- (a) prohibits the person from doing anything described in the order, or
- (b) requires the person to do anything described in the order.

(2) The Chief Constable may apply to a court of summary jurisdiction for a stalking protection order against a person (“D”) if it appears to the Chief Constable that—

(3) The Chief Constable may apply for a stalking protection order only against a person—

- (a) who resides in Northern Ireland, or
- (b) who the Chief Constable believes is in, or is intending to come to, Northern Ireland.

(4) It does not matter—
