Registration as a credit union

Registration

3.—(1) Subject to [^{F20}Article 13] a society may be registered as a credit union under this Order if—

- (a) it is shown to the satisfaction of the [F21FCA] that the conditions specified in paragraph (2) are fulfilled;
 - (b) the rules of the society comply with Article 8(1); F22. . .
 - (c) the place which under those rules is to be the society's registered office is situated in Northern Ireland [F23,]
 - F24 the society has made an application for a permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act to accept deposits;
 - (e) the FCA is satisfied that, once registered under this Order, the society will satisfy, and continue to satisfy, the threshold conditions (within the meaning of section 55B(1) of the 2000 Act) for which the FCA is responsible in relation to the regulated activity of accepting deposits; and
 - (f) the PRA is satisfied that, once registered under this Order, the society will satisfy, and continue to satisfy, the threshold conditions (within the meaning of section 55B(1) of the 2000 Act) for which the PRA is responsible in relation to the regulated activity of accepting deposits.]
- F25, F26 [1A)
- (1B) The PRA must notify the [F27FCA] in writing if it is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (1) (f).]
 - (2) The conditions referred to in paragraph (1)(a) are—
 - (a) that the objects of the society are those, and only those, of a credit union; and
 - (b) that admission to membership of the society is restricted to persons each of whom has, in relation to all the other members, not less than one common bond.
 - (3) The objects of a credit union are—
 - (a) the promotion of thrift among its members by the accumulation of their savings;
 - (b) the creation of sources of credit for the benefit of its members at a fair and reasonable rate of interest;
 - (c) the use and control of members' savings for their mutual benefit; and
 - (d) the training and education of members in the wise use of money and in the management of their financial affairs.
 - [F28(3A) In paragraph (3) references to members do not include corporate members.]
 - (4) A common bond for the purpose of paragraph (2)(b) is—
 - (a) following a particular occupation;
 - (b) residing or being employed in a particular locality;
 - (c) being employed by a particular employer;
 - (d) being a member of a bona fide organisation or being otherwise associated with other members of the society for a purpose other than that of forming a society to be registered as a credit union;
 - (e) any other common bond approved by the [F29FCA] .
 - (5) In ascertaining whether a common bond exists between the members of a society, the [F30FCA] —
 - [F31(a) may, if [F32the FCA] considers it proper in the circumstances of the case, treat as sufficient evidence of the existence of a common bond a statutory declaration which is given by three members and the secretary of the society, and is to the effect that a common bond exists,]

Registration to effect incorporation of credit union with limited liability

5. A credit union shall by virtue of its registration be a body corporate known by its registered name, by which it may sue and be sued, with perpetual succession and a common seal and with limited liability; and that registration shall rest in the credit union all property for the time being vested in any person in trust for the credit union and all legal proceedings pending by or against the trustees of the credit union may be brought or continued by or against the credit union in its registered name.

Use of name “ credit union ”, etc.

6.—(1) A credit union shall not be registered under this Order under a name which in the opinion of the [F39FCA] is undesirable.

(2) The name of every credit union shall contain the words “credit union” and the word “Limited” shall be the last word in that name.

(3) Every credit union shall cause its registered name to be painted or affixed, and to be kept painted or affixed, in a conspicuous position and in letters easily legible, on the outside of its registered office and every other office or place in which the business of the credit union is carried on, and shall have that name engraved in legible characters on its seal and set out in legible characters—

- (a) in all notices, advertisements and other official publications of the credit union;
- (b) in all business letters of the credit union;
- (c) in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, endorsements, cheques, and orders for money or goods, purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the credit union;
- (d) in all bills, invoices, receipts, and letters of credit of the credit union.

(4) Any officer of a credit union, or any other person acting on a credit union's behalf, who—

- (a) uses any seal purporting to be a seal of the credit union which does not have the credit union's registered name engraved on it in legible characters; or
- (b) issues or authorises the issue of any document such as is mentioned in paragraph (3) (a) or (d) in which that name is not set out in legible characters; or
- (c) signs or authorises to be signed on behalf of the credit union any document such as is mentioned in paragraph (3)(c) in which that name is not so set out, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, in the case of a conviction by virtue of sub-paragraph (c), shall further be personally liable to the holder of any such document as is referred to in that sub-paragraph for the amount specified in the document unless that amount is duly paid by the credit union.

(5) Subject to paragraph (6), a person shall not, unless registered as a credit union,—

- (a) use, in reference to himself, a name, title or descriptive expression containing the words “credit union” or any cognate term or any derivative of those words; or

(b) represent himself as being a credit union;
and any person who contravenes this paragraph shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.

(6) Paragraph (5) does not apply to—

- (a) the use by an officer or employee of a credit union of a title or descriptive expression indicating his office or post with the credit union; or
- (b) the use with reference to an association or group of credit unions of a name which has been approved in writing by the [F40FCA] .

Rules

Rules

8.—(1) The rules of a credit union shall be in such form as the [F42FCA] may determine and shall contain—

- (a) provision with respect to the matters mentioned in Schedule 1;
- (b) such additional provisions as the registrar may determine.

[F43(1A) The rules of a credit union must not be inconsistent with the 2000 Act or any rules made or any requirements imposed by or under that Act.]

(2) An acknowledgement of the registration of a credit union issued under Article 4(2) shall also constitute an acknowledgement, and be conclusive evidence, of the registration under this Order of the rules of that credit union in force at the date of the credit union's registration.

Supplementary provisions as to rules

9.—(1) The rules of a credit union or any schedule to those rules may specify the form of any instrument necessary for carrying the purposes of the credit union into effect.

(2) The rules of a credit union may impose reasonable fines (not exceeding £100) on persons who contravene any of those rules.

(3) Where, within such reasonable time as may be specified in the rules, a person has failed to pay any fine imposed by the rules of a credit union under paragraph (2), the credit union may cancel the membership of that person of the credit union.

(4) Any provision of, or of any instrument made under, this Order or any other statutory provision requiring or authorising the rules of a credit union to deal with particular matters shall be without prejudice to the power of such a credit union to make rules with respect to any other matter which are not inconsistent with any such provision or with any other provision of this or any other statutory provision and which are not otherwise unlawful.

Amendment or registered rules

10.—(1) The rules of a credit union shall not be amended except by a resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of the members present at a general meeting called for the purpose after the giving of such notice as is by the rules required for such a resolution.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), any amendment of a credit union's rules as for the time being registered under this Order shall not be valid until the amendment has been so registered, for which purpose there shall be sent to the [F44FCA] 2 copies of the amendment signed by 3 members and the secretary of the credit union.

(3) Paragraph (2) shall not apply to a change in the situation of a credit union's registered office or in the name of a credit union; but—

- (a) notice of any change in the situation of a credit union's registered office shall, not later than 14 days from the date of that change, be sent to the [F45FCA] ; and
- (b) where such a notice is duly sent, or where a change in the name of a credit union is made in accordance with Article 7, the change in the situation of the credit union's registered office or, as the case may be, the change in the credit union's name shall be registered by the [F45FCA] as an amendment of the credit union's rules.

(4) Subject to paragraph (7), the [F46FCA] , on being satisfied that any amendment of a credit union's rules is not contrary to the provisions of this Order, shall issue to the credit union in respect of that amendment an acknowledgement of registration [F47, bearing the FCA's seal,] which shall be conclusive evidence that it is duly registered.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in the rules of any credit union, the board of directors of a credit union may by resolution passed during the appropriate period make such amendments of the rules of the credit union as may be consequential on the provisions of this Order.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (5) the appropriate period, in relation to any credit union, shall be whichever is the longer of the following two periods, that is to say—

- (a) a period of 1 year beginning with the date of the coming into operation of this Article, and
- (b) a period beginning with the date of the coming into operation of this Article and ending with the date on which an amendment of the rules of that credit union is first registered after that date under paragraph (4).

(7) Notwithstanding anything in paragraph (4), after the end of 1 year beginning with the date of the coming into operation of this Article, the [F48FCA] shall not be required to register any amendment of a credit union's rules unless such consequential amendments of the rules of that credit union as are mentioned in paragraph (5) either have been made before the application for registration of that amendment or are to be effected by that amendment.

Rules to bind members

11.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) the registered rules of a credit union shall bind the credit union and all members of it and all persons claiming through them respectively to the same extent as if each member had subscribed his name and affixed his seal to those rules and there were contained in those rules a covenant on the part of each member and any person claiming through him to conform to those rules subject to the provisions of this Order.

(2) A member of a credit union shall not, without his consent in writing having been first obtained, be bound by any amendment of the credit union's rules registered after he became a member if and so far as that amendment requires him to take or subscribe for more shares than the number held by him at the date of registration of the amendment, or to pay upon the shares so held any sum exceeding the amount unpaid upon them at that date, or in any other way increases the liability of that member to contribute to the share or loan capital of the credit union.

Provision of copies of rules

12.—[F49(1) A credit union must, on demand, give a copy of its registered rules—

Loans by credit unions

28.—^{F80}(1) A credit union may make to a member a loan, upon such security (or without security) and terms as the rules of the credit union may provide.]

^{F81}(1A) But a credit union may make a loan to a corporate member only if—

- (a) the credit union's rules provide that it may make loans to corporate members, and
- (b) the making of the loan would not result in the total amount of the outstanding balances on loans made to corporate members exceeding 10% of the total amount of the outstanding balances on all loans made by the credit union to members.

Contracts

30.—(1) Contracts may be made, varied or discharged on behalf of a credit union as follows:—

- (a) a contract which, if made between individuals, would be by law required to be in writing under seal may be made, on behalf of the credit union in writing under the common seal of the credit union;
- (b) a contract which, if made between individuals, would be by law required to be in writing, signed by the parties to be charged with the contract, may be made on behalf of the credit union in writing by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the credit union;
- (c) a contract which, if made between individuals, would by law be valid although made by parol only, and not reduced into writing, may be made by parol on behalf of the credit union by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the credit union;
- (d) a contract made according to this paragraph may be varied or discharged in the same manner in which it is authorised by this Article to be made and a contract under seal which, if made between individuals, might be varied or discharged in writing not under seal, signed by any person interested in the contract, may be similarly varied or discharged in writing not under seal on behalf of the credit union, signed by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the credit union.

(2) A signature purporting to be made by a person holding any office in a credit union attached to a writing by which any contract purports to be made, varied or discharged by or on behalf of the credit union shall, until the contrary is proved, be taken to be the signature of a person holding that office at the time when the signature was made.

(3) A contract which may be or have been made, varied or discharged according to the provisions of this Article shall be effectual in law and bind the credit union and its successors and all other parties to the contract.

Charges on assets of credit unions

31.—(1) An instrument which is executed by a credit union and which creates or is evidence of a fixed or floating charge on assets of the credit union shall not be a bill of sale for the purposes of the Bills of Sale (Ireland) Acts 1879 and 1883 or be invalidated by those Acts if the charge is recorded in accordance with paragraph (2).

(2) An application for the recording of a charge under paragraph (1) shall be made by delivering by post or otherwise to the [F90FCA] , within the period of 14 days beginning with the date of execution of the instrument which creates or is evidence of the charge of within any extended period allowed under paragraph (5),—

(a) a copy of the instrument authenticated in [F91such manner as may be directed by the FCA] and such additional particulars relating to the charge [F92authenticated in such manner as may be directed by the FCA] ; and

[F93(b) any fee required by rules made in accordance with paragraph 23 of Schedule 1ZA to the 2000 Act.]

[F94(3) If an application is made in accordance with subsection (2), the FCA must—

(a) give the person who makes the application an acknowledgment of the application, bearing the FCA's seal;

(b) place the copy of the instrument included in the application, a note of any particulars included in it, and a copy of the acknowledgement on a file kept by the FCA in respect of the society; and

(c) make the file available for inspection during office hours by members of the public on payment of any fee required by rules made in accordance with paragraph 23 of Schedule 1ZA to the 2000 Act.]

[F95(4) The FCA may, under Article 80, make provision for—

(a) the giving to the FCA of notice of any release, discharge or other transaction relating to a charge in respect of which an application under this Article has been made;

(b) the inclusion in the file mentioned in this Article of any such notice appearing to the FCA to relate to the charge.]

(5) If in the case of an instrument such as is mentioned in paragraph (1) it appears to the High Court, on the application of the credit union which executed the instrument or of any other person claiming the benefit of the instrument, that by reason of inadvertence or other sufficient cause—

(a) an application for the recording of the charge to which the instrument relates was not made within the period of 14 days mentioned in paragraph (2); or

(b) any matters were omitted from or were mis-stated in such an application, the Court may, on such terms as it thinks fit, order that the period for making such an application shall be extended or, as the case may be, that the omission or mis-statement shall be rectified.

Accounts, etc.

Books of account, etc.

- 40.—(1) Every credit union shall—
- (a) cause to be kept proper books of account with respect to its transactions and its assets and liabilities, and
 - (b) establish and maintain a satisfactory system of control of its accounts, its cash holdings and all its receipts and remittances.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1), proper books of account shall not be taken to be kept with respect to the matters mentioned in that sub-paragraph if there are not kept such accounts as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the credit union and to explain its transactions.

Form in which books of account may be kept

41.—(1) Any books of account to be kept by a credit union may be kept either by making entries in bound books or by recording the matters in question in any other manner.

(2) Where any such book is not kept by making entries in a bound book but by some other means, the credit union shall take adequate precautions for guarding against falsification and facilitating its discovery.

Accounts and balance sheets

42.—(1) Every revenue account of a credit union shall give a true and fair view of the income and expenditure of the credit union for the period to which the account relates ^{F110}

(2) Every credit union shall, in respect of each year of account, cause to be prepared a revenue account which deals with the affairs of the credit union for that year.

(3) Every balance sheet of a credit union shall give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the credit union as at the date of the balance sheet ^{F111}

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), a credit union shall not publish any revenue account or balance sheet unless—

- (a) it has been previously audited by the auditor or auditors last appointed to audit the accounts and balance sheet of the credit union,
- (b) it incorporates a report by the auditor or auditors stating whether in their opinion it complies with the provision of paragraph (1) or paragraph (3) which is applicable in that case, and
- (c) it has been signed by the secretary of the credit union and by 2 members of the board of directors acting on behalf of that board.

(5) A credit union may display at its registered office, but only at that office, an interim revenue account or balance sheet which has not been audited, provided that—

Obligation to appoint auditors

43. Every credit union shall in each year of account appoint a qualified auditor or qualified auditors to audit its accounts and balance sheet for that year.

Re-appointment and removal of qualified auditors

44.—(1) A qualified auditor appointed to audit the accounts and balance sheet of a credit union for the preceding year of account shall be re-appointed as auditor of the credit union for the current year of account unless—

- (a) a resolution has been passed at a general meeting of the credit union appointing somebody instead of him or providing expressly that he shall not be re-appointed, or
- (b) he has given to the credit union notice in writing of his unwillingness to be re-appointed, or
- (c) he is ineligible for appointment as auditor of the credit union for the current year of account, or
- (d) he has ceased to act as auditor of the credit union by reason of incapacity;

but, where notice is given of an intended resolution to appoint some person or persons in place of a retiring auditor and the resolution cannot be proceeded with at the meeting because of the death or incapacity of that person or those persons, or because he is or they are ineligible for appointment as auditor or auditors of the credit union for the current year of account (as the case may be), the retiring auditor shall not be automatically re-appointed by virtue of this paragraph.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a person is ineligible for appointment as auditor of a credit union for the current year of account if, but only if—

- (a) his appointment in relation to the credit union is prohibited by Article 46, or
- (b) he is not a qualified auditor at the time when the question of his appointment falls to be considered.

Resolutions relating to appointment and removal of auditors

45.—(1) A resolution at a general meeting of a credit union—

- (a) appointing another person as auditor in place of a retiring qualified auditor, or
- (b) providing expressly that a retiring qualified auditor shall not be re-appointed, shall not be effective unless notice of the intention to move it has been given to the credit union not less than 28 days before the meeting at which it is moved.

(2) Where notice of the intention to move any such resolution has been given under paragraph (1) to a credit union which is required by its rules to give notice to its members of the meeting at which the resolution is to be moved, the credit union shall if it is practicable to do so give them notice of the resolution at the same time and in the same manner as it gives notice of the meeting.

(3) Where notice of the intention to move any such resolution has been given to any credit union under paragraph (1), and that credit union does not give notice of the resolution under paragraph (2), it shall give notice of the resolution to its members not less than 14 days before the meeting at which the resolution is to be moved, either by advertisement in a newspaper having an appropriate circulation or in any other way allowed by the rules of the credit union.

(4) Where—

- (a) for any of the reasons mentioned in Article 44 (1) an intended resolution to appoint some person or persons in place of a retiring qualified auditor cannot be proceeded with at the meeting, and
- (b) by the rules of the credit union an auditor can only be appointed by a resolution passed at a general meeting after notice of the intended resolution has been given to the credit union before the meeting, a resolution passed at that meeting re-appointing the retiring auditor or appointing an auditor in place of the retiring auditor shall be effective notwithstanding that no notice of that resolution has been given to the credit union under its rules.

(5) On receipt by a credit union of notice given under paragraph (1) of an intended resolution, it shall forthwith send a copy of the notice to the retiring auditor.

(6) On receipt of a copy of such a notice, the retiring auditor may at any time before the date of the general meeting make representations in writing to the credit union (not exceeding a reasonable length) with respect to the intended resolution, and, without prejudice to paragraph (4), the retiring auditor may—

- (a) notify the credit union that he intends to make such representations, and
- (b) request that notice of his intention, or of any such representations made by him and received by the credit union before notice of the intended resolution is given to its members, shall be given to members of the credit union.

(7) Subject to paragraph (8), a credit union which receives representations or a notification of intended representations under paragraph (6) before the date when notice of the intended resolution is required by paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) (as the case may be) to be given to its members shall—

- (a) in any notice of the resolution given to its members, state that it has received those representations or that notification (as the case may be),
- (b) in any such notice, state that any member may receive on demand made before the date of the general meeting a copy of any representations which have been or may be received by the credit union before that date, and
- (c) send a copy of any representations received by the credit union before the date of the meeting to any member on demand made before that date;

but without prejudice either to the preceding provisions of this paragraph or to his right to be heard orally, the retiring auditor may also require that any representations made by him before the date of the general meeting shall be read out at the meeting.

(8) Copies of any such representations need not be sent out, and the representations need not be read out at the meeting if, on the application either of the credit union or of any other person, the High Court is satisfied that the rights conferred by this Article are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter; and the Court may order the costs of the credit union on an application under this Article to be paid, in whole or in part, by the auditor, notwithstanding that he is not a party to the application.

(9) Any provision in this Article which requires notice to be given to the members of a credit union or confers any right upon a member (as the case may be) shall be construed in the case of a meeting of delegates appointed by members as requiring the notice to be given to the delegates so appointed or conferring the right upon a delegate (as the case may be).

Qualified auditors

46.—(1) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as auditor of any credit union^[F112] unless he is eligible for appointment as a ^[F113]statutory auditor under Part 42 of the Companies Act 2006.]

(2) None of the following persons shall be qualified for appointment as auditor of a credit union—

- (a) an officer or servant of the credit union;
- (b) a person who is a partner of, or in the employment of, or who employs, an officer or servant of the credit union;

Sub#para.(c) rep. by SR 1993/67

(3) Any appointment made by a credit union in contravention of paragraph (1) or (2) shall not be an effective appointment for the purposes of this Order.

Para. (4) rep. by SR 1993/67

(5) In paragraph (2), references to an officer or servant shall be construed as not including an auditor.

Auditors' report, right of access and to be heard

47.—(1) The auditors of a credit union shall make a report to the credit union on the accounts examined by them, and on the revenue account and the balance sheet of the credit union for the year of account in respect of which they are appointed.

(2) The report shall state whether the revenue account and the balance sheet for that year comply with the requirements of this Order and whether, in the opinion of the auditors—

- (a) the revenue account gives a true and fair view in accordance with Article 42 of the income and expenditure of the credit union for that year of account, and
- (b) the balance sheet gives a true and fair view in accordance with that Article of the state of the affairs of the credit union as at the end of that year of account.

(3) Without prejudice to paragraph (2), where the report of the auditors relates to any accounts other than the revenue account for the year of account in respect of which they are appointed that report shall state whether those accounts give a true and fair view of any matter to which they relate.

(4) The auditors of a credit union, in preparing their report under this Article, shall carry out such investigations as will enable them to form an opinion as to the following matters, that is to say—

- (a) whether the credit union has kept proper books of account in accordance with the requirements of Article 40 (1) (a);
- (b) whether the credit union has maintained a satisfactory system of control over its transactions in accordance with the requirements of Article 40 (1) (b); and
- (c) whether the revenue account, the other accounts, if any, to which the report relates, and the balance sheet are in agreement with the books of account of the credit union, and if the auditors are of opinion that the credit union has failed to comply with Article 40 (1) (a) or (b), or if the revenue account, the other accounts, if any, and the balance sheet are not in agreement with the books of account of the credit union, the auditors shall state that fact in their report.

(5) Every auditor of a credit union—

- (a) shall have a right of access at all times to the books, deeds and accounts of the credit union, and to all other documents relating to its affairs, and
- (b) shall be entitled to require from the officers of the credit union such information and explanations as he thinks necessary for the performance of the duties of the auditors.

(6) If the auditors fail to obtain all the information and explanations which, to the best of their knowledge and belief, are necessary for the purposes of their audit, they shall state that fact in their report.

(7) The auditors of a credit union shall be entitled—

- (a) to attend any general meeting of the credit union, and to receive all notices of and other communications relating to any general meeting which any member of the credit union is entitled to receive, and
- (b) to be heard at any meeting which they attend on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns them as auditors.

Remuneration of qualified auditors

48.—(1) Regulations may prescribe the maximum rates of remuneration to be paid by credit unions for the audit of their accounts and balance sheets by qualified auditors.

(2) Where the maximum rate of remuneration which may be paid by a credit union for the audit of its accounts and balance sheet has been prescribed under paragraph (1), an auditor shall not, in respect of his services to a credit union, ask for, receive or be entitled to receive remuneration in excess of the rate so prescribed.

Annual returns

[^{F114}49.—(1) Every credit union must, by the due date, send to the [^{F115}FCA] a return relating to its affairs for the year required by this Article to be included in the return together with—

- (a) a copy of the report of the auditors on the credit union's accounts for the year of account; and
- (b) subject to paragraph (7), a copy of each balance sheet made during that year and of any report of the auditors on that balance sheet.

(2) The return required by paragraph (1) must—

- (a) contain the revenue account of the credit union prepared in accordance with Article 42(2) in respect of the year of account to which the return relates, and a balance sheet as at the end of that year; and

- (b) not contain any accounts other than the revenue account for that year unless those other accounts have been examined by the auditors of the credit union under Article 47.
- (3) For the purposes of this Article—
 - (a) the end of a credit union's year of account is 30th September; and
 - (b) the due date is the date specified in rules made by the [F116appropriate authority] under the 2000 Act or, if no date is specified, 6 months after the end of its year of account.
- (4) A credit union may alter the date on which its current and subsequent years of account end by notice to the [F116appropriate authority].
- (5) A notice under paragraph (4) must state whether it extends or shortens the current year of account.
- (6) A notice extending a credit union's current year of account is not effective if it extends that year of account such that it exceeds 15 months.
- (7) Paragraph (1)(b) does not apply to an interim balance sheet made up and displayed under Article 42(5).
- (8) The last return under this Article by a credit union which is being terminated by an instrument of dissolution under Article 68(b) shall be made up to the date of the instrument of dissolution.
- (9) Every credit union must, on request, supply free of charge to every member or person interested in the funds of the credit union a copy of the latest return of the credit union under this Article, and must supply with every such copy a copy of the report of the auditors on the accounts and balance sheet relating to that return.]

Officers, receivers, etc.

Security by officers

51.—(1) Every officer of a credit union having receipt or charge of money shall, if the rules of the credit union so require, before entering upon the execution of his office give security in such sum as the board of directors may direct conditioned for his rendering a just and true account of all money received and paid by him on account of the credit union at such times as its rules appoint or as the credit union or its board of directors requires him so to do and for the payment by him of all sums due from him to the credit union.

- (2) An officer of a credit union shall give security in accordance with paragraph (1) either—
 - (a) by becoming bound either with or without a surety as the board of directors may require, in a bond in such form as the board of directors may approve; or
 - (b) by giving the security of a guarantee society; or
 - (c) by giving such other security as the board of directors may direct.

Duty of officers to account

52.—(1) Every officer of a credit union having receipt or charge of money, and every servant of a credit union in receipt or charge of money who is not engaged under a special agreement to account, shall—

- (a) at such times as he is required so to do by the rules of the credit union; or
- (b) on demand; or
- (c) upon notice in writing requiring him so to do being served on him, render an account as may be required by the credit union or its board of directors to be examined and allowed or disallowed by it, and shall, on demand or on such notice as is mentioned in subparagraph (c) pay over all money and deliver all property for the time being in his hands or custody to such person as the credit union or board of directors may appoint.

(2) Any duty imposed by paragraph (1) on an officer or servant of a credit union shall, after his death, be taken to be imposed on his personal representatives.

- (3) In case of any contravention of paragraph (1) or (2), the credit union—
 - (a) may sue on any bond or security given under Article 51; or
 - (b) may apply to the county court or to a court of summary jurisdiction and the order of that county court or court of summary jurisdiction shall be final and conclusive.

Duties of receiver or manager of credit union's property

53.—^{F118}(1) Every receiver or manager of the property of a credit union who has been appointed under the powers contained in any instrument shall—

- (a) within 1 month from the date of his appointment, notify ^{F119}...^{F120}the appropriate person] of his appointment; and
- (b) within 1 month ^{F121}... after the expiration of the period of 6 months from that date, and of every subsequent period of 6 months, deliver to ^{F119}... ^{F120}the appropriate person] a return showing his receipts and his payments during that period of 6 months; and
- (c) within 1 month after he ceases to act as receiver or manager, notify ^{F119}...^{F120}the appropriate person] of that fact and deliver to ^{F119}... ^{F120}the appropriate person] a return showing his receipts and his payments during the final period and the aggregate amount of his receipts and of his payments during all preceding periods since his appointment.

^{F122}(2) In this article, “the appropriate person” means—

- ^{F123}(a)
- (b) the FCA ; and
- (c) if the society is a PRA -authorised person, the PRA .

(3) ^{F124}... the FCA and, if the society is a PRA -authorised person, the PRA may each allow a period of longer than 1 month for the delivery of returns to it under paragraph (1)(b).]

Restriction on inspection of books

55.—(1) A member or other person shall not have any right to inspect the books of a credit union except as this Order otherwise permits.

(2) Subject to any provisions as to the time and manner of inspection which may be included in the rules of a credit union, any member, and any person having an interest in the funds, of the credit union shall be allowed to inspect at all reasonable hours—

- (a) his own account; and
- (b) all the particulars contained in the duplicate register kept under Article 54(3)(a) or, if no duplicate register is kept, all the particulars in the register kept under Article 54(1) other than those entered under paragraph (1)(b) or (c) of that Article.

(3) A credit union may by its rules authorise, in addition to any inspection in pursuance of paragraph (2), the inspection of such of the credit union's books upon such conditions as may be set out in the rules, but no person who is not an officer of the credit union or specially authorised by a resolution of the credit union shall be authorised by the rules to inspect the loan or share account of any other person without that other person's written consent.

Inspection of books by order of ^{F127}FCA]

56.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the ^{F128}FCA] may, on the application of 10 members of a credit union each of whom has been a member of the credit union for not less than 12 months immediately preceding the date of the application, appoint an accountant or actuary to inspect, and to report on, the books of the credit union.

(2) The members making an application under paragraph (1) shall deposit with the ^{F129}FCA] as security for the costs of the proposed inspection such sum as ^{F130}the FCA] may require; and all expenses of and incidental to the inspection shall be defrayed by the applicants, or out of the funds of the credit union, or by the members or officers, or former members or officers, of the credit union, in such proportions as the ^{F129}FCA] shall direct.

(3) A person appointed under this Article may make copies of, and take extracts from, any books of the credit union at all reasonable hours at the credit union's registered office or at any other place where those books are kept.

(4) The ^{F131}FCA] shall communicate the results of any inspection under this Article to the applicants and to the credit union.

Suspension of credit union, etc.

Appointment of inspectors and calling of special meetings

58.—(1) Upon the application of one-tenth of the whole number of members of a credit union or, in the case of a credit union with more than 1,000 members, of 100 of those members, the [F141FCA] may^{F142} ...—

- (a) appoint an inspector to investigate and report on the affairs of the credit union; or
- (b) call a special meeting of the credit union.

(2) An application under this Article shall be supported by such evidence for the purpose of showing that the applicants have good reason for requiring the investigation or meeting and are not actuated by malicious motives, and such notice of the application shall be given to the credit union, as the [F141FCA] shall direct.

(3) The [F141FCA] may require the applicants to give security for the costs of the proposed investigation or meeting before appointing any inspector or calling the meeting.

(4) Without prejudice to paragraph (1) where the [F141FCA] is of the opinion that an investigation should be held into the affairs of a credit union or that the affairs of the credit union call for consideration by a meeting of the members, [F143the FCA] may^{F144} ...—

- (a) appoint an inspect to investigate and report on the affairs of the credit union; or
- (b) call a special meeting of the credit union; or
- (c) (either on the same or different occasions) both appoint such an inspector and call such a meeting.

(5) All expenses of and incidental or preliminary to any investigation or meeting under this Article shall be defrayed by the members applying for it, or out of the funds of the credit union, or by the members or officers, or former members or officers, of the credit union, in such proportions as the [F141FCA] shall direct.

(6) An inspector appointed under this Article may require the production of all or any of the books, accounts, securities and documents of the credit union and may examine on oath its officers, members, agents and servants in relation to its business, and may for that purpose administer oaths.

(7) The [F145FCA] may direct at what time and place a special meeting under this Article is to be held, and what matters are to be discussed and determined at the meeting; and the meeting shall

Cancellation of registration

60.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article and Article 62(2)(b), and without prejudice to Article 65(6) or 66(3), the ^{F147}FCA may, in writing and, if the society is a PRA-authorized person, after consulting ^{F148}[the PRA], cancel the registration of any credit union—

- (a) if at any time it is proved to ^{F149}[the FCA's] satisfaction—
 - (i) that the number of members of the credit union has been reduced to less than 21; or
 - (ii) that an acknowledgement of registration has been obtained by fraud or mistake; or
 - (iii) that the credit union has ceased to exist;
- (b) at the request of the credit union, to be evidenced in such manner as ^{F150}[the FCA] shall direct;
- (c) ^{F151}[if at any time] —
 - (i) ^{F152}it is proved to the FCA's] satisfaction that the credit union exists for an illegal purpose, or has wilfully and after notice from ^{F153}[the FCA] violated any of the provisions of this Order ^{F154}[or the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act (Northern Ireland) 1969] ;
 - (ii) ^{F155}... it appears to ^{F156}[the FCA] that there is no longer a common bond between the members of the credit union.

^{F157}(d) if the credit union's permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act has been cancelled or the credit union has received a warning notice under section 55Z of that Act.]

[^{F158}(1A) The FCA must not cancel the registration of a credit union by virtue of paragraph (1) (d) unless the appropriate regulator (within the meaning given in section 55A of the 2000 Act) has cancelled the credit union's permission under Part 4A of the 2000 Act and there is no possibility (or no further possibility) of that determination of the appropriate regulator being reversed or varied.]

(2) Not less than 2 months' previous notice in writing specifying briefly the ground of the proposed cancellation shall be given by the [^{F159}FCA] to a credit union before its registration is cancelled otherwise than—

- (a) at its own request; or
- (b) by virtue of Article 65(6) or 66(3)—

and if before the expiration of the period of that notice the credit union duly lodges an appeal under Article 62(2)(b), then, without prejudice to Article 61(2), the credit union's registration shall not be cancelled before the date of the determination or abandonment of the appeal.

(3) Notice of every cancellation under this Article of a credit union's registration shall, as soon as practicable after it takes place, be published in the Belfast Gazette and in any other manner which the [^{F160}FCA] considers necessary for bringing the cancellation to the notice of persons affected by the cancellation.

(4) From the date of the publication in the Belfast Gazette under paragraph (3) of a notice of the cancellation of a credit union's registration, the credit union shall absolutely cease to be entitled to any of the privileges of this Order as a credit union, but without prejudice to any liability actually incurred by the credit union which may be enforced against it as if the cancellation had not taken place.

Suspension of registration

61.—(1) Where under Article 60(1)(c) the [^{F161}FCA might cancel the registration of a credit union, it may, in writing and, if the society is a PRA-authorised person, after consulting][^{F162} the PRA]—

- (a) subject to paragraph (3), suspend the registration of that credit union for any term not exceeding three months; and
- (b) [^{F163}...subject to Article 62(2)(c), renew any such suspension for the like period.

(2) Where before the expiration of the period of a notice under Article 60(2) of the proposed cancellation of a credit union's registration, that credit union duly lodges an appeal from the proposed cancellation under Article 62(2)(b), the [^{F164}FCA may, in writing,] suspend the credit union's registration from the expiration of that period until the date of the determination or abandonment of the appeal.

(3) Not less than two months' previous notice in writing specifying briefly the ground of the proposed suspension shall be given by the [^{F165}FCA] to a credit union before its registration is suspended under paragraph (1)(a).

(4) Notice of every suspension of a credit union's registration under paragraph (1)(a) or (2) and of any renewal of a suspension under paragraph (1)(b) shall, as soon as practicable after it takes place, be published in the Belfast Gazette and in any other manner which the [^{F166}FCA] considers necessary for bringing the suspension to the notice of persons affected by the suspension.

(5) From the date of publication in the Belfast Gazette of a notice under paragraph (4) of the suspension of any credit union's registration under paragraph (1)(a) or (2) until the period of that suspension and any renewal of that suspension under paragraph (1)(b) ends (whether on the expiration of that period or on a successful appeal under Article 62(2)(c) from such a renewal) the credit union shall not be entitled to any of the privileges of this Order as a credit union, but without prejudice to any liability actually incurred by the credit union which may be enforced against it as if the suspension had not taken place.

Appeals

^{F167}62.—(1) A society may appeal to the High Court from the decision of the ^{F168}FCA] to refuse registration of the society as a credit union (including a refusal by reason only of anything contained in or omitted from the society's rules) on any ground other than that—

- (a) ^{F169}the FCA] is not satisfied that a common bond exists between the members of the society;
- ^{F170}(b) the society has not made an application under Part 4A of the 2000 Act to accept deposits;
^{F171}...
- (c) the FCA^{F172}is not] satisfied that, once registered under this Order, the society will satisfy, and continue to satisfy, the threshold conditions (within the meaning of section 55B(1) of the 2000 Act) for which it is responsible in relation to the regulated activity of accepting deposits.]]^{F173}or]
- ^{F174}(d) the PRA has not confirmed to the FCA that it is satisfied that, once registered under this Order, the society will satisfy, and continue to satisfy, the threshold conditions (within the meaning given in section 55B(1) of the 2000 Act) for which it is responsible in relation to the regulated activity of accepting deposits.]

(2) A credit union may appeal to the High Court from any decision of the ^{F175}FCA] —

- (a) to refuse registration of any amendment of the credit union's rules; or
- (b) to cancel the credit union's registration (being a cancellation of which notice is required under Article 60(2), and not being a cancellation by virtue of Article 60(1)(c)(ii) ^{F176}or (d)] if the appeal is lodged before the expiration of the period of notice of the proposed cancellation given under Article 60(2); or
- (c) to renew under Article 61(1)(b) a suspension of the credit union's registration so far as that renewal provides for the suspension to continue more than three months from the original date of suspension.

(3) If any decision such as is mentioned in paragraph (1) or (2)(a) is overruled on appeal, the ^{F177}FCA] shall issue to the credit union an acknowledgement of registration under this Order, or, as the case may be, of the amendment under Article 10(4).

Amalgamations and transfers of engagements

Restrictions on amalgamations and transfers of engagements

64. For the purposes of Articles 65 and 66, a credit union with which another credit union may amalgamate or to which that other credit union may transfer its engagements or from which that other credit union may accept a transfer of engagements shall be a credit union with a membership which has a common bond similar to the common bond between the members of that other credit union.

Amalgamation of credit unions

65.—(1) Any 2 or more credit unions may by special resolution of each of those credit unions become amalgamated together as one credit union, with or without any dissolution or division of the funds of those credit unions or any of them; and the property of each of those credit unions shall become vested in the amalgamated credit union without the necessity of any form of conveyance other than that contained in the special resolution.

(2) In this Article “special resolution” means a resolution which is—

- (a) passed by not less than two-thirds of such members of the credit union for the time being entitled under the credit union's rules to vote as may have voted in person, or by proxy where the rules allow proxies, at any general meeting of which notice, specifying the intention to propose the resolution, has been duly given according to those rules; and
- (b) confirmed by a majority of such members of the credit union for the time being entitled as aforesaid as may have voted as aforesaid at a subsequent general meeting of which notice has been duly given held not less than 14 days nor more than one month from the day of the meeting at which the resolution was passed in accordance with sub-paragraph (a).

(3) At any such meeting as aforesaid, a declaration by the chairman that the resolution has been carried shall be deemed conclusive evidence of that fact.

(4) A copy of every special resolution for the purposes of this Article signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the resolution was confirmed and countersigned by the secretary of the credit union shall be sent to the ^[F181]FCA and registered by ^[F182]it; and until that copy is so registered the special resolution shall not take effect.

(5) A credit union shall send a copy of any special resolution for registration in accordance with paragraph (4) within 14 days from the day on which the resolution is confirmed under paragraph (2) (b), but this paragraph shall not invalidate registration after that time.

(6) If credit unions become amalgamated together under this Article without the dissolution of any one or more of them, the registration of any such credit union not dissolved shall upon amalgamation become void and, subject to Article 71(2), be cancelled by the ^[F183]FCA .

^F184 If the appropriate authority is the FCA, the FCA must not register a special resolution under this Article unless the proposed amalgamation would not, in its opinion, result in a contravention of the 2000 Act, or any requirement imposed by or under that Act.

(8) If the appropriate authority is the PRA, the FCA must not register a special resolution under this Article unless the PRA, having first consulted the FCA, has confirmed to the FCA that the Transfer of engagements between credit unions

66.—(1) Any credit union may by special resolution transfer its engagements to any other credit union which may undertake to fulfil those engagements; and if that resolution approves the transfer of the whole or any part of the credit union's property to that other credit union, the whole or, as the case may be, that part of the credit union's property shall vest in that other credit union without any conveyance or assignment.

(2) Paragraphs (2) to (5) of Article 65 shall have effect for the purposes of this Article as they have effect for the purposes of that Article.

(3) If a credit union transfers all its engagements under paragraph (1), the registration of that credit union upon the transfer shall become void and, subject to Article 71(2), be cancelled by the [F185FCA] .

Saving for rights of creditors

67. An amalgamation or transfer of engagements in pursuance of Article 65 or 66 shall not prejudice any right of a creditor of any credit union which is a party to such amalgamation or transfer of engagements.

Dissolution of credit union

^{F187}Dissolution of credit union

68.—(1) A credit union may be dissolved—

- (a) on its being wound up in pursuance of an order or resolution made as is directed in regard to companies by the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, or
- (b) in accordance with Article 70, by an instrument of dissolution to which not less than three-fourths of the members of the credit union have given their consent testified by their signatures to the instrument.

(2) The provisions of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 applied by paragraph (1)(a) have effect as if the credit union were a company, but any reference to the registrar of companies shall be read as a reference to the ^{F188}FCA].

(3) A copy of any resolution passed for the voluntary winding up of a credit union must be sent by the credit union to the ^{F189}FCA] within 15 days after it is passed.

For the purposes of Article 73 (offences by credit unions, officers etc) as it applies in relation to a failure to comply with this paragraph, a liquidator of the credit union shall be treated as an officer of it.

(4) A copy of any such resolution must be annexed to every copy of the registered rules of the credit union issued after the passing of the resolution.

Liability of members in winding-up

69. Where a credit union is wound up by virtue of Article 68(a), the liability of a present or past member of the credit union to contribute for payment of the debts and liabilities of the credit union, the expenses of winding-up, and the adjustment of the rights of contributories amongst themselves, shall be qualified as follows, that is to say—

- (a) no person who ceased to be a member not less than one year before the beginning of the winding-up shall be liable to contribute;
- (b) no person shall be liable to contribute in respect of any debt or liability contracted after he ceased to be a member;
- (c) no person who is not a member shall be liable to contribute unless it appears to the court that the contributions of the existing members are insufficient to satisfy the just demands on the credit union;
- (d) no contribution shall be required from any person exceeding the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares in respect of which he is liable as a past or present member;

- (e) in the case of a share which has been withdrawn, a person shall be taken to have ceased to be a member in respect of that share as from the date of the notice of application for withdrawal.

Instrument of dissolution

70.—(1) The following provisions of this Article shall have effect where a credit union is to be dissolved by an instrument of dissolution under Article 68(b).

(2) The instrument of dissolution shall set forth—

- (a) the liabilities and assets of the credit union in detail;
- (b) the number of the members and the nature of their respective interests in the credit union;
- (c) the claims of creditors, if any, and the provision to be made for their payment; and
- (d) unless stated in the instrument of dissolution to be left to the award of the [F190FCA], the intended appropriation or division of the funds and property of the credit union.

(3) Alterations in the instrument of dissolution may be made by the consent of not less than three-fourths of the members of the credit union testified by their signatures to the alteration.

(4) The instrument of dissolution shall be sent to the [F191FCA] accompanied by a statutory declaration made by 3 members and the secretary of the credit union that all relevant provisions of this Order have been complied with; and any person knowingly making a false or fraudulent declaration in the matter shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the penalties provision by Article 10 of the Perjury (Northern Ireland) Order 1979.

(5) The instrument of dissolution and any alterations to the instrument shall be registered in like manner as an amendment of the rules of the credit union and shall be binding upon all the members of the credit union, but shall not be so registered until the [F192FCA] has received such a final return from the credit union as is referred to in [F193Article 49(8)].

(6) The [F194FCA] shall cause notice of the dissolution to be advertised at the expense of the credit union in the Belfast Gazette and in any other manner which the [F194FCA] considers necessary for bringing such notice to the attention of persons affected by the dissolution: and unless—

- (a) within 3 months from the date of the Belfast Gazette in which that advertisement appears a member or other person interested in or having any claim on the funds of the credit union commences in the county court ^{F195}... proceedings to set aside the dissolution of the credit union: and
- (b) that dissolution is set aside accordingly, then, subject to paragraph (7), the credit union shall be legally dissolved from the date of the advertisement and the requisite consents to the instrument of dissolution shall be deemed to have been duly obtained without proof of the signatures to the instrument.

(7) If the certificate referred to in Article 71(1) has not been lodged with the [F196FCA] by the date of the advertisement referred to in paragraph (6), the credit union shall be legally dissolved only from the date when that certificate is so lodged.

(8) Notice of any proceedings to set aside the dissolution of a credit union shall be sent to the [F197FCA] by the person taking those proceedings not later than 7 days after they are commenced or not later than the expiration of the period of 3 months referred to in paragraph (6), whichever is the earlier; and notice of any order setting the dissolution aside shall be sent by the credit union to the [F197FCA] within 7 days after the making of the order.

[^{F204}(3A) Any dispute which would, under the rules of a registered society, fall to be determined by the FCA is to be referred to the county court for determination.]

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), any dispute directed by the rules of a credit union to be referred to a court shall be determined by a court of summary jurisdiction.

(5) Where, whether by virtue of paragraph (4) or otherwise, a dispute is cognisable under the rules of a credit union by a court of summary jurisdiction, the parties to the dispute may by agreement refer the dispute to the county court, which may hear and determine it.

(6) Where the rules of a credit union contain no direction as to disputes, or where no decision is made on a dispute within 40 days after application to the credit union for a reference under its rules, any person such as is mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) to (d) who is a party to the dispute may apply either to the county court or to a court of summary jurisdiction, which may hear and determine the matter in dispute.

(7) ^{F205}For the purposes of the hearing or determination of a dispute under this Article. . .

[^{F206}(a) the county court may order the expenses of the hearing or determination to be paid out of the funds of the credit union or by such parties to the dispute as the court considers appropriate;]

(b) ^{F205} . . . a court of summary jurisdiction may grant to either party such discovery as to documents and otherwise, or such inspection of documents, being, in the case of discovery to be made on behalf of the credit union, discovery by such officer of the credit union as the ^{F205} . . . court may determine, [^{F207}as it considers necessary for the just and expeditious disposal of the dispute] under section 21(1) of and Schedule 2 to that Act of 1937.

[^{F205}(8) The court [^{F208}to which] any dispute is referred under paragraphs [^{F209}(3A)] to (6) may at the request of either party state a case on any question of law arising in the dispute for the opinion of the High Court.]

^{F210}(9)

[^{F211}(10) Nothing in this Article or in rules of a kind mentioned in paragraph (1) prevents any person from having a complaint dealt with under the ombudsman scheme.

(11) In this Article, “the ombudsman scheme” has the meaning it has in section 225(3) of the 2000 Act.]
