Section 16: Records

Section 16 allows the Department for Social Development to make regulations requiring scheme managers of pension schemes made under section 1 (and any connected schemes) to keep specified records. This will include, for example, information about contributions due to the scheme. The regulations may also cover new public body schemes (and any connected schemes) by virtue of the application of section 16 to such schemes by section 31. Regulations under this section are subject to the negative resolution.
