Schedules

Schedule 1

Section 4.

Marine plans: preparation and adoption

Department to notify relevant authorities of decision to prepare plan

1.—(1) Where the Department decides to prepare a marine plan for a marine plan area it must, before beginning to prepare the plan, give notice of its intention to do so to each of the relevant authorities..

(2) The “relevant authorities” are—

- (a) the Secretary of State;
- (b) the Scottish Ministers;
- (c) any district council whose district adjoins or is adjacent to the marine plan area;
- (d) the department of the Government of Ireland with responsibility for marine planning in any area adjoining or adjacent to the marine plan area.

Secretary of State to be kept informed of Department's intentions as to certain matters.

2.—(1) This paragraph applies in any case where the Department gives notice to the Secretary of State under paragraph 1(2)(a).

(2) The notice must state whether the Department proposes to include in the plan provision relating to retained functions.

(3) The notice must state whether the Department proposes so to prepare the marine plan that it will not be in conformity with any marine policy statement which governs marine planning for the marine plan area.

(4) The Department must keep the Secretary of State informed (by giving further notices) of any changes that may from time to time occur in its intentions with respect to any of the matters mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) or (3).

Status: Point in time view as at 18/09/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Act (Northern Ireland) 2013, Schedule 1. (See end of Document for details)

Marine plans to be compatible with certain other marine plans and development plans

3.—(1) In preparing or amending a marine plan for a marine plan area the Department must take all reasonable steps to secure that the plan is compatible with—

- (a) the marine plan for any marine plan area (whether or not within the Northern Ireland inshore region) which is related to that area;
- (b) the development plan under Article 4 of the Planning (Northern Ireland) Order 1991 for any area which is related to the marine plan area.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, one area is “related to” another if one or more of the following conditions is met—

- (a) the one area adjoins or is adjacent to the other;
- (b) the one area lies wholly or partly within the other;
- (c) the whole or any part of the one area affects or is affected by the whole or any part of the other.

(3) In sub-paragraph (1)(a) “marine plan” and “marine plan area” include a marine plan and a marine plan area within the meaning given by section 51 of the 2009 Act.

Consultation with other relevant Northern Ireland departments.

4 The Department must consult the other relevant Northern Ireland departments—

- (a) during the preparation of the consultation draft under paragraph 11, and
- (b) during the settling of the text of the plan for adoption and publication under paragraph 15.

Statement of public participation.

5.—(1) Before preparing a marine plan for any marine plan area, the Department must prepare and publish a statement of public participation (an “SPP”).

(2) An SPP is a statement of the policies settled by the Department for or in connection with the involvement of interested persons in the preparation of the proposed marine plan.

(3) An SPP must identify (by means of a map or otherwise) the area for which the marine plan is being prepared.

(4) If the Department proposes to include provision relating to retained functions, the SPP—

- (a) must state that that is the case, and

Status: Point in time view as at 18/09/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Act (Northern Ireland) 2013, Schedule 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) may be published only with the agreement of the Secretary of State.
- (5) An SPP must invite the making of representations in accordance with the SPP as to matters to be included in the proposed marine plan.
- (6) The Department must publish the SPP in a way calculated to bring it to the attention of interested persons.
- (7) The Department must take all reasonable steps to comply with the SPP.
- (8) In this paragraph “interested persons” means—
 - (a) any persons appearing to the Department to be likely to be interested in, or affected by, policies proposed to be included in the marine plan, and
 - (b) members of the general public.

Further provision about the content of an SPP.

- 6.—(1) An SPP must include a proposed timetable.
- (2) The proposed timetable must include such provision as the Department considers reasonable for each of the following—
 - (a) the preparation and publication of the consultation draft under paragraph 11 (including the carrying out of the sustainability appraisal under paragraph 10);
 - (b) the making of representations about the consultation draft;
 - (c) the consideration of representations under paragraph 12 and the settling of the text of the marine plan for adoption and publication under paragraph 15;
 - (d) the adoption and publication of the marine plan under that paragraph.
- (3) An SPP may include provision for or in connection with the holding of public meetings about the consultation draft.
- (4) An SPP must include provision about the making of—
 - (a) representations, in response to the invitation issued under paragraph 5(5), about the matters to be included in the proposed marine plan, and
 - (b) representations under paragraph 12 about the consultation draft.
- (5) The provision to be made under sub-paragraph (4) includes provision about—
 - (a) the manner in which representations may be made, and
 - (b) the time within which representations must be made.

Review and revision of the SPP

- 7.—(1) The Department must keep the SPP under review..

Status: Point in time view as at 18/09/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Act (Northern Ireland) 2013, Schedule 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If at any time the Department considers it necessary or expedient to revise the SPP, it must do so.
- (3) The Department must revise the SPP if—
 - (a) it proposes to include in the marine plan provision relating to retained functions, and
 - (b) the SPP does not already include a statement that that is the case.
- (4) Where the Department revises the SPP, it must publish the SPP as revised.
- (5) In any case where the SPP is required to be revised by virtue of sub-paragraph (3), the revised SPP may be published only with the agreement of the Secretary of State.
- (6) Any reference in this Schedule to an SPP includes a reference to an SPP as revised.

Advice and assistance.

- 8.—(1) In connection with the preparation of a marine plan, or of any proposals for a marine plan, the Department may seek advice or assistance from any body or person in relation to any matter in which that body or person has particular expertise.
- (2) The steps that the Department may take for the purpose of facilitating the involvement of interested persons in—
- (a) the development of proposals for inclusion in a proposed marine plan, or
 - (b) consultation in connection with such proposals,
- include the convening of groups of persons for such purposes, and in such manner, as the Department considers appropriate.
- (3) In this paragraph “interested persons” has the same meaning as in paragraph 5.

Matters to which the Department is to have regard in preparing a marine plan

- 9.—(1) The matters to which the Department is to have regard in preparing a marine plan include each of the matters in sub-paragraph (2).E+W+S+N.I.
- (2) Those matters are—
- (a) the requirement under section 4(5)(a) for a marine plan to be in conformity with any marine policy statement which governs marine planning for the marine plan area, unless relevant considerations indicate otherwise,
 - (b) the duties imposed by paragraph 3(1) with respect to securing compatibility with marine plans or development plans for areas which are related to the marine plan area,

Status: Point in time view as at 18/09/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Act (Northern Ireland) 2013, Schedule 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the effect which any proposal for inclusion in the plan is likely to have on any area which is related to the marine plan area,
- (d) the results of the review required by section 7,
- (e) the SPP,
- (f) any representations made in response to the invitation issued under paragraph 5(5),
- (g) any advice received under paragraph 8(1),
- (h) any plan (not falling within paragraph 3(1)) prepared by a public authority in connection with the management or use of the sea or the coast, or of marine or coastal resources, in the marine plan area or in any adjoining or adjacent area in Northern Ireland or the UK marine area (within the meaning given by section 42 of the 2009 Act),
- (i) the powers and duties of the Crown Estate Commissioners under the Crown Estate Act 1961, and such other matters as the Department considers relevant.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, one area is related to another if one or more of the following conditions is met—

- (a) the one area adjoins or is adjacent to the other;
- (b) the one area lies wholly or partly within the other;
- (c) the whole or any part of the one area affects or is affected by the whole or any part of the other.

Sustainability appraisal.

10.—(1) The Department must carry out an appraisal of the sustainability of its proposals for inclusion in any marine plan..

(2) The Department may proceed with those proposals only if it considers that the results of the appraisal indicate that it is appropriate to do so.

(3) The Department must publish a report of the results of the appraisal.

(4) The report is to be published when the Department publishes the consultation draft under paragraph 11.

Preparation and publication of a consultation draft.

11.—(1) The Department must publish a draft containing its proposals for inclusion in a marine plan (the “consultation draft”).

(2) If the draft includes provision relating to retained functions, it may be published only with the agreement of the Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 18/09/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Act (Northern Ireland) 2013, Schedule 1. (See end of Document for details)

(3) The Department must publish the consultation draft in such manner as it considers appropriate.

(4) The Department must also take such steps as it considers appropriate to secure that the proposals contained in the consultation draft are brought to the attention of interested persons.

(5) In this paragraph “interested persons” has the same meaning as in paragraph 5.

Representations about the consultation draft.

12.—(1) Any person may make representations about the consultation draft.

(2) Any such representations are to be made in accordance with the SPP.

(3) If any representations are made about the consultation draft, the Department must consider them in the course of settling the text of the marine plan for adoption and publication under paragraph 15.

Independent investigation

13.—(1) Where it has published a consultation draft in accordance with paragraph 11, the Department must consider appointing an independent person to investigate the proposals contained in that draft and to report on them..

(2) In deciding whether to appoint such a person, the Department must have regard to—

(a) any representations received about the matters to be included in the proposed marine plan, in response to the invitation issued pursuant to paragraph 5(5),

(b) any representations received about the proposals published in the consultation draft,

(c) the extent to which matters raised by representations falling within paragraph (b) have not been resolved,

and such other matters as the Department considers relevant.

(3) Any person so appointed must—

(a) report on the proposal within the period of 6 months from the date of that person's appointment, or such longer period as the Department may approve,

(b) make recommendations, and

(c) give reasons for the recommendations.

(4) The Department must publish the recommendations and the reasons given for them.

Status: Point in time view as at 18/09/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Act (Northern Ireland) 2013, Schedule 1. (See end of Document for details)

Matters to which Department is to have regard in settling text for adoption

14 In settling the text of a marine plan for adoption and publication under paragraph 15 the Department must have regard to—

- (a) any recommendations made by any person appointed under paragraph 13,
 - (b) the reasons given by any such person for any such recommendations,
- and any other matters that the Department considers relevant.

Adoption and publication of a marine plan.

15.—(1) A marine plan is “adopted” by the Department when the Department has decided to publish the plan (and “adopt” and related expressions are to be read accordingly).E+W+S+N.I.

(2) A marine plan which includes provisions relating to retained functions may be so adopted only with the agreement of the Secretary of State.

(3) The marine plan which the Department decides to publish may be—

- (a) the same as the proposals published in the consultation draft, or
- (b) those proposals with such modifications as the Department thinks fit.

(4) The Department must publish the marine plan as soon as reasonably practicable after its adoption, together with statements of each of the following—

- (a) any modifications that have been made to the proposals published in the consultation draft,
- (b) the reasons for those modifications,
- (c) if any recommendations made by any independent person appointed under paragraph 13 have not been implemented in the marine plan, the reasons why those recommendations have not been implemented.

Action taken by the Department before commencement

16.—(1) This paragraph applies to any action taken by the Department before commencement which, after commencement, could have been taken in accordance with a provision of paragraphs 1 to 10.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, it is immaterial that the action was taken before rather than after commencement; and any reference in this Schedule to an action taken under or for the purposes of any provision of paragraphs 1 to 10 is to be read accordingly.

(3) In this paragraph “commencement” means the coming into operation of this Act.
