COUNCIL REGULATION (EEC) No 3330/91*of 7 November 1991*on the statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular Article 100a thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission⁽¹⁾,

In cooperation with the European Parliament⁽²⁾,

Having regard to the opinion of the Economic and Social Committee⁽³⁾,

Whereas abolishing physical barriers between Member States is necessary to complete the internal market; whereas a satisfactory level of information on the trading of goods between Member States should thus be ensured by means other than those involving checks, even indirect ones, at internal frontiers;

Whereas an analysis of the situation of the Community and the Member States after 1992 reveals that a number of specific requirements will persist as regards information on the trading of goods between Member States;

Whereas these requirements are not of a macro-economic nature, unlike those relating, for example, to national accounts or the balance of payments, and many of them cannot be met by means of highly aggregated data alone; whereas matters such as trade policy, sectoral analyses, competition rules, the management and guidance of agriculture and fisheries, regional development, energy projections and the organization of transport must on the contrary be based on statistical documentation providing the most up-to-date, accurate and detailed view of the internal market;

Whereas it is precisely information on the trading of goods between Member States which will contribute to measuring the progress of the internal market, thereby speeding up its completion and consolidating it on a sound basis; whereas this kind of information could prove to be one of the means of assessing the development of economic and social cohesion;

Whereas until the end of 1992 statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States will benefit from the formalities, documentation and controls which the customs authorities, for their own requirements or for those of other departments, prescribe for consignors and consignees of goods in circulation between Member States, but which will disappear through the elimination of physical frontiers and tax barriers;

Whereas it will consequently be necessary to collect directly from the consignors and consignees the data necessary to compile statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States, using methods and techniques which will ensure that they are exhaustive, reliable and up to date, without giving rise for the parties concerned, in particular for small and medium-sized businesses, to a burden out of proportion to the results which users of the said statistics can reasonably expect;

Whereas the relevant legislation must henceforth apply to all statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States, including those statistics which are not to be harmonized or made compulsory by the Community before 1993;

Whereas the statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States are a function of the movements of goods involved; whereas they may include data on transport, which can be collected simultaneously with the data specific to each of these categories of statistics, thus lightening the overall statistical burden;

Whereas private individuals will derive obvious advantages from the internal market; whereas it is necessary to ensure that these advantages are not diminished in their eyes by requirements for statistical information; whereas the provision of such information would undoubtedly impose an obligation which private individuals would consider inconvenient at the very least and which would be impossible to check on without employing excessive measures; whereas it is therefore reasonable not to regard private individuals as responsible for providing such information, apart from suitable periodic surveys;

Whereas the new collection system to be introduced is to apply to all statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States; whereas it must therefore be defined first in a general context involving new concepts, particularly as regards the scope, the party responsible for providing the information and the transmission of data;

Whereas the actual concept of the system resides in the use of related administrative networks, and in particular that of the value added tax (VAT) authorities, to provide the statistical services with a minimum degree of indirect verification without thereby increasing the burden on taxpayers; whereas it is nonetheless necessary to avoid confusion arising in the minds of the parties responsible for providing information between their statistical and their tax obligations;

Whereas it is vital to use existing sources to compile basic documentation in each Member State regarding consignors and consignees of goods which are covered by statistics of trade between Member States, so as to identify, in preparation for 1992, the main parties concerned and to develop modern data transmission techniques with their assistance;

Whereas implementation alone will reveal loopholes or weaknesses in the new collection system; whereas improvements and simplifications should be introduced within a reasonable period of time in order to prevent defects from having negative repercussions on the trading of goods between Member States;

Whereas, among the statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States, statistics of trade between Member States must receive priority, for obvious reasons of importance and continuity; whereas, however, substantial adjustments must be made to these statistics in order to take account of the new conditions on the internal market after 1992; whereas it will be necessary to review, inter alia, the definition of their content, the goods classification applicable to them and the list of data to be collected to compile them; whereas it is desirable to adopt forthwith the principle on which the statistical thresholds will operate in order to avoid small and medium-sized businesses incurring expenditure which is disproportionate to overheads;

Whereas the Commission should be assisted by a committee to ensure the regular cooperation of the Member States, in particular to resolve the problems which are bound to arise in connection with information on the trading of goods between Member States following the numerous innovations introduced by the new collection system;

Whereas relevant Community legislation should be supplemented systematically by provisions adopted either by the Council or by the Commission;

Whereas some of the provisions of this Regulation must enter into force without delay so that the Community and its Member States can prepare for the practical consequences which it will entail as from 1 January 1993;

Whereas one of these consequences is that Council Regulation (EEC) No 2954/85 of 22 October 1985 laying down certain measures for the standardization and simplification of the statistics of trade between

▼B

Member States⁽¹⁾ must be repealed and that Council Regulation (EEC) No 1736/75 of 24 June 1975 on the external trade statistics of the Community and statistics of trade between Member States⁽²⁾, as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 1629/88⁽³⁾, will no longer be applicable to statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

CHAPTER II

Statistical collection system

Intrastat

Article 6

With a view to compiling the statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States, a statistical collection system shall be set up, hereinafter referred to as the 'Intrastat system'.

Article 7

1. The Intrastat system shall be applied in the Member States whenever they are deemed to be partner countries in the trading of goods between Member States by virtue of paragraph 4.
2. The Intrastat system shall be applied to the goods referred to in Article 3:
 - (a) which are in free movement on the internal market of the Community;
 - (b) which, since they may move on the internal market of the Community only after completion of the formalities prescribed by Community legislation on the circulation of goods, are expressly designated either by this Regulation or by the Commission pursuant to Article 30.
3. The collection of data on the goods referred to in Article 3 to which the Intrastat system does not apply shall be regulated by the Commission pursuant to Article 30 within the framework of the formalities referred to in paragraph 2 (b).
4. The Intrastat system shall apply:
 - (a) to statistics of trade between Member States, pursuant to Article 17 to 28;
 - (b) to transit and storage statistics, in accordance with provisions laid down by the Council on a proposal from the Commission pursuant to Article 31.
5. Saving a decision to the contrary by the Council on a proposal from the Commission, in particular pursuant to Article 31, national provisions on the statistics referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article, in so far as they relate to data collection, shall cease to apply after 31 December 1992.

Article 8

Without prejudice to Article 5, the obligation to supply the information required by the Intrastat system shall be incumbent on any natural or legal person who is involved in the trading of goods between Member States.

Among those incurring this obligation, the party responsible for providing information for each category of statistics covered by the Intrastat system shall be designated by the relevant specific provisions.

Article 9

The party responsible for providing information shall provide such third party with all the information necessary to fulfil his obligations as party responsible.

2. The party responsible for providing information may be required, at the express request of the departments responsible for compiling statistics on the trading of goods between Member States, to notify them that for a given reference period,

3. Paragraph 1 shall not apply:

- (a) in cases where Article 28 (4) applies;
- (b) in Member States where the periodic declaration referred to in Article 13 (1) is not distinct from the periodic declaration required for tax purposes and inasmuch as the tax rules in force relating to declaration obligations prevent the transfer referred to in the abovementioned paragraph 1.

4. The implementing rules for paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 shall be laid down by the Commission in accordance with Article 30.

Article 10

1. Member States shall take the measures necessary to ensure that those of their departments which are responsible for compiling statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States have a register of intra-Community operators at their disposal by 1 January 1993.

2. For the purposes of applying paragraph 1, a list shall be established of upon dispatch the consignors, upon arrival the consignees and where necessary the declarants, within the meaning of Commission Regulation (EEC) No 2792/86⁽¹⁾, who are involved from 1 January 1991 to 31 December 1992 in trade between Member States.

3. Paragraph 2 shall not apply in those Member States which take the measures necessary to ensure that their tax authorities have at their disposal, by 1 January 1993 at the latest, a register:

- (a) listing the parties liable to account for VAT who, during the 12 months prior to that date, took part in the trading of goods between Member States as consignors upon dispatch and as consignees upon arrival;
- (b) intended to list ►MI legal persons not liable to account for VAT ◀ and ►MI parties liable to account who carry out only transactions not entitling them to any deduction of VAT ◀ who, from that date, carry out their acquisitions, ►MI within the meaning of Directive 91/680/EEC ◀.

In those Member States, the abovementioned tax authorities shall, in addition to the identification number referred to in paragraph 6, supply the statistical departments referred to in paragraph 1 with the information included in that register which is used to identify those intra-Community operators, under the conditions required for application of this Regulation.

4. The list of minimum data to be recorded in the register of intra-Community operators in addition to the identification number referred to in paragraph 6 shall be laid down by the Commission pursuant to Article 30.

5. From 1 January 1993, the register of intra-Community operators shall be managed and updated in the Member States by the relevant departments on the basis of the declarations referred to in Article 13 (1) or the lists referred to in Article 11 (1), or other administrative sources.

Where required, the Commission shall draw up, in accordance with Article 30, the other rules relating to the management and updating of the register of intra-Community operators to be applied in the Member States by the relevant departments.

▼B

6. Apart from exceptions which they shall justify to the parties responsible for providing statistical information, the relevant statistical departments shall use in their relations with those parties, and in particular with a view to application of Article 13 (1), the identification number allocated to those parties by the tax authorities responsible.

Article 11

1. The tax authorities responsible in each Member State shall, at least once every three months, furnish the departments in that Member State responsible for compiling statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States with the lists of those liable to account for VAT who have declared that, during the period in question, they have made acquisitions in other Member States or deliveries to other Member States.

2. The lists referred to in paragraph 1 shall also include:

3. The lists shall indicate, for each operator on them, the value of trading of goods between Member States which the operator has mentioned in his periodic tax declaration in accordance with ►M1 Directive 91/680/EEC ◄.

4. Under restrictive conditions, which the Commission shall determine pursuant to Article 30, each Member State's competent tax authorities shall in addition furnish the departments in that Member State responsible for compiling statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States, on their own initiative or at the request of the latter, with any information capable of improving the quality of statistics which those liable to account for VAT normally submit to the competent tax authorities to comply with tax requirements.

The information communicated to them in accordance with the first subparagraph shall be treated by the statistical departments, vis-à-vis third parties, in accordance with the rules applied to it by the tax authorities.

5. Whatever the administrative structure of the Member State, the party responsible for providing statistical information may not be compelled to justify, other than within the limits laid down by paragraph 1, 2 and 3 and by the provisions provided for in paragraph 4, the information he supplies in comparison with the data he communicates to the competent tax authorities.

6. In their relations with persons liable to account for VAT regarding the periodic declaration which such persons must forward to it for tax purposes, the competent tax authorities shall draw attention to the obligations which they may incur as parties responsible for providing the information required by the Intrastat system.

7. For the purpose of applying paragraphs 4 and 6, 'parties liable to account for VAT' shall also mean ►M1 legal persons not liable to account for VAT ◄ and ►M1 parties liable to account who carry out only transactions not entitling them to any deduction of VAT ◄ who carry out acquisitions within the meaning of ►M1 Directive 91/680/EEC ◄.

8. Administrative assistance between national departments of different Member States responsible for compiling statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States shall, as necessary, be regulated by the Commission pursuant to Article 30.

▼B*Article 12*

1. The statistical information media required by the Intrastat system shall be set up by the Commission pursuant to Article 30 in respect of each category of statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States.

2. In order to take account of their particular administrative arrangements, Member States may set up media other than those referred to in paragraph 1, provided that those responsible for providing information may choose which of these media they will use.

Member States exercising this option shall inform the Commission accordingly.

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply:

- (a) in cases where Article 28 (4) applies;
- (b) in Member States where the periodic declaration referred to in Article 13 (1) is not distinct from the periodic declaration required for tax purposes and inasmuch as the tax rules in force relating to declaration obligations prevent such application.

*Article 13▼M2

1. The statistical information required by the Intrastat system shall be covered in periodic declarations to be sent by the party responsible for providing the information to the competent national departments, under conditions which the Commission shall lay down pursuant to Article 30.

▼B

2. The Commission shall determine, pursuant to Article 30:

- where not laid down by this Regulation, the reference period applicable to each category of statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States,
- the procedures for the transmission of the information, especially with a view to making available to the parties responsible for providing information networks of regional data collection offices.

3. The periodic declarations referred to in paragraph 1 or, in any case, the information which they contain shall be retained by the Member States for at least two years following the end of the calendar year of the reference period to which those declarations relate.

Article 14

Failure by any party responsible for providing statistical information to fulfil his obligations under this Regulation shall be liable to the penalties which the Member States shall lay down in accordance with their national provisions.

Article 15

Pursuant to Article 30, periodic surveys may be organized on the trading of goods between Member States by private individuals and on movements of goods or on intra-Community operators excluded from the returns benefitting (SIC! benefiting) from simplification measures under specific provisions relating to the various statistics on the trading of goods.

Article 16

The Commission shall report to the European Parliament and the Council in good time on the operation of the Intrastat system for each category of statistics relating to the trading of goods between Member States covered by the Intrastat system, with a view to possible adaptation of the system at the end of the transitional period referred to in Article 1.

▼M2

5. The Commission shall ensure publication of a list of the data required of providers of statistical information by the Member States, as well as the thresholds referred to in paragraph 3, in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

▼BArticle 24*

1. When, before reaching the Member State of arrival, goods have entered one or more countries in transit and have been subject in those countries to halts or legal operations not inherent in their transport, the Member State of consignment shall be taken to be the last Member State where such halts or legal operations occurred. In other cases, the Member State of consignment shall be the same as the Member State of dispatch.
2. 'Member State of destination' means the last country to which it is known, at the time of dispatch, that the goods are to be dispatched.
3. Notwithstanding Article 23 (1) (a), the party responsible for providing information in the Member State of arrival may, in the following order:

 - if he does not know the Member State of dispatch, state the Member State of purchase, within the meaning of paragraph 4.
4. 'The Member State of purchase' means the Member State of residence of the contracting partner of the natural or legal person who has concluded the contract, with the exception of transport contracts, giving rise to the delivery of goods in the Member State of arrival.

Article 25

2. Member States which do not compile statistics on trade between Member States from the data referred to in Article 23 (2) shall refrain from ordering the collection of such data.
3. The Community and the Member States shall compile statistics on trade between Member States, having regard to such provisions as the Commission may adopt pursuant to Article 30 on general and specific exemptions and the statistical thresholds.

obligations incumbent on parties responsible for providing information shall be suspended or reduced.

These thresholds shall apply without prejudice to the provisions of Article 15.

2. The statistical thresholds shall be known as exclusion, assimilation or simplification thresholds.

3. Exclusion thresholds shall apply to the parties required to provide information referred to in the second subparagraph of Article 5.

They shall apply in all Member States and shall be determined, by each of the said Member States, in accordance with national tax provisions adopted pursuant to Directive 77/388/EEC.

4. Assimilation thresholds shall exempt parties required to provide information from having to supply the declarations referred to in Article 13 (1); the periodic tax declaration which they make as parties liable to account for VAT, including parties within the meaning of Article 11 (7), shall be considered to be the statistical declaration.

Assimilation thresholds shall apply in all Member States and shall be set, by each of the said Member States, at higher levels than the exclusion thresholds.

5. Simplification thresholds shall exempt parties required to provide information from the full provisions of Article 23; these parties need only report in the declarations referred to in Article 13(1) a maximum of ten of the finest relevant subheadings of the combined nomenclature that are the most important in terms of value and shall regroup the other products in residual subheadings according to detailed arrangements to be determined by the Commission pursuant to Article 30. For each of the aforementioned subheadings, in addition to the code number referred to in the second indent of Article 21, the Member State of consignment or destination and the value of the goods need to be stated.

▼B

Without prejudice to the first subparagraph of paragraph 9, they shall be applied at the levels determined by paragraph 8 in Member States whose assimilation thresholds are lower than these levels.

In Member States whose assimilation thresholds are set at levels equal to or, pursuant to the first subparagraph of paragraph 9, higher than those determined by paragraph 8, simplification thresholds shall be optional.

6. Assimilation and simplification (SIC! simplification) thresholds shall be expressed in annual values of intra-Community trade operations.

They shall be determined by dispatch or arrival flows.

They shall apply separately to intra-Community operators at the dispatch stage and to intra-Community operators at the arrival stage. Without prejudice to paragraph 10, those Member States which elect to use the option set out in the first subparagraph of paragraph 9 may, however, determine the obligations of those responsible for providing the information at both the dispatch and the arrival stages in accordance with the flow for which the annual value of their intra-Community operations is highest.

The assimilation and simplification thresholds may vary from one Member State to another, by product group and by period.

7. With a view to the application of the assimilation and simplification thresholds by the Member States, the Commission shall determine, pursuant to Article 30, the quality requirements which must be met by the statistics compiled by the Member States under Article 25 (1).

8. The simplification thresholds shall be set at ECU 100 000 for dispatch and ECU 100 000 for arrival.

Pursuant to Article 30, the Commission may raise the simplification threshold levels, provided that the quality requirements referred to in paragraph 7 above are met.

▼B

9. Member States may, provided that the requirements set out in paragraph 7 are met, set their assimilation and simplification thresholds at levels higher than those in paragraph 8. They shall inform the Commission thereof.

Member States may, in order to comply with the requirements set out in paragraph 7, derogate to the extent necessary from the requirements of the second subparagraph of paragraph 5. They shall inform the Commission thereof.

The Commission may ask the Member States to justify the measures which they take by providing it with all appropriate information.

10. If Member States' application of the assimilation and simplification thresholds affects the quality of intra-Community trade statistics, bearing in mind the data supplied by the Member States, or increases the burden on parties required to provide information, such that the objectives of this Regulation are compromised, the Commission shall adopt, pursuant to Article 30, provisions which restore the conditions needed to ensure the required quality or to ease the burden.
