Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation) (Text with EEA relevance)

CHAPTER II

Principles

Article 9

Processing of special categories of personal data

- 1 Processing of personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation shall be prohibited.
- 2 Paragraph 1 shall not apply if one of the following applies:
 - a the data subject has given explicit consent to the processing of those personal data for one or more specified purposes, except where [FI domestic law provides] that the prohibition referred to in paragraph 1 may not be lifted by the data subject;
 - b processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller or of the data subject in the field of employment and social security and social protection law in so far as it is authorised by [F2 domestic law] or a collective agreement pursuant [F3 to domestic law] providing for appropriate safeguards for the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject;
 - c processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent:
 - d processing is carried out in the course of its legitimate activities with appropriate safeguards by a foundation, association or any other not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim and on condition that the processing relates solely to the members or to former members of the body or to persons who have regular contact with it in connection with its purposes and that the personal data are not disclosed outside that body without the consent of the data subjects;
 - e processing relates to personal data which are manifestly made public by the data subject;
 - f processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or whenever courts are acting in their judicial capacity;
 - g processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis of [F4domestic law] which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject;
 - h processing is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine, for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems and services on the basis of [F5 domestic law] or pursuant to contract with a health professional and subject to the conditions and safeguards referred to in paragraph 3;
