“50T Representations

- (1) A pre-compensation warning must specify a period during which the registered social landlord may make representations to the Welsh Ministers.
- (2) The period must—
  - (a) be a period of at least 28 days, and
  - (b) begin with the date on which the registered social landlord receives the pre-compensation warning.
- (3) Representations may address—
  - (a) whether compensation should be awarded;
  - (b) the amount of any compensation that may be awarded.
- (4) After the end of the period specified under subsection (1) the Welsh Ministers must—
  - (a) consider any representations made, and
  - (b) decide whether to award compensation.”
