

Regulation (EC) No 1924/2006 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 December 2006 on nutrition and health claims made on foods

[^{X1}CHAPTER IV
HEALTH CLAIMS

[^{X1} Article 16

Opinion of the [^{F1}expert committee]

1 In giving its opinion, the [^{F2}expert committee] shall respect a time limit of five months from the date of receipt of a valid application. Whenever the [^{F2}expert committee] seeks supplementary information from the applicant as provided for in paragraph 2, such time limit shall be extended by up to two months following the date of receipt of the requested information submitted by the applicant.

2 [^{F3}The expert committee or the competent authority through the expert committee] may, where appropriate, request the applicant to supplement the particulars accompanying the application within a specified time limit.

3 In order to prepare its opinion, the [^{F4}expert committee] shall verify:

- a that the health claim is substantiated by scientific evidence;
- b that the wording of the health claim complies with the criteria laid down in this Regulation.

4 In the event of an opinion in favour of authorising the health claim, the opinion shall include the following particulars:

- a the name and address of the applicant;
- b the nutrient or other substance, or the food or the category of food, in respect of which a claim is to be made and its particular characteristics;
- c a proposal for the wording of the health claim, including, as the case may be, the specific conditions of use;
- d where applicable, conditions or restrictions of use of the food and/or an additional statement or warning that should accompany the health claim on the label and in advertising.

5 The [^{F5}expert committee] shall forward its opinion to the [^{F6}relevant authorities] and the applicant, including a report describing its assessment of the health claim and stating the reasons for its opinion and the information on which its opinion was based.

[^{F7}6 The expert committee shall make its opinion public. The applicant or members of the public may make comments to the competent authority which received the application within 30 days from publication of the opinion of the expert committee.]]
