

Regulation (EU) 2019/1753 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2019 on the action of the Union following its accession to the Geneva Act of the Lisbon Agreement on Appellations of Origin and Geographical Indications (revoked)

Article 1	Subject matter
Article 2	International registration of geographical indications
Article 3	Cancellation of a geographical indication that originates in a Member State and is registered in the International Register
Article 4	Publication of third country geographical indications registered in the International Register
Article 5	Assessment of third country geographical indications registered in the International Register
Article 6	Opposition procedure for third country geographical indications registered in the International Register
Article 7	Decision on protection in the Union of third country geographical indications registered in the International Register
Article 8	Use of geographical indications
Article 9	Invalidation of effects in the Union of a third country geographical indication registered in the International Register
Article 10	Relationship with trade marks
Article 11	Transitional provisions for appellations of origin originating in Member States already registered under the Lisbon Agreement
Article 12	Transitional protection for appellations of origin originating in a third country registered under the Lisbon Agreement
Article 13	Fees
Article 14	Special financial contribution
Article 15	Committee procedure
Article 16	Monitoring and review
Article 17	Entry into force
	Signature

Statement by the Commission on the possible extension of EU geographical indication protection to non-agricultural products

The Commission takes note of the European Parliament resolution of...
The Commission launched a study in November 2018 to get...
In accordance with the principles of Better Regulation and to...

Statement by the Commission on the procedure set out in Article 11(3) of the Regulation

The Commission notes that whilst the procedure set out in...

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Regulation (EU) 2019/1753 of the European Parliament and of the Council.