

Directive 2008/121/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 January 2009 on textile names (recast) (Text with EEA relevance) (repealed)

Article 1

1 Textile products may be marketed within the Community, either before or during their industrial processing or at any of the distribution stages, only where such products comply with this Directive.

2 This Directive shall not apply to textile products which:

- a are intended for export to third countries;
- b enter Member States, under customs control, for transit purposes;
- c are imported from third countries for inward processing;
- d are contracted out to persons working in their own homes, or to independent firms that make up work from materials supplied without the property therein being transferred for consideration.
