

Regulation (EC) No 1069/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 October 2009 laying down health rules as regards animal by-products and derived products not intended for human consumption and repealing Regulation (EC) No 1774/2002 (Animal by-products Regulation)

TITLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER I

Common provisions

Section 4

Categorisation

Article 7

Categorisation of animal by-products and derived products

1 Animal by-products shall be categorised into specific categories which reflect the level of risk to public and animal health arising from those animal by-products, in accordance with the lists laid down in Articles 8, 9 and 10.

2 Derived products shall be subject to the rules for the specific category of animal by-products from which they have been derived, unless otherwise specified in this Regulation, or provided for in [^{F1}regulations made by the appropriate authority] which may specify the conditions under which derived products are not subject to those rules ^{F2}....

3 [^{F3}The appropriate authority may, by regulations, amend Articles 8, 9 and 10] in order to take into account scientific progress as regards the assessment of the level of risk, provided such progress can be identified on the basis of a risk assessment carried out by the appropriate scientific institution. However, no animal by-products listed in those Articles may be removed from those lists, only changes of categorisation or additions may be made.
