PART 6

Retirement benefits

CHAPTER 2

Full retirement benefits

Full retirement pension ceases to be payable

59.—(1) A full retirement pension ceases to be payable to a member who re-enters pensionable service under this scheme within 28 days after the last day of the service in relation to which the pension was payable.

(2) If paragraph (1) applies in relation to a member—

(a) the scheme manager must—

(i) cease to pay the pension; and

(ii) recover any payment of pension or lump sum made;

(b) close the full retirement account in accordance with regulation 49; and

(c) the active member's account must be re-established under Part 5 and treated as if it had never been closed.
