

ANNEX II

Health and safety and environmental requirements relating to the inspection of pesticide application equipment

1. Power transmission parts

The power take-off driveshaft guard and the guard of the power input connection shall be fitted and in good condition and the protective devices and any moving or rotating power transmission parts shall not be affected in their function so as to ensure protection of the operator.