

Regulation (EU) No 1143/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2014 on the prevention and management of the introduction and spread of invasive alien species

CHAPTER VI

FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 24

Reporting and review

1 By 1 June [^{F1}2019][^{F1}2025], and every six years thereafter, [^{F2}the responsible authorities] shall update and [^{F3}publish] the following:

- a a description, or an updated version thereof, of the surveillance system pursuant to Article 14 [^{F4}and of the official control system on alien species entering [^{F5}Great Britain] pursuant to Article 15];
- b the distribution of the invasive alien species [^{F6}of special concern] in accordance with Article 11(2) present in their territory, including information regarding migratory or reproductive patterns;
- ^{F7}c
- d the action plans referred to in Article 13(2);
- e aggregated information covering [^{F8}England and Wales] on the eradication measures taken in accordance with Article 17, the management measures undertaken in accordance with Article 19, their effectiveness, and their impact on non-targeted species;
- f the number of the permits referred to in Article 8 and the purpose for which they were issued;
- g measures taken to inform the public about the presence of an invasive alien species and any actions that citizens have been requested to take;
- h the inspections required under Article 8(8); and
- i information on the cost of action undertaken to comply with this Regulation, when available.

^{F9}2

3 By 1 June 2021, the [^{F10}responsible authorities, acting jointly, must] review the application of this Regulation including the [^{F11}list of species of special concern], the action plans referred to in Article 13(2), the surveillance system, customs controls, eradication obligation and management obligations, and [^{F12}publish a report]. That review shall also examine ^{F13}... the need for and the feasibility of, including species native to [^{F14}Great Britain] in the [^{F11}list of species of special concern]^{F15}....

[^{F16}4 The [^{F17}responsible authorities, acting jointly, may] specify the technical formats for reporting in order to simplify and streamline reporting obligations ^{F18}... in relation to the information pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article. ^{F19}...]

Article 31

Transitional provisions for non-commercial owners

1 By way of derogation from points (b) and (d) of Article 7(1), [^{F34}and, in relation to introduction into Great Britain from Northern Ireland, point (a) of Article 7(1),] owners of companion animals not kept for commercial purposes that belong to the invasive alien species included on the [^{F11}list of species of special concern] shall be allowed to keep them until the end of the animals' natural life, provided the following conditions are met:

- a the animals were kept before their inclusion on the [^{F11}list of species of special concern];
- b the animals are kept in contained holding and all appropriate measures are put in place to ensure that reproduction or escape are not possible.

2 [^{F35}The responsible authorities] shall take all reasonable steps to inform non-commercial owners of the risks posed by keeping the animals referred to in paragraph 1 and of the measures to be taken to minimise the risk of reproducing and escaping through awareness-raising and education programmes organised by [^{F36}the responsible authorities].

3 Non-commercial owners who cannot ensure that the conditions set out in paragraph 1 are met, shall not be permitted to keep the animals concerned. [^{F37}The responsible authorities] may offer them the possibility of having their animals taken from them. Where this occurs, due regard to animal welfare shall be given.

4 The animals referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article may be kept by the establishments referred to in Article 8 or in facilities established by [^{F38}the responsible authorities] for that purpose.

[^{F39}5 The references to “establishments” and “facilities” in paragraph 4 of this Article include establishments and facilities permitted or established (as the case may be) in Scotland by the Scottish Ministers for that purpose.]

Article 32

Transitional provisions for commercial stocks

1 Keepers of a commercial stock of specimens of invasive alien species acquired before their inclusion on the ^[F11]list of species of special concern] shall be allowed up to two years after inclusion of the species on that list to ^[F40]keep, transport and, in relation to qualifying Northern Ireland goods, introduce into Great Britain] live specimens or reproducible parts of those species in order to sell or transfer them to the research or ex-situ conservation establishments and for the purposes of medicinal activities referred to in Article 8, provided that the specimens are kept and transported in contained holding and all appropriate measures are put in place to ensure that reproduction or escape are not possible; or in order to slaughter or humanely cull those specimens to exhaust their stock.

^[F41]1A The reference in paragraph 1 to “research or ex-situ conservation establishments and for the purposes of medicinal activities referred to in Article 8” includes establishments or activities referred to in Article 8 for which a permit has been issued by the Scottish Ministers in relation to Scotland, or by the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs in relation to Northern Ireland.

1B So far as paragraph 1A relates to permits issued in relation to Northern Ireland, the reference in that sub-paragraph to Article 8 is to Article 8 of Regulation (EU) No 1143/2014 on the prevention and management of the introduction and spread of invasive alien species, as it has effect in Northern Ireland by virtue of section 7A of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.]

2 The sale or transfer of live specimens to non-commercial users ^[F42]and, in relation to live specimens that are qualifying Northern Ireland goods, introduction into Great Britain for any such purposes] shall be allowed for one year after inclusion of the species on the ^[F11]list of species of special concern] provided that the specimens are kept and transported in contained holding and all appropriate measures are put in place to ensure that reproduction or escape are not possible.

3 Where a permit has been issued in accordance with Article 6 of Regulation (EC) No 708/2007 for an aquaculture species that is subsequently included on the ^[F11]list of species of special concern], and the duration of the permit exceeds the period referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the ^[F43]appropriate authority] shall withdraw the permit in accordance with Article 12 of Regulation (EC) No 708/2007 by the end of the period referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.
