TYPES OF DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN AND GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATION TO WHICH ARTICLE 14A APPLIES

Textual Amendments

- F2 Annex 1A inserted (31.12.2020) by The Agricultural Products, Food and Drink \(Amendment etc.\) \(EU Exit\) Regulations 2020 \(S.I. 2020/1637\), regs. 1(7), 18(60), Sch. 2 Pt. 7 (as amended by S.I. 2020/1661, regs. 1(2)(b), 16(7)(d)(e))

PART 1

Interpretation

I

In the table in Part 3:

- a ‘an Article 52(4) notice’ means a notice published by the Secretary of State under Article 52(4);
- b ‘the European Commission's PDOs and PGIs Register’ means the register established and maintained by the European Commission pursuant to Article 11(1) of EU Regulation 1151/2012;
- c ‘the paragraph 1 trade mark application’ means the application to register a trade mark referred to in Article 14a(1);
- d ‘the relevant EUIA-based date’ means the date determined in accordance with Part 2;
- e ‘the relevant pre-IP completion day legislation’ means:
 - i in the case of an application to register a designation of origin or geographical indication submitted to the European Commission under Council Regulation \(EEC\) No 2081/92 on the protection of geographical indications and designations of origin for agricultural products and foodstuffs, Article 5 or 12a of that Regulation;
 - ii in the case of an application to register a designation of origin or geographical indication submitted to the European Commission under Council Regulation \(EC\) No 510/2006 on the protection of geographical indications and designations of origin for agricultural products and foodstuffs, Article 5 of that Regulation;
 - iii in the case of an application to register a designation of origin or geographical indication submitted to the European Commission under EU Regulation 1151/2012, Article 49(2) or (5) of that Regulation;
- f ‘the relevant trade mark application’ means the application to register a trade mark referred to in Article 14a(2) or (3)(a), as relevant.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made to Regulation (EU) No 1151/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council. Any changes that have already been made to the legislation appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

The relevant EUIA-based date

2

In the table in Part 3, in a case where the relevant EUIA-based date applies, the relevant EUIA-based date means:

- a the date provided for in paragraph 3, or
- b where paragraph 3 does not apply, the date provided for in the relevant point of paragraph 4, or paragraph 5, as relevant to the designation of origin or geographical indication.

3

In a case where the EUIA referred to in paragraph (b) in column 2 of the row of the Types Table relating to a designation of origin or geographical indication contained priority provisions that applied to the designation of origin or geographical indication, the relevant EUIA-based date is the priority date provided for in the EUIA that applied to that designation of origin or geographical indication.

In a case of a type 3A, 3B, 4A or 4B designation of origin or geographical indication to which paragraph 3 does not apply, the relevant EUIA-based date is:

- a in a case where the designation of origin or geographical indication was protected in the European Union immediately before IP completion day pursuant to an amendment made to the EUIA (without the need for further action to be taken under the EUIA), the date on which the amendment entered into force;
- b in a case where the designation of origin or geographical indication was protected in the European Union immediately before IP completion day pursuant to a provision in the EUIA that was provisionally applied before IP completion day (without the need for further action to be taken under the EUIA), the date on which the provision was provisionally applied;
- c in a case where the designation of origin or geographical indication was protected in the European Union immediately before IP completion day pursuant to an amendment made to the EUIA that was provisionally applied before IP completion day (without the need for further action to be taken under the EUIA), the date on which the amendment was provisionally applied;
- d in a case where the designation of origin or geographical indication was protected in the European Union immediately before IP completion day following the submission and processing of a request, or application, for protection or assessment (however described) under a provision in the EUIA providing for such requests, or applications, the date on which the request, or application, for protection or assessment was submitted under the EUIA;
- e in any other case, including a case where the designation of origin or geographical indication was protected in the European Union immediately before IP completion day pursuant to provisions in the EUIA that applied from the date that the EUIA entered into force (without the need for further action to be taken under the EUIA), the date on which the relevant EUIA entered into force.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made to Regulation (EU) No 1151/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council. Any changes that have already been made to the legislation appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

5

In a case of a type 5A or 5B designation of origin or geographical indication to which paragraph 3 does not apply and for which a request, or an application, for protection or assessment (however described) was submitted before IP completion day under the EUIA, the relevant EUIA-based date is the date on which the request, or application, for protection or assessment was submitted under the EUIA.

6

Any reference in this Part to:

- a ‘the priority date’ means the date provided for in priority provisions in an EUIA as the date that must be taken into account when determining whether an application for a trade mark may be granted, including:
 - i a calendar date specified in the EUIA;
 - ii a date relating to the happening of a specified event;
- b ‘priority provisions’ means provisions in an EUIA that governed the relationship between trade marks and designations of origin and geographical indications that provided (however expressed):
 - i that, in the circumstances specified in the EUIA, an application for a trade mark must be refused if the application for the trade mark was filed after a date provided for in the EUIA,
 - ii that, in the circumstances specified in the EUIA, the registration of a trade mark must be invalidated if the application that resulted in the registration of that trade mark was filed after a date provided for in the EUIA, or
 - iii for both the refusal of applications for trade marks, and the invalidation of the registration of trade marks, as provided for in points (i) and (ii);
- c ‘without the need for further action to be taken under the EUIA’, in relation to a designation of origin or geographical indication protected in the European Union immediately before IP completion day pursuant to an EUIA, means that the provisions in the EUIA providing for the designation of origin or geographical indication to be protected in the European Union did not require:
 - i a request or application (however described) to be submitted by the contracting third country under the EUIA in relation to the protection of the designation of origin or geographical indication;
 - ii an assessment to be carried out under the EUIA in relation to the designation of origin or geographical indication.
