ANNEXES

ANNEX I

VETERINARY AND PHYTOSANITARY MATTERS

List provided for in Article 17

INTRODUCTION

When the acts referred to in this Annex contain notions or refer to procedures which are specific to the Community legal order, such as

- preambles;
- the addressees of the Community acts;
- references to territories or languages of the EC;
- references to rights and obligations of EC Member States, their public entities, undertakings or individuals in relation to each other; and
- references to information and notification procedures;

Protocol 1 on horizontal adaptations shall apply, unless otherwise provided for in this Annex.

SECTORAL ADAPTATION

Switzerland and Liechtenstein shall with regard to acts referred to in this Annex be regarded as one entity.

I. VETERINARY ISSUES

(a) The provisions relating to third-country relations in the acts referred to in this Chapter are not applicable. However, the following general principles are applicable:

- The Contracting Parties shall not apply more favourable rules on imports from third countries than those resulting from the Agreement.

Nevertheless, regarding substances having a hormonal or thyrostatic action the EFTA States may maintain their national legislation on imports from third countries.

- In trade between EFTA States or between an EFTA State and the Community, animals and products coming from third countries, or partially or totally derived therefrom, must comply with the rules of the importing Contracting Party as concerns third countries.

The exporting Contracting Party shall ensure that the competent authority, in each case, takes the necessary measures to secure that the provisions of this paragraph are complied with.

(b) The Contracting Parties shall review the matter during 1995.

2. The provisions relating to border controls, animal welfare and financial arrangements in the acts referred to in this Chapter are not applicable. The Contracting Parties shall review the matter during 1995.

3. In order to enable the EFTA Surveillance Authority to take the necessary measures, the provisions of the acts referred to in this Chapter will be applied, for the purposes of this Agreement, as from nine months after the entry into force of the Agreement and at the latest from 1 January 1994.

4. The acts referred to in this Chapter, except Directives 91/67/EEC, 91/492/EEC and 91/493/EEC, do not apply to Iceland. The other Contracting Parties may maintain their third-country regime in trade with Iceland for areas not covered by the acts mentioned. The Contracting Parties shall review the matter during 1995.
5. Notwithstanding the integration into this Agreement of the Community legislation concerning BSE and awaiting the outcome of ongoing discussions aimed at arriving, as soon as possible, at an overall agreement related to the application by the EFTA States of this legislation, the EFTA States may apply their national rules. However, they undertake to apply transparent national rules based on objective criteria in a non-discriminatory and foreseeable manner. Such national rules shall be communicated to the Community in accordance with the rules laid down in Protocol 1 paragraph 4 by the entry into force of the Agreement. The Community reserves the right to apply similar rules in trade with the EFTA State concerned. The Contracting Parties shall review the situation during 1995.
6. Notwithstanding the integration into this Agreement of the Community legislation concerning new pig disease and awaiting the outcome of ongoing discussions aimed at arriving, as soon as possible, at an overall agreement related to the application by Norway of this legislation, Norway may apply its own protective rules, based on a definition of non-affected regions, for live pigs, fresh meat, meat products and porcine semen. The other Contracting Parties reserve the right to apply similar rules in trade with Norway. The Contracting Parties shall review the situation during 1995.
7. Notwithstanding the integration into this Agreement of Council Directive 91/68/EEC on animal health conditions governing intra-Community trade in ovine and caprine animals and awaiting the outcome of ongoing discussions aimed at arriving, as soon as possible, at an overall agreement related to the application by Austria, Finland and Norway of this legislation, these Contracting Parties may apply their national legislation. The other Contracting Parties may maintain their third-country regime towards these countries in this field. The Contracting Parties shall review the situation during 1995.
8. Notwithstanding the integration into this Agreement of Council Directive 91/67/EEC concerning the animal health conditions governing the placing on the market of aquaculture animals and products and awaiting the outcome of ongoing discussions aimed at arriving, as soon as possible, at an overall agreement related to the application by Finland, Iceland and Norway of this legislation, these Contracting Parties may apply their national legislation concerning live fish and crustaceans as well as eggs and gametes of fish and crustaceans for farming or restocking. The other Contracting Parties may maintain their third-country regime towards these Contracting Parties in the fields mentioned above. The Contracting Parties shall review the situation during 1995.
9. Safeguard clause
 - (1) (a) The Community and an EFTA State may, on serious public or animal health grounds, take interim protective measures according to their own procedures with regard to the introduction into their territory of animals or animal products.

These measures shall be notified without delay to each Contracting Party and to both the EC Commission and the EFTA Surveillance Authority.

- (b) Consultations regarding the situation shall be held within 10 days from the date of notification.

The EC Commission and/or the EFTA Surveillance Authority shall, within their competences, take the necessary measures taking due account of the results of such consultations.

- (2) The EC Commission and the EFTA Surveillance Authority may hold consultations regarding any aspect of the animal or public health situation. The provisions of subparagraph (1)(b) are applicable.
- (3)
 - (a) The EC Commission shall transmit to the EFTA Surveillance Authority any safeguard decision relating to intra-Community trade. If the EFTA Surveillance Authority considers the decision to be inadequate, the provisions of subparagraph (2) are applicable.
 - (b) The EFTA Surveillance Authority shall transmit to the EC Commission any safeguard decision relating to trade between EFTA States, If the Commission considers the decision to be inadequate, the provisions of subparagraph (2) are applicable.

10. On-the-spot inspections

- (1) For application of the provisions regarding spot-checks, inspections or disputes requiring the participation of experts referred to in this Chapter, the EFTA Surveillance Authority shall be responsible with regard to the EFTA States.
- (2) The following principles shall apply:
 - (a) Inspections shall be carried out in accordance with programmes equivalent to those of the Community.
 - (b) The EFTA Surveillance Authority shall have a structure, equivalent to that in the Community, for inspections in the EFTA States.
 - (c) The same criteria shall apply for inspections.
 - (d) The inspector shall be independent for the purposes of inspections.
 - (e) The inspectors shall have comparable levels of training and experience.
 - (f) Information concerning inspections shall be exchanged between the EC Commission and the EFTA Surveillance Authority.
 - (g) The follow-up of the inspections shall be coordinated between the EC Commission and the EFTA Surveillance Authority.
- (3) Necessary rules for implementation of the provisions regarding spot-checks, inspections or disputes requiring the participation of experts will be determined in close cooperation between the EC Commission and the EFTA Surveillance Authority.
- (4) The rules on spot-checks, inspections or disputes requiring the participation of experts referred to in this Chapter, are only valid in respect of the acts or the parts thereof applied by the EFTA States.

11. Designation of common reference laboratories

Without prejudice to financial implications, the Community reference laboratories shall act as reference laboratories for all Parties to this Agreement.

Consultations shall take place between the Contracting Parties in order to define the working conditions.

12. The Scientific Veterinary Committee

The EC Commission nominates from highly qualified scientific persons from EFTA States, in addition to the number laid down in Article 3 of Commission Decision 81/651/EEC,⁽⁴⁾ two persons for each section as referred to in Articles 2(1) and 3 of the Decision, who will participate fully in the work of the Scientific Veterinary Committee. They will not participate in the voting and their position will be recorded separately.

Ovine/caprine

2. 391 L 0068: Council Directive 91/68/EEC of 28 January 1991 on animal health conditions governing intra-Community trade in ovine and caprine animals (OJ No L 46, 19.2.1991, p. 19).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the present Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

(a) Article 2(3) shall be replaced by:

Holding shall mean an agricultural establishment or premises of a dealer, as defined by the national rules in force, situated in the territory of an EC Member State or EFTA State and in which bovine and porcine animals, sheep and goats, live poultry and domestic rabbits are held or regularly kept, and the holding as defined in Article 2(a) of Council Directive 90/426/EEC of 26 June 1990 on animal health conditions governing the movement and import from third countries of live equidae.⁽²⁾

(b) Article 2(9) shall be replaced by:

Approved market or assembly centre means any place, other than the holding, where ovine or caprine animals are sold, bought and/or assembled or loaded, and which complies with Article 3(7) of Council Directive 64/432/EEC and which has been approved.

(c) Article 4(1)(a) shall be replaced by:

must be identified and registered in such a way that the original or transit holding, centre or organization can be traced. For the identification, the EFTA States undertake to coordinate their system between them and the EC.

Before 1 September 1993, the EFTA States must take appropriate measures to guarantee that the identification and registration systems applicable to intra-EEA trade are extended to the movement of animals within their territory. National identification or registration systems must be notified to the EFTA Surveillance Authority before 1 July 1993.

(d) Article 4(2) first indent shall be replaced by:

- Ovine and caprine animals which might have to be slaughtered under a national programme for the eradication of diseases which are not referred to in the following list or in Chapter I of Annex B to this Directive:
- Foot-and-mouth disease (FMD)
- Classical swine fever (CSF)
- African swine fever (ASF)
- Swine vesicular disease (SVD)
- Newcastle disease (ND)
- Rinderpest
- Peste des petits ruminants (PPR)
- Vesicular stomatitis (VS)
- Blue tongue
- African horse sickness (AHS)
- Viral equine encephalomyelitis
- Teschen disease
- Avian influenza
- Sheep and goat pox
- Lumpy skin disease
- Rift valley fever
- Contagious bovine pleuropneumonia.

(e) Article 4(2) second indent shall be replaced by:

- ovine and caprine animals which cannot be marketed on their own territory for health or animal health reasons.

(f) Article 6(b)(i) first indent shall be replaced by:

- the holding is subject to regular official veterinary checks in accordance with the following requirements:

Without prejudice to the monitoring duties assigned to the official veterinarian under this Agreement, the competent authority shall carry out checks on holdings, approved markets and assembly centres, centres or organizations in order to satisfy itself that animals and products intended for trade comply with the requirements of this Directive and in particular fulfil the conditions laid down in Article 4 paragraph 1(a) concerning identification and registration, and must be accompanied to their destination(s) by health certificates as provided for in this Directive.

(g) In Article 8(2), the dates 1 January 1992 and 1 July 1992 referred to in the last sentence of the paragraph are, with regard to the EFTA States, replaced by 1 January 1993 and 1 July 1993 respectively.

(h) Article 10 shall not apply.

(i) In Annex A Chapter 2(D)(2), the first phrase shall be replaced by:

until 1 September 1993 ovine or caprine animals from holdings other than those referred to in point 1, provided that they meet the following conditions:

(j) Annex C shall be replaced by:

Brucellosis (B. melitensis) tests

For a holding to qualify for brucellosis-free status, testing for brucellosis (B. melitensis) is performed by means of the Rose Bengal method or by the complement-fixation method described in points 1 and 2 or by any other method recognized in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 15 of this Directive. The complement-fixation method is used for tests on individual animals.

1. Rose Bengal test

The Rose Bengal test may be used for screening ovine or caprine holdings in order to establish the status of holdings as officially brucellosis-free or brucellosis-free.

2. Complement-fixation test

(a) The complement-fixation test must be used for all individual animal tests.

(b) The complement-fixation test may be used for ovine or caprine holdings in order to establish the status of holdings as officially brucellosis-free or brucellosis-free.

When carrying out the Rose Bengal test, if more than 5% of the animals on a holding show a positive reaction, a further test is carried out on every animal on the holding by means of the complement-fixation method.

Serum containing 20 or more ICFT units/ml must be regarded as positive in the complement-fixation test.

The antigens used must be approved by the national laboratory and must be standardized against the second international standard anti-Brucella abortus serum.

(k) Annex E

Model I(III)(b) and (V)(e) third indent,

Model II(III)(b) and (V)(f) third indent and

Model III(III)(b) and (V)(i) third indent shall not apply.

ANNEX II

TECHNICAL REGULATIONS, STANDARDS, TESTING AND CERTIFICATION

List provided for in Article 23

INTRODUCTION

When the acts referred to in this Annex contain notions or refer to procedures which are specific to the Community legal order, such as:

- preambles;
- the addressees of the Community acts;
- references to territories or languages of the EC;
- references to rights and obligations of EC Member States, their public entities, undertakings or individuals in relation to each other; and
- references to information and notification procedures;

Protocol 1 on horizontal adaptations shall apply, unless otherwise provided for in this Annex.

SECTORAL ADAPTATIONS

References to Articles 30 and 36 or 30 to 36 of the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community shall be replaced with references to Articles 11 and 13 or 11 to 13 and, where applicable, 18 of the Agreement.

I. MOTOR VEHICLES

The EFTA States may, until 1 January 1995, apply their national legislation, including the possibility of refusing the registration, sale, entry into service or use, on grounds relating to their emissions of gaseous pollutants for all engines, particulates of diesel engines and noise, of motor vehicles falling within the scope of the Directives in question which respect the requirements of Directives 70/157/EEC, 70/220/EEC, 72/306/EEC and 88/77/EEC, as last amended, and which are type-approved according to the requirements of Directive 70/156/EEC. From 1 January 1995, the EFTA States may continue to apply their national legislation, but they shall allow free circulation according to the ‘Community acquis’. All proposals to amend, up-date, extend or otherwise develop the ‘Community acquis’ in relation to the matters covered by these Directives shall be subject to the general decision-making provisions of this Agreement.

The EFTA States shall not be entitled to grant EEC type-approval for whole vehicles, or separate directives certificates for systems, components or separate technical units according to the Directives within the scope of the first paragraph, until 1 January 1995.

XIX. GENERAL PROVISIONS IN THE FIELD OF TECHNICAL BARRIERS TO TRADE

ACTS REFERRED TO

1. 383 L 0189: Council Directive 83/189/EEC of 28 March 1983 laying down a procedure for the provisions of information in the field of technical standards and regulations (OJ No L 109, 26.4.1983, p. 8), as amended by:
 - 1 85 I: Act concerning the Conditions of Accession and the Adjustments to the Treaties - Accession to the European Communities of the Kingdom of Spain and the Portuguese Republic (OJ No L 302, 15.11.1985, p. 214),
 - 388 L 0182: Council Directive 88/182/EEC of 22 March 1988 (OJ No L 81, 26.3.1988, p. 75),

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the present Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

- (a) Article 1(7) is replaced by the following:
 7. “product”, any industrially manufactured product and any agricultural product, including fish products;
- (b) The following shall be added to the end of the first subparagraph of Article 8(1):

A full text of the draft technical regulation notified shall be made available in the original language as well as in a full translation into one of the official languages of the European Community.;
- (c) The following shall be added to the second subparagraph of Article 8(1):

The Community, on the one side, and the EFTA Surveillance Authority or the EFTA States through the EFTA Surveillance Authority, on the other side, may ask for further information on a draft technical regulation notified.;
- (d) The following shall be added to Article 8(2):

The comments of the EFTA States shall be forwarded by the EFTA Surveillance Authority to the EC Commission in the form of a single coordinated communication and the comments of the Community shall be forwarded by the Commission to the EFTA Surveillance Authority. The Contracting Parties shall, when a six-month standstill is invoked according to the rules of their respective internal systems, inform each other thereof in a similar manner.;

- (e) The first subparagraph of Article 8(4) shall be replaced by the following:

The information supplied under this Article shall be considered as confidential upon request.;

- (f) Article 9 shall be replaced by the following:

The competent authorities of the EC Member States and the EFTA States shall postpone the adoption of draft technical regulations notified for three months from the date of receipt of the text of the draft regulation

- by the EC Commission in case of drafts notified by Member States of the Community,
- by the EFTA Surveillance Authority for drafts notified by the EFTA States.

However, this standstill period of three months shall not apply in those cases where, for urgent reasons relating to the protection of public health or safety, the protection of health and life of animal or plants, the competent authorities are obliged to prepare technical regulations in a very short space of time in order to enact and introduce them immediately without any consultations being possible. The reasons which warrant the urgency of the measures taken shall be given. The justification for urgent measures shall be detailed and clearly explained with particular emphasis on the unpredictability and the seriousness of the danger confronting the concerned authorities as well as the absolute necessity for immediate action to remedy it.;

M. AUSTRIA

1. For the purpose of applying Chapter 1 of Title III of the Regulation, a person receiving a civil servant's pension shall be considered to be a pensioner.
2. For the purpose of applying Article 46(2) of the Regulation, increments for contributions for supplementary insurance and the miner's supplementary benefit under Austrian legislation shall be disregarded. In these cases the amount calculated according to Article 46(2) of the Regulation shall be increased by increments for contributions for supplementary insurance and the miner's supplementary benefit.
3. For the purpose of applying Article 46(2) of the Regulation, in applying Austrian legislation the day relevant for a pension (Stichtag) shall be considered as the date when the risk materializes.
4. The application of the provisions of the Regulation shall not have the effect of reducing any entitlement to benefits by virtue of Austrian legislation with regard to persons who have suffered in their social security situation for political or religious reasons or for reasons of their descent.

N. FINLAND

1. In order to determine whether the period between the occurrence of the pension contingency and the pensionable age (future period) should be taken into account when calculating the amount of the Finnish employment pension, the periods of insurance or residence under the legislation of another State to which this Regulation applies shall be taken into consideration for the condition relating to residence in Finland.
2. Where employment or self-employment in Finland has terminated and the contingency occurs during employment or self-employment in another State to which this Regulation applies and where the pension according to the Finnish employment pension legislation no longer includes the period between the contingency and the pensionable age (future period), periods of insurance under the legislation of another State to which this Regulation applies shall be taken into consideration for the requirement of the future period as if they were periods of insurance in Finland.

3. When, under the legislation of Finland, an increment is payable by an institution in Finland because of a delay in processing a claim for a benefit, a claim submitted to an institution of another State to which this Regulation applies shall, for the purpose of applying the provisions of the Finnish legislation relating to such increment, be considered to have been presented on the date when that claim, along with all necessary enclosures, reaches the competent institution in Finland.

O. ICELAND

Where employment or self-employment in Iceland has terminated and the contingency occurs during employment or self-employment in another State to which this Regulation applies and where the disability pension of both the social security and the supplementary pension schemes (pension funds) in Iceland no longer includes the period between the contingency and the pensionable age (future periods), periods of insurance under the legislation of another State to which this Regulation applies shall be taken into consideration for the requirement of the future periods as if they were periods of insurance in Iceland.

P. LIECHTENSTEIN

Any employed or self-employed person who is no longer subject to the Liechtenstein legislation on invalidity insurance shall, for the purpose of Chapter 3 of Title III of the Regulation, be considered as insured under this insurance for the granting of an ordinary invalidity pension if:

- (a) either for the date on which the insurance risk materializes according to the provisions of the Liechtenstein legislation on invalidity insurance:
 - (i) he benefits from rehabilitation measures provided under the invalidity insurance of Liechtenstein; or
 - (ii) he is insured under the legislation on old age, survivors' or invalidity insurance of another State to which this Regulation applies; or
 - (iii) he can establish a claim to pensions under the invalidity or old age insurance of another State to which this Regulation applies or if he receives such a pension; or
 - (iv) he is incapable for work under the legislation of another State to which this Regulation applies and can establish a claim to benefits from the sickness or accident insurance of that State or if he receives such a benefit; or
 - (v) he can establish a claim, due to unemployment, to cash benefits from the unemployment insurance of another

State to which this Regulation applies or if he receives such a benefit;

- (b) or if he worked in Liechtenstein as a frontier worker and, within the three years immediately before the risk materializes according to the Liechtenstein legislation, he paid contributions under this legislation for at least twelve months; or
- (c) if he has to give up his employment or self-employment in Liechtenstein following an accident or illness, for as long as he stays in Liechtenstein; he shall be required to contribute on the same basis as a person without a gainful activity.

Q. NORWAY

- 1. The transitional provisions of the Norwegian legislation entailing a reduction of the insurance period which is required for a full supplementary pension for persons born before 1937 shall be applicable to persons covered by the Regulation provided that they have been residents of Norway, or engaged in gainful occupation as employed or self-employed in Norway, for such a number of years as is required after their sixteenth birthday and before 1 January 1967. This requirement shall be one year for each year the person's year of birth falls before 1937.
- 2. A person insured under the National Insurance Act who provides care to insured care-needing old, disabled or sick persons shall, according to prescribed conditions, be credited pension points for such periods. Likewise, a person who takes care of small children shall be credited pension points when staying in another State to which this Regulation applies than Norway provided that the person concerned is on parental leave under Norwegian labour law.

R. SWEDEN

- 1. When applying Article 18(1) for the purpose of establishing a person's entitlement to parental benefits' periods of insurance completed under the legislation of another State to which this Regulation applies than Sweden shall be considered to be based on the same average earnings as the Swedish periods of insurance to which they are aggregated.
- 2. The provisions of the Regulation on the aggregation of insurance or residence periods shall not apply to the transitional rules of the Swedish legislation on the right to a more favourable calculation of basic pensions for persons residing in Sweden for a specified period preceding the date of the claim.
- 3. For the purpose of establishing the entitlement to an invalidity or survivor's pension partly based on future assumed insurance periods a person shall be considered to meet the insurance and income requirements of the Swedish legislation when covered as an employed or self-employed person by an insurance or residence scheme of another State to which this Regulation applies.

4. Years of care of small children shall, according to prescribed conditions of the Swedish legislation, be considered as insurance periods for supplementary pension purposes even when the child and the person concerned are residing in another State to which this Regulation applies, provided that the person taking care of the child is on parental leave under the provisions of the Law on Right to Leave for Child Rearing.

1. Where according to the provisions of the Regulation a person is entitled to apply for membership with a Swiss recognized sickness fund, the members of his family residing in the territory of another State to which this Regulation applies are also entitled to apply for membership with the same sickness fund.
2. For the purposes of Article 9(2) and Article 18(1) of the Regulation, insurance periods completed under the legislation of another State to which this Regulation applies shall be taken into account as if the person concerned was a “Züger - passant - passante” (passer) according to the Swiss legislation. The insurance or entitlement as a member of the family is assimilated to a personal insurance.
3. Any employed or self-employed person who is no longer subject to the Swiss legislation on invalidity insurance shall, for the purposes of Chapter 3 of Title III of the Regulation, be considered as insured under this insurance for the granting of an ordinary invalidity pension if:
 - (a) either for the date on which the insurance risk materializes according to the provisions of the Swiss legislation on invalidity insurance:
 - (i) he benefits from rehabilitation measures provided under the Swiss invalidity insurance; or
 - (ii) he is insured under the legislation on old age, survivors' or invalidity insurance of another State to which this Regulation applies; or
 - (iii) he can establish a claim to pensions under the invalidity or old age insurance of another State to which this Regulation applies or if he receives such a pension; or
 - (iv) he is incapable for work under the legislation of another State to which this Regulation applies and can establish a claim to benefits from the sickness or accident insurance of that State or if he receives such a benefit; or
 - (v) he can establish a claim, due to unemployment, to cash benefits from the unemployment

(c) Article 29 shall not apply; the following provision shall be applicable:

Each Contracting Party may, by means of agreements concluded with one or more third countries, agree to the application of provisions different from those provided for in Articles 23 to 28 of the Directive on the condition that its insured persons are given adequate and equivalent protection. The Contracting Parties shall inform and consult each other prior to concluding such agreements. The Contracting Parties shall not apply to branches of insurance undertakings having their head office outside the territory of the Contracting Parties provisions which result in more favourable treatment than that accorded to branches of insurance undertakings having their head office within the territory of the Contracting Parties;

(d) Articles 30, 31, 32 and 34 shall not apply; the following provision shall be applicable:

The non-life insurance undertakings to be identified separately by Finland, Iceland and Norway shall be exempt from Articles 16 and 17. The competent supervisory authority shall require such undertakings to meet the requirements of these Articles by 1 January 1995, Prior to that date the EEA Joint Committee shall examine the financial situation of the undertakings still not meeting the requirements and make appropriate recommendations. As long as an insurance undertaking fails to meet the requirements of Articles 16 and 17 it shall not establish a branch or provide services in the territory of another Contracting Party. Undertakings desiring to extend their operations within the meaning of Article 8(2) or Article 10 may not do so unless they comply immediately with the rules of the Directive;

- (e) as regards relations with third-country insurance undertakings described in Article 29b (see Article 4 of Council Directive 90/618/EEC) the following shall apply:
1. With a view to achieving a maximum degree of convergence in the application of a third-country regime for insurance undertakings, the Contracting Parties shall exchange information as described in Articles 29b(1) and 29b(5) and consultations shall be held regarding matters referred to in Articles 29b(2), 29b(3) and 29b(4), within the framework of the EEA Joint Committee and according to specific procedures to be agreed by the Contracting Parties.
 2. Authorizations granted by the competent authorities of a Contracting Party to insurance undertakings being direct or indirect subsidiaries of parent undertakings governed by the laws of a third country shall have validity in accordance with the provisions of the Directive throughout the territory of all Contracting Parties. However,
 - (a) when a third country imposes quantitative restrictions on the establishment of insurance undertakings of an EFTA State or imposes restrictions on such insurance undertakings that it does not impose on Community insurance undertakings, authorizations granted by competent authorities within the Community to insurance undertakings being direct or indirect subsidiaries of parent undertakings governed by the laws of that third country shall have validity only in the Community, except where an EFTA State decides otherwise for its own jurisdiction;
 - (b) where the Community has decided that decisions regarding authorizations of insurance undertakings being direct or indirect subsidiaries of parent undertakings governed by the laws of a third country shall be limited or suspended, any authorization granted by a competent authority of an EFTA State to such insurance undertakings shall have validity only in its jurisdiction, except where another Contracting Party decides otherwise for its own jurisdiction;
 - (c) the limitations or suspensions referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b) may not apply to insurance undertakings or their subsidiaries already authorized in the territory of a Contracting Party.
 3. Whenever the Community negotiates with a third country on the basis of Articles 29b(3) and 29b(4) in order to obtain national treatment and effective market access for its insurance undertakings, it shall endeavour to obtain equal treatment for the insurance undertakings of the EFTA States.

16. 389 L 0646: Second Council Directive 89/646/EEC of 15 December 1989 on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking-up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions and amending Directive 77/780/EEC (OJ No L 386, 30.12.1989, p. 1).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

- (a) as regards relations with third-country credit institutions described in Articles 8 and 9 of the Directive, the following shall apply:
1. With a view to achieving a maximum degree of convergence in the application of a third-country regime for credit institutions, the Contracting Parties shall exchange information as described in Articles 9(1) and 9(5) and consultations shall be held regarding matters referred to in Articles 9(2), 9(3) and 9(4), within the framework of the EEA Joint Committee and according to specific procedures to be agreed by the Contracting Parties.

2. Authorizations granted by the competent authorities of a Contracting Party to credit institutions being direct or indirect subsidiaries of parent undertakings governed by the laws of a third country, shall have validity in accordance with the provisions of this Directive throughout the territory of all Contracting Parties. However,
 - (a) when a third country imposes quantitative restrictions on the establishment of credit institutions of an EFTA State, or imposes restrictions on such credit institutions that it does not impose on Community credit institutions, authorizations granted by competent authorities within the Community to credit institutions being direct or indirect subsidiaries of parent undertakings governed by the laws of that third country shall have validity only in the Community, except where an EFTA State decides otherwise for its own jurisdiction;
 - (b) where the Community has decided that decisions regarding authorizations of credit institutions being direct or indirect subsidiaries of parent undertakings governed by the laws of a third country shall be limited or suspended, authorizations granted by a competent authority of an EFTA State to such credit institutions shall have validity only in its jurisdiction, except where another Contracting Party decides otherwise for its own jurisdiction;
 - (c) the limitations or suspensions referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b) may not apply to credit institutions or their subsidiaries already authorized in the territory of a Contracting Party,
3. Whenever the Community negotiates with a third country on the basis of Articles 9(3) and 9(4), in order to obtain national treatment and effective market access for its credit institutions, it shall endeavour to obtain equal treatment for the credit institutions of the EFTA States;
 - (b) in Article 10(2), the words ‘when the Directive is implemented’ shall be replaced by ‘when the EEA Agreement enters into force’, and the words ‘the date of the notification of this Directive’ shall be replaced by ‘the date of signature of the EEA Agreement’;
 - (c) Iceland shall implement the provisions of the Directive by 1 January 1995. During the transition period it shall recognize, in accordance with the provisions of the Directive, authorizations granted to credit institutions by the competent authorities of the other Contracting Parties. Authorizations granted to credit institutions by the competent Icelandic authorities shall not have EEA-wide validity before the full application of the Directive.
- (ii) Prudential requirements and regulations
17. 389 L 0299: Council Directive 89/299/EEC of 17 April 1989 on the own funds of credit institutions (OJ No L 124, 5.5.1989, p. 16).
18. 389 L 0647: Council Directive 89/647/EEC of 18 December 1989 on a solvency ratio for credit institutions (OJ No L 386, 30.12.1989, p. 14).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

- (a) loans fully and completely secured by shares in Finnish residential housing companies, operating in accordance with the Finnish Housing Company Act of 1991 or subsequent equivalent legislation, shall be given the same weighting as the one applied to mortgages on residential property in accordance with the rules set out in Article 6(1)(c)(l) of the Directive;
 - (b) Article 11(4) shall also apply to Austria and Iceland;
 - (c) Austria and Finland shall before 1 January 1993 establish a system for identification of those credit institutions that are unable to meet the requirement of Article 10(1) of the Directive. For each of those credit institutions, the competent authority shall take the appropriate measures to ensure that the 8% solvency ratio is met as quickly as possible and no later than 1 January 1995. Until the credit institutions in question reach the 8% solvency ratio, the competent authorities in Austria and Finland will, in relation to Article 19(3) of Council Directive 89/646/EEC, regard the financial situation of such credit institutions as inadequate.
19. 391 L 0031: Commission Directive 91/31/EEC of 19 December 1990 adapting the technical definition of ‘multilateral development banks’ in Council Directive 89/647/EEC of 18 December 1989 on a solvency ratio for credit institutions (OJ No L 17, 23.1.1991, p. 20).
- (iii) Supervision and accounts
20. 383 L 0350: Council Directive 83/350/EEC of 13 June 1983 on the supervision of credit institutions on a consolidated basis (OJ No L 193, 18.7.1983, p. 18).
21. 386 L 0635: Council Directive 86/635/EEC of 8 December 1986 on the annual accounts and consolidated accounts of banks and other financial institutions (OJ No L 372, 31.12.1986, p. 1).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptation:

Austria, Norway and Sweden shall implement the provisions of the Directive by 1 January 1995, and Liechtenstein and Switzerland by 1 January 1996. During the transition periods, there shall be mutual recognition of the annual accounts published by the credit institutions of the Contracting Parties relative to branches.

22. 389 L 0117: Council Directive 89/117/EEC of 13 February 1989 on the obligations of branches established in a Member State of credit institutions and financial institutions having their head offices outside that Member State regarding the publication of annual accounting documents (OJ No L 44, 16.2.1989, p. 40).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptation:

Article 3 shall not apply.

23. 391 L 0308: Council Directive 91/308/EEC of 10 June 1991 on prevention of the use of the financial system for the purpose of money laundering (OJ No L 166, 28.6.1991, p. 77).

Modalities for association of EFTA States in accordance with Article 101 of the Agreement:

an expert from each EFTA State may participate in the tasks of the Contact Committee on money laundering which are described in Article 13(l)(a) and 13(l)(b). With regard to the involvement of experts from the EFTA States in the tasks described in Article 13(l)(c) and 13(l)(d), the relevant provisions of the Agreement shall apply.

The EC Commission shall, in due time, inform the participants about the date of the meeting of the Committee and transmit the relevant documentation.

III. Stock-exchange and securities

(i) Stock-exchange listing and transactions

24. 379 L 0279: Council Directive 79/279/EEC of 5 March 1979 coordinating the conditions for admission of security to official stock-exchange listing (OJ No L 66, 16.3.1979, p. 21), as amended by:

— 388 L 0627: Council Directive 88/627/EEC of 12 December 1988 on the information to be published when a major holding in a listed company is acquired or disposed of (OJ No L 348, 17.12.1988, p. 62).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptation:

Iceland and Switzerland shall implement the provisions of the Directive by 1 January 1995. During the transition period, these countries shall provide for exchange of information with the competent authorities of the other Contracting Parties relative to the issues regulated by the Directive.

25. 380 L 0390: Council Directive 80/390/EEC of 17 March 1980 coordinating the requirements for the drawing-up, scrutiny and distribution of the listing particulars to be published for the admission of securities to official stock-exchange listing (OJ No L 100, 17.4.1980, p. 1), as amended by:

— 387 L 0345: Council Directive 87/345/EEC of 22 June 1987 (OJ No L 185, 4.7.1987, p. 81), — 390 L 0211: Council Directive 90/211/EEC of 23 April 1990 amending Directive 80/390/EEC in respect of mutual recognition of public-offer prospectuses as stock-exchange listing particulars (OJ No L 112, 3.5.1990, p. 24).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

(a) Article 25a of the Directive, introduced by Directive 87/345/EEC, shall not apply;

(b) Iceland and Switzerland shall implement the provisions of the Directive by 1 January 1995. During the transition period, these countries shall provide for exchange of information with the competent authorities of the other Contracting Parties relative to the issues regulated by the Directive.

26. 382 L 0121: Council Directive 82/121/EEC of 15 February 1982 on information to be published on a regular basis by companies the shares of which have been admitted to official stock-exchange listing (OJ No L 48, 20.2.1982, p. 26).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptation:

Iceland and Switzerland shall implement the provisions of the Directive by 1 January 1995. During the transition period, these countries shall provide for exchange of information with the competent authorities of the other Contracting Parties relative to the issues regulated by the Directive.

27. 388 L 0627: Council Directive 88/627/EEC of 12 December 1988 on the information to be published when a major holding in a listed company is acquired or disposed of (OJ No L 348, 17.12.1988, p. 62).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptation:

Iceland, Switzerland and Liechtenstein shall implement the provisions of the Directive by 1 January 1995. During the transition period, these countries shall provide for exchange of information with the competent authorities of the other Contracting Parties relative to the issues regulated by the Directive.

INTRODUCTION

When the act referred to in this Annex contains notions or refers to procedures which are specific to the Community legal order, such as

- preambles;
- the addressees of the Community acts;
- references to territories or languages of the EC;
- references to rights and obligations of EC Member States, their public entities, undertakings or individuals in relation to each other; and
- references to information and notification procedures;

Protocol 1 on horizontal adaptations shall apply, unless otherwise provided for in this Annex.

ACT REFERRED TO

1. 388 L 0361: Council Directive 88/361/EEC of 24 June 1988 for the implementation of Article 67 of the Treaty (OJ No L 178, 08.07.1988, p.5).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the present Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

- (a) the EFTA States shall notify the EEA Joint Committee of the measures referred to in Article 2 of the Directive, The Community shall notify the EEA Joint Committee of the measures taken by its Member States. Exchanges of information regarding such measures shall take place within the EEA Joint Committee;
- (b) for the application of measures as referred to in Article 3 of the Directive, the EFTA States shall follow the procedure as set out in Protocol 18. For cooperation between the Contracting Parties the joint procedures as set out in Article 45 of the Agreement shall apply;
- (c) any decisions the Community may take in accordance with Article 6(2) of the Directive, shall not be subject to the procedures of Chapter 2, Part VII of the Agreement. The Community shall inform the other Contracting Parties of such decisions. The restrictions for which an extension of the transition periods is granted may be upheld within the framework of this Agreement on the same terms as in the Community;
- (d) the EFTA States may continue to apply domestic legislation regulating foreign ownership and/or ownership by non-residents, existing on the date of entry into force of the EEA Agreement, subject to time limits and within the areas set out below:
 - up to 1 January 1995 for Iceland regarding short-term capital movement operations set out in Annex II to the Directive;
 - up to 1 January 1995 for Norway regarding acquisition of domestic securities and admission of domestic securities to a foreign capital market;
 - up to 1 January 1995 for Norway and Sweden, and up to 1 January 1996 for Finland, Iceland and Liechtenstein regarding direct investment on national territory;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally adopted).

- up to 1 January 1998 for Switzerland regarding direct investment in professional real-estate business on national territory;
 - up to 1 January 1995 for Norway, up to 1 January 1996 for Austria, Finland and Iceland and up to 1 January 1998 for Liechtenstein and Switzerland regarding investments in real estate on national territory;
 - for Austria regarding direct investments in the sector of inland waterways, until equal access to EC waterways is obtained.
- (e) during transition periods, EFTA States shall not treat new and existing investments by companies or nationals of EC Member States or other EFTA States less favourably than under the legislation existing at the date of signature of the Agreement, without prejudice to the right of EFTA States to introduce legislation which is in conformity with the Agreement and in particular provisions concerning the purchase of secondary residences which correspond in their effect to legislation that has been upheld within the Community in accordance with Article 6(4) of the Directive;
- (f) the reference in the introductory part of Annex I of the Directive to Article 68(3) of the EEC Treaty shall be deemed to be to Article 42(2) of the Agreement;
- (g) notwithstanding Article 40 of the Agreement and the provisions of this Annex, Iceland may continue to apply restrictions existing on the date of signature of the Agreement on foreign ownership and/or ownership by non-residents in the sectors of fisheries and fish processing.

These restrictions shall not prevent investments by non-nationals or nationals who do not have legal domicile in Iceland in companies which are only indirectly engaged in fisheries or fish processing. However, national authorities shall have the right to oblige companies which have, wholly or partly, been acquired by non-nationals or nationals who do not have legal domicile in Iceland to divest themselves of any investments in fish-processing activities or fishing vessels;

- (h) notwithstanding Article 40 of the Agreement and the provisions of this Annex, Norway may continue to apply restrictions existing on the date of signature of the Agreement, on ownership by non-nationals of fishing vessels.

These restrictions shall not prevent investments by non-nationals in land-based fish processing or in companies which are only indirectly engaged in fishing operations. National authorities shall have the right to oblige companies which have been wholly or partly acquired by non-nationals to divest themselves of any investments in fishing vessels.

 - 389 L 0338: Council Directive No 89/338/EEC of 27 April 1989 (OJ No L 142, 25.5.1989, p. 3),
 - 389 L 0460: Council Directive No 89/460/EEC of 18 July 1989 amending, with a view to fixing an expiry date for the derogations accorded to Ireland and the United Kingdom, Directive 85/3/EEC (OJ No L 226, 3.8.1989, p. 5),
 - 389 L 0461: Council Directive No 89/461/EEC of 18 July 1989 amending, with a view to fixing certain maximum authorized dimensions for articulated vehicles, Directive 85/3/EEC (OJ No L 226, 3.8.1989, p. 7),
 - 391 L 0060: Council Directive No 91/60/EEC of 4 February 1991 amending, with a view to fixing certain maximum authorized dimensions for road trains, Directive 85/3/EEC (OJ No L 37, 9.2.1991, p. 37),

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptation:

Austria may maintain its national legislation for maximum authorized weights of motor vehicles and trailers as set out in Annex I, sections 2.2.1 and 2.2.2 of this Directive. Therefore provisions authorizing the use of vehicles (individual or combined) which are not in conformity with such national legislation shall not be applicable in Austria. This situation will be jointly reviewed six months before the expiry of the agreement between the European Communities and the Republic of Austria on transit of goods by road and rail.

Switzerland may maintain its national legislation for maximum authorized weights of motor vehicles and trailers as set out in Annex I, sections 2.2 and 2.3.3 of this Directive. Therefore provisions authorizing the use of vehicles (individual or combined) which are not in conformity with such national legislation shall not be applicable in Switzerland. This situation will be jointly reviewed six months before the expiry of the agreement between the European Communities and the Swiss Confederation on the carriage of goods by road and rail.

All other provisions on weights and dimensions covered by this Directive shall be fully implemented by Austria and Switzerland.

15. 386 L 0364: Council Directive No 86/364/EEC of 24 July 1986 relating to proof of compliance of vehicles with Directive 85/3/EEC on the weights, dimensions and certain other technical characteristics of certain road vehicles (OJ No L 221, 7.8.1986, p. 48).
16. 377 L 0143: Council Directive No 77/143/EEC of 29 December 1976 on the approximation of the laws of the Member States relating to roadworthiness tests for motor vehicles and their trailers (OJ No L 47, 18.2.1977, p. 47), as amended by:
 - 388 L 0449: Council Directive No 88/449/EEC of 26 July 1988 (OJ No L 222, 12.8.1988, p. 10) as corrected in OJ No L 261, 21.9.1988, p. 28,
 - 391 L 0225: Council Directive No 91/225/EEC of 27 March 1991 (OJ No L 103, 23.4.1991, p. 3).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the present Agreement, be read with the following adaptation:

Until 1 January 1998, Switzerland may maintain a longer interval between two successive compulsory roadworthiness tests for all categories of vehicles listed in Annex I of the Directive.

17. 389 L 0459: Council Directive No 89/459/EEC of 18 July 1989 on the approximation of the laws of the Member States relating to the tread depth of tyres of certain categories of motor vehicles and their trailers (OJ No L 226, 3.8.1989, p. 4).

(ii) Taxation

- (l) Article 29(6) shall read as follows:
 - 6. In the context of the general institutional provisions of the EEA Agreement, annual reports shall be submitted on the progress made in multilateral or bilateral negotiations regarding access for Community and EFTA undertakings to the markets of third countries in the fields covered by this Directive, on any result which such negotiations may have achieved, and on the implementation in practice of all the agreements which have been concluded.

In the context of the general decision-making procedure of the EEA Agreement the provisions of this Article may be amended in the light of such developments.;

- (m) in order to enable the contracting entities in the EEA to apply Article 29(2) and (3), the Contracting Parties shall ensure that the suppliers established in their respective territories determine the origin of the products in their tenders for supply contracts in conformity with Regulation (EEC) No 802/68 of the Council of 17 June 1968 on the common definition of the concept of the origin of goods (OJ No L 148, 28.6.1968, p. 1);
- (n) in order to obtain maximum convergence Article 29 will be applied in the EEA context on the understanding that:
 - the operation of paragraph (3) is without prejudice to the existing degree of liberalization towards third countries,
 - the Contracting Parties consult closely in their negotiations with third countries. The application of this regime will be jointly reviewed during 1996;
- (o) in Article 30, the values of the thresholds in national currencies of the EFTA States shall be calculated so as to come into effect on 1 January 1993. They shall in principle be revised every two years with effect from 1 January 1995;
- (p) Annexes I to X are supplemented by Appendices 4 to 13 to this Annex, respectively.
- 5. 389 L 0665: Council Directive 89/665/EEC of 21 December 1989 on the coordination of the laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the application of review procedures to the award of public supply and public works contracts (OJ No L 395, 30.12.1989, p. 33).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the present Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

- (a) with regard to Liechtenstein, the measures necessary to comply with this Directive shall enter into force by 1 January 1995;
- with regard to Switzerland, the measures necessary to comply with this Directive shall enter into force by 1 January 1994;
- during these transition periods the application of the Directive will be reciprocally suspended between these States and the other Contracting Parties;
- (b) in Article 2(8), the reference to ‘Article 177 of the EEC Treaty’ shall be read as by a reference to the ‘criteria laid down by the Court of Justice in its interpretation of Article 177 of the EEC Treaty’.⁽¹⁹⁾
6. 371 R 1182: Regulation (EEC/Euratom) No 1182 of 3 June 1971 determining the rules applicable to periods, dates and time limits (OJ No L 124, 8.6.1971, p. 1).⁽²⁰⁾

The provisions of the Regulation shall, for the purposes of the present Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

- (a) with regard to Liechtenstein, the measures necessary to comply with this Regulation shall enter into force by 1 January 1995;
- with regard to Switzerland, the measures necessary to comply with this Regulation shall enter into force by 1 January 1994;
- during these transition periods the application of the Regulation will be reciprocally suspended between these States and the other Contracting Parties;
- (b) the words ‘Council and Commission acts’ shall mean acts referred to in this Annex.
- ACTS OF WHICH THE CONTRACTING PARTIES SHALL TAKE NOTE

In the application of the provisions of this Annex, the Contracting Parties shall take note of the contents of the following acts:

7. Guide to the Community rules on open public procurement (OJ No C 358, 21.12.1987, p. 1).
8. Commission communication (COM(89) 400 of 27.7.1989) on regional and social aspects (OJ No C 311, 12.12.1989, p. 7).

ANNEX XVII

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

List provided for in Article 65(2)

INTRODUCTION

When the acts referred to in this Annex contain notions or refer to procedures which are specific to the Community legal order, such as:

- preambles;
- the addressees of the Community acts;
- references to territories or languages of the EC;
- references to rights and obligations of EC Member States, their public entities, undertakings or individuals in relation to each other; and
- references to information and notification procedures;

Protocol 1 on horizontal adaptations shall apply, unless otherwise provided for in this Annex.

ACTS REFERRED TO:

1. 387 L 0054: Council Directive 87/54/EEC of 16 December 1986 on the legal protection of topographies of semiconductor products (OJ No L 24, 27.1.1987, p. 36).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

- (a) in Article I(1)(c), the reference to Article 223(1)(b) of the EEC Treaty shall be replaced by reference to Article 123 of the EEA Agreement;
- (b) Article 3(6) to 3(8) shall not apply;
- (c) Article 5(5) shall be replaced by the following:

The exclusive rights to authorize or prohibit the acts specified in paragraph I(b) shall not apply to any such act committed after the topography or the semiconductor product has been put on the market in a Contracting Party by the person entitled to authorize its marketing or with his consent.

2. 390 D 0510: First Council Decision 90/510/EEC of 9 October 1990 on the extension of the legal protection of topographies of semiconductor products to persons from certain countries and territories (OJ No L 285, 17.10.1990, p. 29).

The provisions of the Decision shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

- (a) in the Annex, the references to Austria and Sweden shall be deleted;
- (b) in addition, the following shall apply:

where a country or territory listed in the Annex does not give the same protection as provided for in that Decision to persons from a Contracting Party, the Contracting Parties will use their best endeavours to ensure that such protection is given by the said country or territory to the said Contracting Party at the latest one year after the date of entry into force of this Agreement,

- 3.

- (a) 390 D 0511: Second Council Decision 90/511/EEC of 9 October 1990 on the extension of the legal protection of topographies of semiconductor products to persons from certain countries and territories (OJ No L 285, 17.10.1990, p. 31),
- (b) 390 D 0541: Commission Decision 90/541/EEC of 26 October 1990 in accordance with Council Decision 90/511/EEC determining the countries to the companies or other legal persons of which legal protection of topographies of semiconductors is extended (OJ No L 307, 7.11.1990, p. 21).

In addition to these two Decisions, the following shall apply:

the EFTA States undertake to adopt for the purposes of this Agreement Council Decision 90/511/EEC and the decisions taken by the Commission in accordance with the said Council Decision, if their application is extended beyond 31 December 1992, Ensuing amendments or replacements are to be adopted before the entry into force of the Agreement.

- 4. 389 L 0104: First Council Directive 89/104/EEC of 21 December 1988 to approximate the laws of the Member States relating to trade marks (OJ No L 40, 11.2.1989, p. 1).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptations:

- (a) in Article 3(2), the term ‘trade mark law’ shall be understood to be the trade mark law applicable in a Contracting Party;
- (b) in Articles 4(2)(a)(i), (2)(b) and (3), 9 and 14, the provisions concerning the Community trade mark shall not apply to EFTA States unless the Community trade mark extends to them;
- (c) Article 7(1) shall be replaced by the following:

The trade mark shall not entitle the proprietor to prohibit its use in relation to goods which have been put on the market in a Contracting Party under that trade mark by the proprietor or with his consent.

- 5. 391 L 0250: Council Directive 91/250/EEC of 14 May 1991 on the legal protection of computer programs (OJ No L 122, 17.5.1991, p. 42).

The provisions of the Directive shall, for the purposes of the Agreement, be read with the following adaptation:

Article 4(c) shall be replaced by the following:

any form of distribution to the public, including the rental, of the original computer program or of copies thereof. The first sale in a Contracting Party of a copy of a program by the rightholder or with his consent shall exhaust the distribution right within the territories of the Contracting Parties of that copy, with the exception of the right to control further rental of the program or a copy thereof.
