TITLE IV

CONTROL OF FISHERIES

CHAPTER I

Control of the use of fishing opportunities

Section 1

General provisions

Article 14

Completion and submission of the fishing logbook

[^{F1} Without prejudice to specific provisions contained in multiannual plans, the master of each [^{F2}United Kingdom] fishing vessel of 10 metres' length overall or more shall keep a fishing logbook of operations, indicating specifically, for each fishing trip, all quantities of each species caught and kept on board above 50 kg of live-weight equivalent. The 50 kg threshold shall apply as soon as catches of a species exceed 50 kg.]

2 The fishing logbook referred to in paragraph 1 shall contain in particular the following information:

- a the external identification number and the name of the fishing vessel;
- b the FAO alpha-3 code of each species and the relevant geographical area in which the catches were taken;
- c the date of catches;
- d the date of departure from and of arrival to port, and the duration of the fishing trip;
- e the type of gear, mesh size and dimension;
- [^{F1}f the estimated quantities of each species in kilograms live weight, or, where appropriate, the number of individuals, including the quantities or individuals below the applicable minimum conservation reference size, as a separate entry;]
- g the number of fishing operations.

3 The permitted margin of tolerance in estimates recorded in the fishing logbook of the quantities in kilograms of fish retained on board shall be 10 % for all species.

[^{F14} Masters of [^{F3}United Kingdom] fishing vessels shall record in their fishing logbook all estimated discards above 50 kg of live-weight equivalent in volume for any species not subject to the landing obligation.

Masters of [^{F3}United Kingdom] fishing vessels shall also record in their fishing logbook all estimated discards in volume for any species not subject to the landing obligation pursuant to Article 15 ^{F4}... of Regulation (EU) No 1380/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁽¹⁾.]

5 In fisheries subject to a ^{F5}... [^{F1}regime of fishing effort, masters of][^{F6}United Kingdom] fishing vessels shall record and account in their fishing logbooks for the time spent in an area as follows:

- a with regard to towed gear:
 - (i) entry into, and exit from the port located in that area;
 - (ii) each entry into, and exit from maritime areas where specific rules on access to waters and resources apply;
 - (iii) the catch retained on board by species in kilograms live weight at the time of exit from that area or before entry into a port located in that area;
- b with regard to static gear:
 - (i) entry into, and exit from the port located in that area;
 - (ii) each entry into, and exit from maritime areas where specific rules on access to waters and resources apply;
 - (iii) the date and time of setting or re-setting of the static gear in these areas;
 - (iv) the date and time of the completion of fishing operations using the static gear;
 - (v) the catch retained on board by species in kilograms live weight at the time of exit from that area or before entry into a port located in that area.

6 Masters of [^{F7}United Kingdom] fishing vessels shall submit the fishing logbook information as soon as possible and not later than 48 hours after landing:

- a to [^{F8}a fisheries administration]; and
- b [^{F9}if the landing has taken place in the port of a third country, to the competent authorities of the port country concerned].

7 To convert stored or processed fish weight into live fish weight, masters of [^{F10}United Kingdom] fishing vessels shall apply the conversion factor established in accordance with [^{F11}Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 404/2011].

8 Masters of third country fishing vessels operating in [^{F12}United Kingdom][^{F1}waters shall record the information referred to in this Article in the same way as masters of][^{F12}United Kingdom] fishing vessels.

9 The accuracy of the data recorded in the fishing logbook shall be the responsibility of the master.

[^{F13}10 A fisheries administration may make regulations specifying detailed rules for the application of this Article.]

Article 15

Electronic completion and transmission of fishing logbook data

1 Masters of [^{F14}United Kingdom] fishing vessels of 12 metres' length overall or more shall record by electronic means the information referred to in Article 14, and shall send it by electronic means to the competent authority of [^{F15}a fisheries administration] at least once a day.

2 Masters of [^{F16}United Kingdom] fishing vessels of 12 metres' length overall or more shall send the information referred to in Article 14 at the request of the competent authority of the [^{F17}a fisheries administration], and shall in any event transmit the relevant fishing logbook data after the last fishing operation has been completed and before entering port.

^{F18}3

4 [^{F19}A fisheries administration] may exempt masters of [^{F20}fishing vessels in its fleet] of less than 15 metres' length overall ^{F21}... from paragraph 1 if they:

- a operate exclusively within the territorial seas of the [^{F22}United Kingdom]; or
- b never spend more than 24 hours at sea from the time of departure to the return to port.

Completion and submission of the landing declaration

1 Without prejudice to specific provisions contained in multiannual plans, the master of a ^{F56}United Kingdom] fishing vessel of 10 metres' length overall or more, or his representative, shall complete a landing declaration, indicating specifically all quantities of each species landed.

2 The landing declaration referred to in paragraph 1 shall contain at least the following information:

- a the external identification number and the name of the fishing vessel;
- b the FAO alpha-3 code of each species and the relevant geographical area in which the catches were taken;
- ^{F1}c the quantities of each species in kilograms in product weight broken down by type of product presentation, or, where appropriate, the number of individuals, including the quantities or individuals below the applicable minimum conservation reference size, as a separate entry;]
- d the port of landing.

3 The master of a ^{F57}United Kingdom] fishing vessel or his representative shall submit the landing declaration, as soon as possible and not later than 48 hours after the completion of the landing:

- a to ^{F58}the competent authorities of a fisheries administration]; and
- ^{F59}b if the landing has taken place in a port of a third country to the competent authorities of that country.]

Section 2

Control of fishing effort

Article 26

Monitoring of fishing effort

[^{F77}1 A fisheries administration must control the compliance with fishing effort regimes in geographical areas where maximum allowable fishing effort applies.]

2 Without prejudice to special rules, where a fishing vessel carrying on board or, where appropriate, deploying a fishing gear or gears subject to a fishing effort regime or operating in a fishery subject to a fishing effort regime crosses during the same day two or more geographical areas subject to that fishing effort regime, the fishing effort deployed shall be counted against the maximum allowable fishing effort related to such fishing gear or such fishery and to the geographical area in which the largest proportion of time was spent during that day.

3 Where a [^{F78}fisheries administration] has authorised a fishing vessel in accordance with Article 27(2) to use more than one fishing gear or gears belonging to more than one grouping of fishing gears subject to a fishing effort regime during a certain fishing trip in a geographical area subject to that fishing effort regime, the fishing effort deployed during that trip shall be counted simultaneously against the maximum allowable fishing effort available ^{F79}... and related to each of such gears or groupings of fishing gears and to such geographical area.

4 Where fishing gears belong to the same grouping of fishing gears subject to the fishing effort regime, the fishing effort deployed in a geographical area by fishing vessels when carrying those gears on board shall be counted only once against the maximum allowable fishing effort related to such grouping of fishing gears and to such geographical area.

^{F80}5

6 A day present within an area shall be any continuous period of 24 hours or part thereof during which a fishing vessel is present within the geographical area and absent from port or where appropriate deploying its fishing gear. The time from which the continuous period of a day present in the area is measured is at the discretion of [^{F81}a fisheries administration]. A day absent from port shall be any continuous period of 24 hours or part thereof during which the fishing vessel is absent from port.

Article 27

Notification of fishing gear

1 Without prejudice to specific rules, in relevant geographical areas subject to a fishing effort regime where gear restrictions apply or where maximum allowable fishing effort were set for different fishing gears or groupings of fishing gears, the master of a fishing vessel or his representative shall notify to the competent authorities of [F82a fisheries administration] before a period to which maximum allowable fishing effort applies which fishing gear or, where applicable, fishing gears he intends to use during the forthcoming period. Until such notification is provided the fishing vessel shall not be entitled to fish within the geographical areas to which the fishing effort regime applies.

2 Where a fishing effort regime allows the use of gears belonging to more than one grouping of fishing gears in a geographical area, the use of more than one fishing gear during a fishing trip shall be subject to a prior authorisation by [F83a fisheries administration].

Exemptions

1 A fishing vessel carrying on board fishing gears subject to a fishing effort regime may transit across a geographical area subject to that fishing effort regime if it has no fishing authorisation to operate in that geographical area or it has first notified its competent authorities of its intention to transit. While the fishing vessel is within that geographical area, any fishing gear subject to that fishing effort regime and carried on board shall be lashed and stowed in accordance with conditions laid down in Article 47.

2 A [^{F90}fisheries administration] may choose not to count against any available maximum allowable fishing effort the activity of a fishing vessel undertaking non-fishing related activities in a geographical area subject to a fishing effort regime provided that the fishing vessel first notifies its [^{F91}fisheries administration] of its intention to do so, of the nature of its activity and that it surrenders its fishing authorisation for that time. Such fishing vessels shall not carry any fishing gear or fish during that time.

3 A [^{F92}fisheries administration] may choose not to count against any maximum allowable fishing effort the activity of a fishing vessel in a geographical area subject to a fishing effort regime which has been present in that geographical area but was unable to fish because it was assisting another fishing vessel in need of emergency aid or because it was transporting an injured person for emergency medical aid. ^{F93}...

Article 30

Exhaustion of fishing effort

1 Without prejudice to Articles 29 and 31, in a geographical area where fishing gears are subject to a fishing effort regime a [^{F94}United Kingdom] fishing vessel carrying on board such fishing gear or gears shall remain in port or out of that geographical area for the remainder of a period in which such fishing effort regime applies if:

- a it has exhausted the share of the maximum allowable fishing effort related to such geographical area and to such fishing gear or gears that has been assigned to it; or
- b the maximum allowable fishing effort related to such geographical area and to such fishing gear or gears available to [^{F95}United Kingdom fishing vessels] has been exhausted.

2 Without prejudice to Article 29, in a geographical area where a fishery is subject to a fishing effort regime, a [^{F96}United Kingdom] fishing vessel shall not operate in that fishery in that area if:

- a it has exhausted the share of the maximum allowable fishing effort related to that geographical area and to that fishery that has been assigned to it; or
- b the maximum allowable fishing effort related to that geographical area and to that fishery available to [^{F97}United Kingdom fishing vessels] has been exhausted.
