

Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 April 2014 on market abuse (market abuse regulation) and repealing Directive 2003/6/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council and Commission Directives 2003/124/EC, 2003/125/EC and 2004/72/EC (Text with EEA relevance)

CHAPTER 3

DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

Article 17

Public disclosure of inside information

1 An issuer shall inform the public as soon as possible of inside information which directly concerns that issuer.

The issuer shall ensure that the inside information is made public in a manner which enables fast access and complete, correct and timely assessment of the information by the public and, where applicable, in [^{F1}a mechanism referred to in section 89W of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000]. The issuer shall not combine the disclosure of inside information to the public with the marketing of its activities. The issuer shall post and maintain on its website for a period of at least five years, all inside information it is required to disclose publicly.

[^{F2}This Article shall apply to—

- a issuers who have requested or approved admission of their financial instruments to trading on a UK regulated market;
- b in the case of instruments only traded on a UK MTF or on a UK OTF, issuers who have approved trading of their financial instruments on a UK MTF or a UK OTF or have requested admission to trading of their financial instruments on a UK MTF; and
- c [^{F3}UK emission allowance market participants;]]

[^{F4}1A A UK emission allowance market participant is only required to disclose inside information concerning EU emission allowances if that participant enters into transactions, including the placing of orders to trade, directly or indirectly, in EU emission allowances, or in auctioned products based thereon, or derivatives based thereof.]

2 [^{F5}A UK emission allowance market participant shall publicly, effectively and in a timely manner disclose inside information concerning emission allowances which it holds in respect of its business, including—

- a aviation activities as specified in Annex I to Directive 2003/87/EC or in paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the Greenhouse Gas Emissions Trading Scheme Order 2020 (“the Order”), or
- b installations within the meaning of Article 3(e) of that Directive or paragraph 2 of Schedule 2 to the Order, which the participant concerned, or its parent undertaking or related undertaking, owns or controls, or for the operational matters for which the participant, or its parent undertaking or related undertaking, is responsible, in whole or in part.

Changes to legislation: Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council, CHAPTER 3 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 29 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

With regard to installations, such disclosure shall include information relevant to the capacity and utilisation of installations, including planned or unplanned unavailability of such installations.]

The first subparagraph shall not apply to a participant in the emission allowance market where [^{F6}the UK installations or UK aviation activities] that it owns, controls or is responsible for, in the preceding year have had emissions not exceeding a minimum threshold of carbon dioxide equivalent and, where they carry out combustion activities, have had a rated thermal input not exceeding a minimum threshold.

[^{F7}For the purposes of the second sub-paragraph—

- a during the period beginning on the date on which the Recognised Auction Platforms (Amendment and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 2021 come into force and ending with 30th April 2022 (“the initial period”), the “preceding year” means the year ending with 31st December 2020;
- b after the initial period, during any period beginning with 1st May and ending with 30th April, “the preceding year” means the year ending with the 31st December which falls before the 1st of May in the period in question.]

[^{F8}The Treasury may make regulations] establishing a minimum threshold of carbon dioxide equivalent and a minimum threshold of rated thermal input for the purposes of the application of the exemption provided for in the second subparagraph of this paragraph.

[^{F9}For the purposes of the second subparagraph, “minimum threshold” means—

- a the thresholds set out in regulations made by the Treasury under this paragraph, or
- b if the Treasury have not made such regulations, the thresholds set out in Article 5 of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2016/522 supplementing Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards an exemption for certain third countries public bodies and central banks, the indicators of market manipulation, the disclosure thresholds, the competent authority for notifications of delays, the permission for trading during closed periods and types of notifiable managers' transactions.]

^{F10}3

4 An [^{F11}issuer or a UK emission] allowance market participant, may, on its own responsibility, delay disclosure to the public of inside information provided that all of the following conditions are met:

- a immediate disclosure is likely to prejudice the legitimate interests of the [^{F12}issuer or UK emission] allowance market participant;
- b delay of disclosure is not likely to mislead the public;
- c the [^{F12}issuer or UK emission] allowance market participant is able to ensure the confidentiality of that information.

In the case of a protracted process that occurs in stages and that is intended to bring about, or that results in, a particular circumstance or a particular event, an [^{F11}issuer or a UK emission] allowance market participant may on its own responsibility delay the public disclosure of inside information relating to this process, subject to points (a), (b) and (c) of the first subparagraph.

[^{F13}Where an [^{F12}issuer or UK emission] allowance market participant has delayed the disclosure of inside information under this paragraph, it shall inform the FCA that disclosure of the information was delayed, immediately after the information is disclosed to the public. Upon the request of the FCA, the [F12:issuer or UK emission] allowance market participant shall provide a written explanation of how the conditions set out in this paragraph were met.]

5 In order to preserve the stability of the financial system, an issuer that is a credit institution or a financial institution, may, on its own responsibility, delay the public disclosure of inside information, including information which is related to a temporary liquidity problem and, in particular, the need to receive temporary liquidity assistance from a central bank or lender of last resort, provided that all of the following conditions are met:

- a the disclosure of the inside information entails a risk of undermining the financial stability of the issuer and of the financial system;
- b it is in the public interest to delay the disclosure;
- c the confidentiality of that information can be ensured; and
- d the [F14:FCA] has consented to the delay on the basis that the conditions in points (a), (b) and (c) are met.

6 For the purposes of points (a) to (d) of paragraph 5, an issuer shall notify the [F15:FCA] of its intention to delay the disclosure of the inside information and provide evidence that the conditions set out in points (a), (b) and (c) of paragraph 5 are met. The [F15:FCA] shall consult, as appropriate, [F16:the Bank of England], or, alternatively, the following authorities:

- a where the issuer is a credit institution or an investment firm [F17] which is a “PRA-authorised person” within the meaning of section 2B(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, the Prudential Regulation Authority];
- b in cases other than those referred to in point (a), any other [F18] authority in the United Kingdom] responsible for the supervision of the issuer.

The [F15:FCA] shall ensure that disclosure of the inside information is delayed only for a period as is necessary in the public interest. The [F15:FCA] shall evaluate at least on a weekly basis whether the conditions set out in points (a), (b) and (c) of paragraph 5 are still met.

If the [F15:FCA] does not consent to the delay of disclosure of the inside information, the issuer shall disclose the inside information immediately.

This paragraph shall apply to cases where the issuer does not decide to delay the disclosure of inside information in accordance with paragraph 4.

7 Where disclosure of inside information has been delayed in accordance with paragraph 4 or 5 and the confidentiality of that inside information is no longer ensured, the issuer or [F20:the UK emission allowance] market participant shall disclose that inside information to the public as soon as possible.

This paragraph includes situations where a rumour explicitly relates to inside information the disclosure of which has been delayed in accordance with paragraph 4 or 5, where that rumour is sufficiently accurate to indicate that the confidentiality of that information is no longer ensured.

8 Where an [F21:issuer or a UK emission] allowance market participant, or a person acting on their behalf or for their account, discloses any inside information to any third party in the normal course of the exercise of an employment, profession or duties as referred to in Article 10(1), they must make complete and effective public disclosure of that information, simultaneously in the case of an intentional disclosure, and promptly in the case of a non-intentional disclosure. This paragraph shall not apply if the person receiving the information

9 Inside information relating to issuers whose financial instruments are admitted to trading on an SME growth market, may be posted on the [^{F22}the UK trading venue's] website instead of on the website of the issuer where [^{F23}the UK trading venue] chooses to provide this facility for issuers on that market.

[^{F24}10 The FCA may make technical standards to determine:

- a the technical means for appropriate public disclosure of inside information as referred to in paragraphs 1, 2, 8 and 9; and
- b the technical means for delaying the public disclosure of inside information as referred to in paragraphs 4 and 5.]

Insider lists

- 1 Issuers [^{F26}, and any person] acting on their behalf or on their account, shall [^{F27} each]:
- draw up a list of all persons who have access to inside information and who are working for them under a contract of employment, or otherwise performing tasks through which they have access to inside information, such as advisers, accountants or credit rating agencies (insider list);
 - promptly update the insider list in accordance with paragraph 4; and
 - provide the insider list to the [^{F28}FCA] as soon as possible upon its request.
- 2 Issuers [^{F29}, and any person] acting on their behalf or on their account, shall [^{F30} each] take all reasonable steps to ensure that any person on [^{F31} their insider list] acknowledges in writing the legal and regulatory duties entailed and is aware of the sanctions applicable to insider dealing and unlawful disclosure of inside information.
- [^{F32} Where another person is requested by the issuer to draw up and update the issuer's insider list, the issuer shall remain fully responsible for complying with this Article. The issuer shall always retain a right of access to the insider list that the other person is drawing up.]
- 3 The insider list shall include at least:
- the identity of any person having access to inside information;
 - the reason for including that person in the insider list;
 - the date and time at which that person obtained access to inside information; and
 - the date on which the insider list was drawn up.
- 4 Issuers [^{F33}, and any person] acting on their behalf or on their account [^{F34}, shall each update their] insider list promptly, including the date of the update, in the following circumstances:
- where there is a change in the reason for including a person already on the insider list;
 - where there is a new person who has access to inside information and needs, therefore, to be added to the insider list; and

Such notifications shall be made promptly and no later than three [^{F50}working days] after the date of the transaction.

The first subparagraph applies once the total amount of transactions has reached the threshold set out in paragraph 8 or 9, as applicable, within a calendar year.

[^{F51}1a The notification obligation referred to in paragraph 1 shall not apply to transactions in financial instruments linked to shares or to debt instruments of the issuer referred to in that paragraph where at the time of the transaction any of the following conditions is met:

- a the financial instrument is a unit or share in a collective investment undertaking in which the exposure to the issuer's shares or debt instruments does not exceed 20 % of the assets held by the collective investment undertaking;
- b the financial instrument provides exposure to a portfolio of assets in which the exposure to the issuer's shares or debt instruments does not exceed 20 % of the portfolio's assets;
- c the financial instrument is a unit or share in a collective investment undertaking or provides exposure to a portfolio of assets and the person discharging managerial responsibilities or person closely associated with such a person does not know, and could not know, the investment composition or exposure of such collective investment undertaking or portfolio of assets in relation to the issuer's shares or debt instruments, and furthermore there is no reason for that person to believe that the issuer's shares or debt instruments exceed the thresholds in point (a) or (b).

If information regarding the investment composition of the collective investment undertaking or exposure to the portfolio of assets is available, then the person discharging managerial responsibility or person closely associated with such a person shall make all reasonable efforts to avail themselves of that information.]

[^{F52}2 For the purposes of paragraph 1, and without prejudice to notification obligations in the law of the United Kingdom other than those referred to in this Article, all transactions conducted on the own account of the persons referred to in paragraph 1 shall be notified by those persons to the FCA.

Notifications shall be made to the FCA within three working days of the transaction date.]

3 [^{F53}The issuer or emission allowance market participant must make public the information contained in a notification referred to in paragraph 1 within two working days of receipt of such a notification] in a manner which enables fast access to this information on a non-discriminatory basis in accordance with [^{F54}—

- i have requested or approved admission of their financial instruments to trading on a UK regulated market; or
 - ii in the case of an instrument only traded on a UK MTF or a UK OTF, have approved trading of their financial instruments on a UK MTF or a UK OTF or have requested admission to trading of their financial instruments on a UK MTF;
- b [F⁶⁰UK] emission allowance market participants ^{F⁶¹}....]

5 Issuers and [F⁶²UK] emission allowance market participants shall notify the person discharging managerial responsibilities of their obligations under this Article in writing. Issuers and [F⁶²UK] emission allowance market participants shall draw up a list of all persons discharging managerial responsibilities and persons closely associated with them.

Persons discharging managerial responsibilities shall notify the persons closely associated with them of their obligations under this Article in writing and shall keep a copy of this notification.

6 A notification of transactions referred to in paragraph 1 shall contain the following information:

- a the name of the person;
- b the reason for the notification;
- c the name of the relevant issuer or [F⁶³UK] emission allowance market participant;
- d a description and the identifier of the financial instrument;
- e the nature of the transaction(s) (e.g. acquisition or disposal), indicating whether it is linked to the exercise of share option programmes or to the specific examples set out in paragraph 7;
- f the date and place of the transaction(s); and
- g the price and volume of the transaction(s). In the case of a pledge whose terms provide for its value to change, this should be disclosed together with its value at the date of the pledge.

7 For the purposes of paragraph 1, transactions that must be notified shall also include:

- a the pledging or lending of financial instruments by or on behalf of a person discharging managerial responsibilities or a person closely associated with such a person, as referred to in paragraph 1;
- b transactions undertaken by persons professionally arranging or executing transactions or by another person on behalf of a person discharging managerial responsibilities or a person closely associated with such a person, as referred to in paragraph 1, including where discretion is exercised;
- c transactions made under a life insurance policy, [F⁶⁴referred to in Article 2(3)(a) of] Directive 2009/138/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council⁽¹⁾, where:
 - (i) the policyholder is a person discharging managerial responsibilities or a person closely associated with such a person, as referred to in paragraph 1,
 - (ii) the investment risk is borne by the policyholder, and
 - (iii) the policyholder has the power or discretion to make investment decisions regarding specific instruments in that life insurance policy or to execute transactions regarding specific instruments for that life insurance policy.

For the purposes of point (a), a pledge, or a similar security interest, of financial instruments in connection with the depositing of the financial instruments in a custody account does not need to be notified, unless and until such time that such pledge or other security interest is designated to secure a specific credit facility.

[^{F51}For the purposes of point (b), transactions executed in shares or debt instruments of an issuer or derivatives or other financial instruments linked thereto by managers of a collective investment undertaking in which the person discharging managerial responsibilities or a person closely associated with them has invested do not need to be notified where the manager of the collective investment undertaking operates with full discretion, which excludes the manager receiving any instructions or suggestions on portfolio composition directly or indirectly from investors in that collective investment undertaking.]

Insofar as a policyholder of an insurance contract is required to notify transactions according to this paragraph, an obligation to notify is not incumbent on the insurance company.

8 Paragraph 1 shall apply to any subsequent transaction once a total amount of EUR 5 000 has been reached within a calendar year. The threshold of EUR 5 000 shall be calculated by adding without netting all transactions referred to in paragraph 1.

[^{F659} The FCA may increase the threshold set out in paragraph 8 to EUR 20 000 and must inform the Treasury of its decision and the justification for its decision, with specific reference to market conditions, to adopt the higher threshold.

9A The FCA must publish the thresholds which apply in accordance with this Article and the justification for any decision taken under paragraph 9 on its website.]

[^{F6610} This Article also applies to persons discharging managerial responsibilities within any auction platform or auctioneer involved in the auctions held under the Greenhouse Gas Emissions Trading Scheme Auctioning Regulations 2021 and to persons closely associated with such persons in so far as their transactions involve emission allowances, derivatives thereof or auctioned products based thereon.

Those persons must notify their transactions to the auction platforms and auctioneer, as applicable, and to the FCA.

The information that is so notified must be made public by the auction platforms and auctioneer in accordance with paragraph 3.]

11 Without prejudice to Articles 14 and 15, a person discharging managerial responsibilities within an issuer shall not conduct any transactions on its own account or for the account of a third party, directly or indirectly, relating to the shares or debt instruments of the issuer or to derivatives or other financial instruments linked to them during a closed period of 30 calendar days before the announcement of an interim financial report or a year-end report which the issuer is obliged to make public according to:

- a the rules of the trading venue where the issuer's shares are admitted to trading; or
- b [^{F67}the law of the United Kingdom].

12 Without prejudice to Articles 14 and 15, an issuer may allow a person discharging managerial responsibilities within it to trade on its own account or for the account of a third party during a closed period as referred to in paragraph 11 either:

- a on a case-by-case basis due to the existence of exceptional circumstances, such as severe financial difficulty, which require the immediate sale of shares; or
