introducing certain detailed rules for applying Council Regulation
(EC) No 670/2003 laying down specific measures concerning
the market in ethyl alcohol of agricultural origin (repealed)

COMMISSION REGULATION (EC) No 2336/2003

of 30 December 2003

introducing certain detailed rules for applying Council Regulation
(EC) No 670/2003 laying down specific measures concerning
the market in ethyl alcohol of agricultural origin (repealed)

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EC) No 670/2003 of 8 April 2003 laying down specific measures concerning the market in ethyl alcohol of agricultural origin<sup>(1)</sup>, and in particular the second subparagraph of Article 3(1), the first subparagraph of Article 3(3), Article 4(4) and Article 11 thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) To allow the Commission to establish the Community alcohol balance provided for in Article 3(2) of Regulation (EC) No 670/2003 and to have an overview of the development of trade, the Member States should regularly send to the Commission, in a standard format, data on the quantities of alcohol produced, imported, exported and disposed of, and on the stocks held at the end of the marketing year and estimated production.
- (2) Ethyl alcohol of non-agricultural origin may, for certain uses, be used as a substitute for alcohol of agricultural origin. As a result the Community balance should also incorporate this type of product.
- (3) The Member States and the Commission should be able to monitor trade developments on a permanent basis to allow a better appraisal of market development. To that end, provision should be made for issuing import licences. Reports on the import licences issued should be submitted each week.
- (4) The period of validity of licences should be laid down taking account of the uses and delivery deadlines practised in international trade.
- (5) In accordance with Article 4(3) of Regulation (EC) No 670/2003, licences are to be issued subject to the lodging of a security which is forfeited in whole or in part if import is not carried out, or is only carried out partially. The amount of that security should therefore be laid down.
- (6) Save as otherwise provided in this Regulation, Commission Regulation (EC) No 1291/2000 of 9 June 2000 laying down common detailed rules for the application of the system of import and export licences and advance fixing certificates for agricultural products<sup>(2)</sup> and Commission Regulation (EEC) No 2220/85 of 22 July 1985 laying down common detailed rules for the application of the system of securities for agricultural products<sup>(3)</sup> should apply to the import licences and securities provided for in this Regulation.

- (7) Commission Regulation (EEC) No 2541/84 of 4 September 1984 fixing a countervailing charge on imports into the other Member States of ethyl alcohol of agricultural origin produced in France<sup>(4)</sup> has become obsolete and should therefore be repealed.
- (8) The measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Management Committee for Wine,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

CHAPTER I U.K.

SCOPE

Article 1 U.K.

Scope

This Regulation lays down detailed rules for implementing the Community ethyl alcohol balance and the system of import licences provided for in Regulation (EC) No 670/2003.

CHAPTER II U.K.

COMMUNITY BALANCE

Article 2 U.K.

Establishment of a Community balance

The Commission shall establish the Community ethyl alcohol balance covering the preceding calendar year by 31 March each year at the latest. The balance, containing information about the alcohol market at Community level, shall be presented to the Management Committee for Wine in accordance with the format set out in Annex I hereto and shall be published in the Official Journal of the European Union.

Article 3 U.K.

Information about ethyl alcohol of agricultural origin

The Member States shall forward to the Commission, at the latest by the last working day of the second month following the end of the relevant period, the following information about the alcohol of agricultural origin referred to in Article 1(1) of Regulation (EC) No 670/2003:

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Commission Regulation (EC) No 2336/2003 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

---

- (a) [<sup>F1</sup>quarterly imports from third countries broken down by Combined Nomenclature code and by origin, identified using the codes in the nomenclature of countries and territories for the external trade statistics of the Community laid down by Commission Regulation (EC) No 1779/2002<sup>(5)</sup>, subject to the third paragraph of Article 9 of this Regulation;
- (b) quarterly exports to third countries, including any exports of alcohol of non-agricultural origin, subject to the third paragraph of Article 9 of this Regulation;
- (c) quarterly production, broken down by the product from which the alcohol is produced;
- (d) the volume disposed of during the previous quarter, broken down by sectors of use;
- (e) stocks held by alcohol producers in their country at the end of each year;
- (f) estimated production for the year under way, twice a year, before 28 February and 31 August respectively.]

For the purposes of point (d) of the first subparagraph, disposal shall mean the transfer of the ethyl alcohol from an alcohol producer or an importer with a view to its processing or packaging.

The figures notified shall be expressed in hectolitres of pure alcohol.

The Member States may provide for declaration schemes to ensure the collection of the information referred to in points (c), (d), (e) and (f) of the first subparagraph.

Textual Amendments

Article 4 U.K.

Information about alcohol of non-agricultural origin

The Member States shall forward to the Commission at the latest by the last working day of the second month following the end of the relevant period, the following information about the alcohol of non-agricultural origin referred to in the second subparagraph of Article 3(3) of Regulation (EC) No 670/2003:

- (a) quarterly production, broken down by synthetic alcohol and other types of alcohol where applicable;
- (b) [<sup>F1</sup>quarterly imports from third countries;
- (c) quarterly exports to third countries;]
- (d) the volume disposed of during the previous quarter, broken down by synthetic alcohol and other types of alcohol where applicable;
- (e) stocks held by alcohol producers at the end of the year, broken down by synthetic alcohol and other types of alcohol where applicable.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Commission Regulation (EC) No 2336/2003 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

For the purposes of point (d) of the first subparagraph, ‘volume disposed of’ shall mean the quantities of alcohol sold on the Community market by the production industry.

Textual Amendments

- F1 Substituted by Commission Regulation (EU) No 74/2010 of 26 January 2010 amending Regulations (EC) No 2336/2003, (EC) No 341/2007, (EC) No 1580/2007 and (EC) No 376/2008 as regards the conditions for and the form of notifications to be made to the Commission.

CHAPTER III U.K.

IMPORT LICENCES

Article 5 U.K.

Issue of licences

[<sup>F21</sup> The products for which an import licence shall be presented are laid down in Article 1(2)(a) of Commission Regulation (EC) No 376/2008<sup>(6)</sup>. The period of validity of the import licence and the amount of the security to be lodged in accordance with Title III of Commission Regulation (EEC) No 2220/85<sup>(7)</sup> shall be as set out in Annex II, Part I, to Regulation (EC) No 376/2008.]

2 Regulation (EC) No 1291/2000 shall apply to the licences referred to in this Chapter.

3 [<sup>X1</sup>Applications for import licences and import licences for alcohol of agricultural origin] shall be marked in box 8 with the name of the country of origin. The box ‘compulsory: yes’ must be ticked. At the request of the applicant, the administration which issued the licence may replace the country of origin, once only, by another country.

4 The Member States may decided that the import price (CIF) of the alcohol must be indicated in box 20.
