

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 3

ALTERNATIVE ACCOMMODATION

Cases where change of dwelling-house is necessary

2. Circumstances fall within this paragraph if either of the following cases is applicable to them—
Case 1

By reason of the condition of any building of which the current dwelling-house consists of or which it forms part, the dwelling-house may not safely be occupied for residential purposes.

Case 2

The Executive intends, within a reasonable time of the completion of its acquisition of the interest concerned—

- (a) to demolish or reconstruct the building which consists of or includes the defective dwelling in question, or
- (b) to carry out work on any building or land in which the interest concerned subsists, and cannot reasonably do so if the current dwelling-house remains in residential occupation.

Status:

Point in time view as at 01/01/2006.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, Cases where change of dwelling-house is necessary.