

Commission Regulation (EC) No 2216/2004 of 21 December 2004 for a standardised and secured system of registries pursuant to Directive 2003/87/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council and Decision No 280/2004/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council (Text with EEA relevance) (repealed)

CHAPTER VI

SECURITY STANDARDS, AUTHENTICATION AND ACCESS RIGHTS

Article 67

Suspension of access to accounts

1 The Central Administrator and each registry administrator may only suspend an authorised representative's password to any accounts or processes to which he would otherwise have access if the authorised representative has, or that administrator has reasonable grounds to believe the authorised representative has:

- a attempted to access accounts or processes which he is not authorised to access;
- b repeatedly attempted to access an account or a process using a non-matching username and password; or
- c attempted, or is attempting, to undermine the security of the registry or the registries system.

2 Where access to an operator holding account has been suspended pursuant to paragraph 1 or pursuant to Article 69 between 28 April and 30 April in any year from 2006 onwards, the registry administrator shall, if so requested by the account holder and following submission of his authorised representative's identity by means of supporting evidence, surrender the number of allowances and use the number of CERs and ERUs specified by the account holder in accordance with the allowance surrender process set out in Article 52 and 53 and Annex IX.
