

ANNEX V

Monitoring programmes (referred to in Articles 11(1) and 24)

- (4) Need to include activities to identify the cause of the change and hence the possible corrective measures that would need to be taken to restore the good environmental status, when deviations from the desired status range have been identified.