International protection of adults

Part 4

Recognition and enforcement

Measures taken in relation to under 16s

- 24.—(1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) provision giving effect to, or otherwise deriving from, the Convention in a country other than Northern Ireland applies in relation to a person who is under 16; and
 - (b) a measure is taken in relation to that person in reliance on that provision.
- (2) This Part applies in relation to that measure as it applies in relation to a protective measure taken in relation to an adult under the law of a Convention country other than Northern Ireland.
