data the re-use of which has been defined by law as being incompatible with the law concerning the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data;]
  - d documents held by public service broadcasters and their subsidiaries, and by other bodies or their subsidiaries for the fulfilment of a public service broadcasting remit;
  - [<sup>F1</sup>e documents held by educational and research establishments, including organisations established for the transfer of research results, schools and universities, except university libraries and]
  - [<sup>F1</sup>f documents held by cultural establishments other than libraries, museums and archives.]
- [<sup>F13</sup> This Directive builds on and is without prejudice to access regimes in the Member States.]

Article 2 U.K.

Definitions

For the purpose of this Directive the following definitions shall apply:

1. 'public sector body' means the State, regional or local authorities, bodies governed by public law and associations formed by one or several such authorities or one or several such bodies governed by public law;
2. 'body governed by public law' means any body:
  - (a) established for the specific purpose of meeting needs in the general interest, not having an industrial or commercial character; and
  - (b) having legal personality; and
  - (c) financed, for the most part by the State, or regional or local authorities, or other bodies governed by public law; or subject to management supervision by those bodies; or having an administrative, managerial or supervisory board, more than half of whose members are appointed by the State, regional or local authorities or by other bodies governed by public law;
3. 'document' means:
  - (a) any content whatever its medium (written on paper or stored in electronic form or as a sound, visual or audiovisual recording);
  - (b) any part of such content;
4. 're-use' means the use by persons or legal entities of documents held by public sector bodies, for commercial or non-commercial purposes other than the initial purpose within the public task for which the documents were produced. Exchange of documents between public sector bodies purely in pursuit of their public tasks does not constitute re-use;
5. 'personal data' means data as defined in Article 2(a) of Directive 95/46/EC.
